THE MORNING POST.

HARVARD MAKES HENRY A DOCTOR

President Eliot Speaks Gracefully in Conferring the Degree on the Royal Visitor

Boston, March 6 .- Prince Henry of the streets through which the prince and | ture. - party were to pass, and by 8 o'clock details of police were at their sta-

The storm of yesterday impaired the decorations, but it did not take long day to repair the damage, and nearly mentire route through the city was brilthe red, white and blue.

Long before the special train was due on and extended along the streets as-

Ruston and Albany branch, were in charge. At the time scheduled, 9:35, man is sitting with us here, reived by Rear Admiral Evans as soon is the train stopped. The officials were

The prince raised his hat in honorary members." scknowledgment of the greeting. Sevral minutes were occupied in escorting visitors to their carriages. That to their carriage, and Prince Henry ing the college yells time and again. immense crowd outside began to heer, and the procession made its way brough throngs of persons making most y demonstrations of welcome.

out-riders, and behind that of the squad of mounted police.

the visit. He was escorted to the State the pursuit of German ideals and in the liouse by police and state militia and striving for all that exalts and is last- Excuses Offered on the Score was welcomed there. After the visit to the State House the prime and his party left for Cambridge. The first stop was at Cambridge City Hall, where Mayor McNamee presented e greeting of the city of Cambridge your upon the arrival of the prince. reached Harvard. They were received and the members of the corporation of the university were presented to the Then the visitors were conduct-

Sanders' Theatre, where the hondegree of Doctor of Laws was conferred upon Prince Henry by Presi- Royal Highness, Prince Henry of Prustions Eliot. President Elliott said in part: This occasion is unique. Twice in the history of the university has a spe-

States, making a progress through the addity, but never before has this demtatic university been called together purpose to do honor to a fóreign Weighty-reasons must have desuch unprecedented action on applauded. part of this society of scholars. These are the reasons:

Our students of history know the remonic sources, in the dim past, of institutions and public customs then have been transmitted through Lagland to this New England.

thes us hold in greateful remembrance Proces of Protestantism-Luther, Melanethon, Erasmus and their kindred Hirits-and the German princes who that precious cause through long years of confused alarms and cruel wartachusetts followed anxiously the vicisstiddes of the thirty years war and was in the habit of ordering public thanksgiving to God for 'good news from Ger-

In watching the social and ethnolog-

American students have drawn instruction and inspiration and taken example. At this moment hundreds of American teachers who call some German university their foster mother are at work in schools, colleges and universities all the way from this icy sea-coast to the hot Philippines. "Our men of letters and science know well the unparalleted contributions Germany has made since the middle of the nineteenth century to pure knowl-I pussia's first view of Boston was of a edge and also to science applied in snow-clad city upon which there shone the new arts and industries which, a sun from a clear sky. Hundreds of within fifty years, have so marvelously Belgian Steamer Waesland workmen were busy at daylight clearing changed the relations of man to na

"Our whole people have the profoundroute was in excellent condition. est sympathy with the unification of Ger-The thoroughfare had been roped off many. We all believe in a great union of federated states, bound togethe y a common language, by unrestricted mutual trade, by common currency, mails, means of communication, courts of justice and institutions of credi; and fihant with color before the prince ar- nance, and inspired by a passionate pawed. German flags of red, white and triotism. Such is the venerable Ameriblack predominated in many places over can union; such the young German em-

"We gladly welcome here today a worlarge crowds began to assemble in the thy representative of German greateighborhood of the great South sta- ness-worthy in station, profession and character. We see in him, however, The mayor, with his secretary and sev- something more than the representative e al of the city officials, reached South of a superb nationality and an imperial station a few minutes after 9 o'clock, ruler. Universities have long memories, The first battalion of cavalry, one of Forty years ago the American union he best of Massachusetts' volunteer was in deadly peril and thousands of troops, had drawn up in the station ready its young men were bleeding and dyfor escort duty. A dozen open carriages ing for it. It is credibly reported that at lowered. The passengers took their were in waiting to convey the prince and a very critical moment the Queen of places in them without hesitation and his party to Hotel Somerset, their first England said to her Prime Minister: in less than half an hour the whole and seven cars, and officials of the New shall sign no paper which means war monides, except two, Edward Danger rk Central, assisted by those of its with the United States."

