FAYETTEVILLE WEDDING

Johnson-McDiarmid Nuptials Celebrated in Presbyterian Church

Fayetteville, N. C., Dec. 18. A beautiful marriage took place at 10 o'clock this morning in the Presbyterian church of this city, attracting a large crowd, and quiting Mr. E. A. Johnston and Miss Janie McDiarmid, the ceremony being performed by Rev. D. M. Fairley. assisted by Rev. H. T. Graham. The church had been beautifully decorated. and Miss Daisy Smith of Goldsbore rendered beautiful and appropriate music at the organ.

The groom's best man was his brother Mr. William S. Johnston, and the maid of honor was Miss Eloise McDiarmid, carrying bride's roses, and attended by the ring-bearer, Master A. M. Fairley, and the flower girl, little Miss Mary Willfams.

The bride was escorted into church and given away by her brother, Mr. J. C. McDiarmid. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and wore a Parisian gown of salmon cloth, trimined in black and white applique.

The bridesmatus were aressed in white mousseline over taffata, Nile-green sashes, picture hats, with bouquets of American Beauty roses. The party was as fol-lows: Miss Janie Fairley and Mr. Frank Patterson, Miss Essie Johnston and Mr. L. B. Hale, Miss Elizabeth Williams and Mr. E. G. Phelin, Miss Annabelle Devane and Mr. J. K. Williams, Miss Ellen Underwood and Mr. William Crenshaw, Miss Martha Williams and Mr. E. Denains, Miss Beatrice Patterson and Mr. A. B. Williams, Jr.

After the marriage ceremony an eleto about severty guests at the Hotel LaFavette. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston went north at noon or a honeymoon tour.

Always the Best of Everything for the Least Money

Busy times here. Crowds from morning till night. Densely packed from noon till evening. Best shopping time is the forenoon hours and after tea. There is a cause for this outpouring of the people. What we do we do quickly. We are turning to your advantage the condition created by the limited time in which we have to dispose of the entire Christmas stock. Some whole lines of goods are quickly disappearing. We wish not to hurry you, but every hour you delay finds the stock worse broken. We cannot emphasize too strongly. Come early.
