

AFTER THE BOYS

Aldermen Adopt Ordinance to Protect Lady Students

SWEEPING PROVISIONS

Young Men Can Not Loiter Around Premises of Female Schools or Eye the Girls Elsewhere.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held last night a very stringent ordinance was passed with a view to protecting the female schools of the city.

The ordinance was introduced by Alderman Andrews and was unanimously adopted after hearing brief and well pointed statements from President Dinwiddie of Peace Institute, and President Yann, of the Baptist University.

He and Dr. Yann told of how the young men would hang about the premises or follow groups of the students about the streets, stand on the street corners and gaze impudently at them.

The aldermen expressed themselves as ready and anxious to do everything they possibly can to aid the schools in suppressing such conduct by the young men.

"B. It is ordered by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Raleigh:

"Section 1. No person, under pretext of exercising his right to be on the public streets, shall loiter near the premises of the female seminaries or schools for the purpose of prying therein, or holding surreptitious communication with any of the inmates thereof; nor shall any one accompany or follow the pupils of any seminary or female school on the public streets without the permission of the teacher in charge of said pupils.

"Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the city police to see that the provisions of this ordinance are strictly enforced."

Aldermen present last night were: Andrews, Arthur, Barbee, Crocker, Drewry, Gorman, Hamilton, Hicks, Jones, Pogram, Redford and Wilder.

There were no specially important reports of committees. Mr. Drewry, for the street committee, reported verbally that two blocks have been paved with macadam during the past month.

One block, between New Bern avenue and Edenton and a square on Bloodworth. One other is now being prepared for macadam, Martin, between Bloodworth and East streets.

Mr. Drewry also stated that a force of hands are at work about the city, cleaning up the leaves and opening gutters. He complained that property owners frequently empty trash of all kinds in the gutters in spite of the ordinance prohibiting it, and called upon the chief of police to see that there is in future a strict enforcement of the ordinance.

Alderman Hicks as chairman of the sanitary committee asked for more time on their report as to the appropriation to the Rex Hospital. It will be remembered that in making the appropriation for Olivia Raney Library that to Rex Hospital was reduced from $168,000 per month to $100 per month.

A protest was made against this, the management of the Raney Library refusing to accept the appropriation if taken from the hospital. The matter of reconsidering the appropriation and giving the regular amount to Rex Hospital was referred to the sanitary committee, the one having to do with the affairs of the hospital. And it is their report on this that they ask more time on.

Alderman Gorman, chairman of the cemetery committee, made a verbal statement that the cemetery is being steadily improved, the best possible progress being made.

Chairman Barbee, of the finance committee, made the usual monthly report of city finances. It showed that collections were as follows: Street paving $65.10; taxes, $3,376.55; collections by chief of police, $963.91.

The bond of the tax collector for $35,000, from 1901 until 1903, was accepted by the board.

of a public street anywhere in Raleigh, but it went over without any action being taken. It proposes to impose a fine of $10.

About 9 o'clock the board adjourned until November 22d, when it is expected, that the finance committee will have a report to submit regarding the settlement with the tax collector for 1900 taxes. The motion to adjourn until the 22d instant was made by Alderman Andrews.

POSTSCRIPTS

Raleigh sportsmen who went into the fields yesterday, say it was hot walking and birds were scattering. The latter is especially true of the number brought home.

Miss Pearl Cobb, of Lumber Bridge, left for her home yesterday after a visit of several days to the family of Gen. T. F. Toon, superintendent of public instruction.

Mr. Moore, of Atlanta, of the firm of Moore & Stevenson, left last night for his home. Mr. Moore was one of the judges in the photographers' convention here this week.

Major R. F. Lixon, state auditor, left yesterday morning for Burlington, Kings Mountain, Bessemer City, Shelby and Gastonia. He will return to Raleigh on next Wednesday.

The foot ball team of the Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg, Va., passed through yesterday on their way home. They defeated Clemson College, S. C., Thursday by a score of 17 to 11.

Judge Fred Phillips returned to his home in Tarboro yesterday after spending several days here, the guest of his daughter Mrs. H. W. Jackson, on Fayetteville street.

The state auditor has issued a $500 warrant to the secretary of the Negro State Fair. It is in payment of the annual appropriation by the state made for the purpose of offering cash prizes.

Rev. Livingston Johnston, corresponding secretary of the State Mission Board, returned from Chowan Association yesterday and goes out to Morrisville this morning to attend the Raleigh Association.

Rev. W. D. Hubbard, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist church, went out to Morrisville yesterday to attend the sessions of the Raleigh Baptist Association. He will conduct the services at his church tomorrow.

A charter was issued yesterday for the Jackson Drug Company at Waxhaw, Union county. The capital stock is $2,000 and the incorporators Calvin E. Roon, D. S. Davis, C. S. Massey, W. R. McCain and J. E. McCain.

The many friends of Mr. Ed. Crawford, formerly of Raleigh, but now manager of the Leon Hotel, Tallahassee, Fla., will be glad to learn that the wound he recently received while out hunting has fully healed.

Mr. C. H. Campbell, superintendent of the Charlotte water works, and Mr. A. E. Boardman, of Brevard, were in the city yesterday. Mr. Boardman is the well known engineer who had charge of installing the splendid filter plant for the Raleigh Water Company last winter.

Miss Mary Shipp and Miss Eleanor Vass returned yesterday morning from Virginia, where they have been spending some time at Edge Hill, the beautiful country place of the Randolphs, in Albemarle county. They have been the recipients of marked social attentions in Virginia, and had a delightful visit. Miss Shipp has been visiting friends in Virginia for several months.