authority given me by the president not yet known. The Waesland went noon. While investigating the fire in the Mayor Collins, and President Doyle, and fellows and board of overseers, down in thirty-five minutes after she mine which has been raging for several Polan, of the Common Council, were re- friends here assembled, I create hon- lost everything except the clothing they A terriffic explosion followed, orary doctor of laws Albert William were or were able to don hurriedly. is corted into the car and introduced to Henry, Prince of Prussia and Vice-Ad- The Wassland carried no mail. The miral, and, in the name of this society passengers highly praise the captain Crowds which had come in local trains of scholars, I declare that he is enti- and crew and also the captain and crew and which filled the waiting-rooms be- tled to the rights and privileges per- of the Harmonides. It is expected that gan to cheer as soon as they caught taining to this degree, and that his name the company will offer to send the pasght of the party coming from the is to be forever borne on its roll of sengers on another of its vessels next

After the formal exercises at Memorial Hall the prince was escorted to the prince was placed at the head of the Harvard faculty room, where lunched the the The prince and Rear Admiral con was served. After luncheon he vis-Evans, who were in full uniform, were ited the college huildings. Crowds of theered at every step of their short walk college students cheered the prince, giv-askin wledged the greetings by saluting. The Prince, after receiving the degree As the line of carriages moved out of doctor of laws from President Eliot, riveway at the end of the station read in German the cablegram he had received, a correct translation of which follows:

Henry, Prince of Prussia, Harvard University, Cambridge: "I congratulate you upon receiving the were three policemen on foot, the honorary degree of doctor of the rear end of the line of carriages laws from Harvard University, the highest honor which America can bethe Hotel Somerset a few moments stow. May the copies of the examples were given the prince and his party to of German art and German civilization. Then, a few minutes before 11 which I transmit through you, be to the Governor of the State. Governor the professors, as well as to the young Crane and the royal visitor had a brief academicians, an incentive throughout At noon Prince Henry returned their lives and an inspiring example in

"WILLIAM."

A Visit to the State House

Boston, March 6 .- After the visit to an elaborately engrossed form. One the Governor a visit was paid to the housand school children of the city State House where both branches of the Legislature were assembled in joint ofter 1:30 o'clock the party convention. As the little procession, with the Governor and the prince in President Eliot in Memorial Hall, the lead, entered the room the sergeantat-arms, in a loud, clear voice said:

"Mr. President, I have the honor to present His Excellency, the Governor. W. Murray Crane, accompanying His

There was applause, and then the Presor or the President of the United | the President, Prince Henry and Governor Crane walked down the center aisle to the speaker's desk, Prince Henwith him. He was warmly greeted and

From the State House the prince went to the public library. He received a considerable body of Germans drawn up in line, some of whom wore medals on their breasts and all of whom had The Puritan origin of the university advanced to meet them and shake hands rations were consumed the men became army, and the Wallers are among Nor- it be made more efficient? I grant by Judge Boyd, will arive tonight for the university advanced to meet them and shake hands rations were consumed the men became army, and the Wallers are among Nor- it be made more efficient? I grant by Judge Boyd, will arive tonight for the university advanced to meet them and shake hands remain a shake hands are also became army, and the Wallers are among Nor- it is to be made more efficient? with each one of them. "I am glad to exhausted and dropped along the way. folk's most prominent people, greet the soldiers who served under my grandfather and who endeavor to keep up the traditions of the army."

The Puritan government of Mas- CAUGHT BY BLOODHOUNDS

Assailant of a Little Girl Put Behind the Bars

a curopean people made in the present cost. Congressman Thomas introduced war the century to the population of identified Williams colored as City, who will be the prosecuting lawthe United States came from Germany, the man who assaulted her. Geneva yer. Mr. Ward says in part:

Goodman, nine years old, who accoming the grand jury will meet Monday, remembered. the most numerous, but the best panied Annie when the outrage occur- the 10th instant. They will act on the caught. Williams is in Portsmouth is searching for the highwaymen. jail, it being feared that he would be lynched if taken to Berkley.

Men whose bearing is determined are crossing the ferry from Berkley to ary, sixty years old.