NOVEMBER WEATHER

A Compilation of the Raleigh Record for 14 Years

The following data, covering a period of fourteen years, have been compiled from the Weather Bureau records in this city for the month of November:

Mayor's Court Yesterday

His honor the mayor had a light docket yesterday. For disorderly conduct Henry Bryan, colored, was sent to the roads for thirty days, and the same defendant sent out to court on a charge of trespass.

Lillie Burgin, colored, was charged with stealing some articles of clothing from Lydia Chamblée, and will tell her troubles to the court.

The New Bern Court

Judge Thomas R. Purnell returned yesterday from New Bern, where he has just closed a term of the Federal Court. About the only case of special note disposed of was that against Robert C. Kehoe, a well known Republican revenue officer—storekeeper and gauger—for violation of the revenue law in aiding and abetting in defrauding the government by concealing spirits. Kehoe was convicted and sentenced to nine months in jail and $1,000 fine. He is 73 years old. Two others, a white man and a negro, were convicted for implication in the same offence.

OLD HENRY WHISKEY, always the same. Mild, Mellow and Pure.

HEARD IN THE LOBBIES

Talk About Late Trains, Senator Candidates, Etc

"Is my train on time?" asked a man in one of our hotels last night, as he leisurely rested his arm on the register. "I'll see," said the man behind the desk. "Hello! Is the train on time?" You don't know! Can't you find out? I've got some passengers here who want to know. Oh, its late? I thought you could tell something about it. About how late is it? Three hours? well, why couldn't you tell me that at first?"

The returning to the enquirer, the hotel man said: "The train is reported three hours late. It exasperates me to get such replies as that over the 'phone when I ask for information for the benefit of travelers, but it is nothing unusual. People who play smart like that ought to be reported to the higher authorities."

And the bystanders thought the hotel man was in the humor to do the job.

A night or two ago a well known member of the last legislature was in the city and on being asked the news said: "Well, we're going to elect Lee Overman to the United States Senate next year. Now that Mr. Osborne has been appointed Judge of the Court of State Land Claims, he is out of the senatorial race, and his strength will go to Overman. Yes, you can say that Hon. Lee S. Overman will succeed Fritchard in the Senate."

"How about the judgeship?" was asked. "Who will the west decide upon?"

"Well, we have not determined that yet. There will be several candidates, any one of whom will do; but Overman will be the next Senator."

Another man said the same night that if T. W. Mason should come out he would sweep the field.

And the listener was forced to believe the question had not yet been settled.

TWO MORE BURGLARIES

One on Saunders Street, the Other at Caraleigh Mill

A thief entered the house of Mr. Alfred Matthews on South Saunders street sometime before daylight yesterday morning, by raising a window. Mr. Matthews' pants were stolen, also a pocket book containing one dollar in money. A handkerchief was also taken. The pocket book and handkerchief were dropped at the gate, but the pants were carried off along with the dollar.

The house of Mr. Walter King at Caraleigh Mills, was also entered the same night, and as at Mr. Matthews' the thief got in by raising a window. Mr. King's pants were carried out, the pockets rifled, 25 cents and a knife secured and the pants left hanging on the fence. This was after 11 p. m., and 3 o'clock in the morning.

Tobbaries of this kind have been quite frequent of late, and it is supposed that the work is done by professional thieves who follow in the wake of the disreputable gangs who inhabit the mill way at fairs.

INSPECTION AND OYSTER SUPPER

Raleigh Rifles Reviewed by Col. Bain. Make Creditable Showing

Last night was a notable one with the Raleigh Light Infantry. It was the occasion for the inspection of the company by Col. T. H. Bain, inspector general, assisted by Col. Henry Perry of the Third regiment. The inspection was in progress from 8:30 to 9:30 o'clock, and after it was concluded the company and the visiting officers repaired to Dorsett's cafe, where an oyster supper was served up in Mine Host Dorsett's most elegant style. It was a merry and sumptuous feast and was heartily enjoyed by every one present.

Colonel Bain commends the Raleigh Light Infantry heartily for the excellent showing made during the inspection. It is a company of which Captain Bernard may well be proud. The captain, by the way, proved himself equally efficient last night as commander of the company as master of ceremonies during the repast at the cafe.

Sevengala Coming

Sevengala, who is booked to appear at the Academy of Music for one week, commencing next Monday, must be a perfect wonder, judging from the inducements he is receiving from the press all over the country. The following is a clipping from the Petersburg Index:

"The Sevengalas opened a week's engagement in this city last evening at the Academy of Music to the largest audience of the season, and, without exaggeration, the best pleased audience of the season. There was fun enough in the hypnotic features of the performance to furnish more entertainment than is usually found in a half dozen ordinary shows, and from beginning to end the audience was convulsed with laughter. But the most wonderful part of the performance is what is designated on the bills as 'Le Transmission by Telepathy,' in which a young lady, while in a hypnotic state, is subjected to some very trying tests suggested by the audience, which she fulfills with unerring accuracy. Not the least remarkable feature of this part of the program is the extraordinary feat of memory in which Sevengala receives from the audience a great number of suggestions, some of them very novel and difficult, and carries them out faithfully to the minutest detail. It would require more space than we can spare to adequately describe this wonderful and delightful entertainment. Go and see it for yourself. Change of program every night."

The New Bern Court

Judge Thomas R. Purnell returned yesterday from New Bern, where he has just closed a term of the Federal Court. About the only case of special note disposed of was that against Robert C. Kehoe, a well known Republican revenue officer—storekeeper and gauger—for violation of the revenue law in aiding and abetting in defrauding the government by concealing spirits.