The jail is heavily guarded at Portsnow there is no fear felt of lynching.

SUNK AT SEA

Run Down by the Harmonides

London, March 6.-The Belgian steamer Waesland, Captain Apfeld from Liverpool for Philadelphia, February 16, has sunk off Holyhead after being in collision with the British steamer Harmonides, Captain Pentin, from Brazilian ports for Liverpool. The Waesland's passengers and crew were transferred to the Harmonides and are now on that vessel for Liverpool,

The Harmonidas arrived here at 3.30 o'clock. The agents of the American line met her and superintended the transfer of the Waesland's passengers to various hotels.

The collision occurred at 11.36 p. m. Wednesday during a thick fog forty mile southwest of Holyhead. The 'My Lord, you must understand that I ship's company were on board the Harfield a steerage passenger and a child, "The grandson of that illustrious we- Elsie Emmett, daughter of a saloon passenger. They were killed, probably the Cattsburg mine of the River Coal the engines puffed into the long train "Now, therefore, in the exercise of at the time of the collision, but this is Company, at Monongaheia this after-

Thrown in a Coke Oven

Cumberland, March 6 .- Two colored highwaymen today threw Jeremiah Johnston of Davidsonville, Pa., into a white hot coke oven near that place. His face was shriveled and one arm was burned off before two tramps rescued the man. The man is at the State never seen the men before, but robbery civil war.

Branch's blood hounds trailed Wil- was their motive, it is thought. Chief liams to a street car where he was of police Roteler, who has a large posse,

An Early Visit

Albany, March 6.-The train bearing Portsmouth. Threats are made that Prince Henry and his suite is expected Williams will be lynched on the gal- to arrive in Albany at 8:30 o'clock tolows built today for the purpose of morrow morning from Boston. The hanging Neil Stanback, colored, who is prince will receive a call from Governor under sentence to be hanged next Wed- Odell, at the Union Station upon the arnesday for an attempted assault upon rival of the train. The Governor and Mrs. Pruefer, a white woman mission- Mr. James G. Graham, secretary to the Governor; Adjutant General Henry and Major Bird, Military Secretary to the mouth where Williams is confined, and Governor, will drive to the station in carriages, accompanied by an escort of

At about 9 o'clock the prince will leave

MINE EXPLOSION

Five Men Killed and Many Entombed in the Workings

Monongahela, Pa., March 6.-An explosion occurred shortly before noon, in he Cattsburg mine, and two men were seriously burned. Many other men are reported entombed in the mine, which is burning furiously, and it is feared that all are dead. A rescuing party is rying to fight its way into the mine. From what can be learned, John Hagar, a machinist, went into the mine at At least a score of men were with him, and just as Hagar pulled his safety lamp into the opening a terrific explosion followed. All the men were knocked down and many rendered insensible. Hagar was stunned for a minute, but presently crawled over the men Waesland's boats were immediately and succeeded in getting to the mouth and giving an alarm. He was followed by James Turnan, both horribly burned. Hagar tried to go back and aid his comrades, but was not successful.

Bellvernon, Pa., March 6.-Five men are dead as a result of an explosion at days John Haggerty, a miner, carried an open lamp into a room filled with gas.

The dead are: Robert Hawley, mine boss of Sunnyside; James Hawley, son of the mine boss; Isaac Eastwood, miner of Monongahela; John Gilder, miner of Black Diamond, and Wm. McFarland, miner of Monongahela,

To Make Bartlett an Admiral

Washington, March 6 .- A bill has been introduced in the Senate and House to be a Rear Admiral on the retired list, the rank now held by all surviving officers of his class at the naval academy. During the Spanish war Captain Bartlett acted as chief of the office of naval Hospital in a dying condition. John-intelligence and was also superintenston had stopped at the ovens to warm. dent of the coast signal service. Cap-Without provocation the men sneaked tain Bartlett was present at both bonup behind and threw him in. He had bardments of Fort Fisher during the

Too Officers Charged With Horrible Crime

of Privations Which Upset Their Mental Balance

Manila, March 6 .- A court martial has the native was killed.

a detachment of marines, alluded to in could not be described, the foregoing dispatch, started the last Major Waller became separated from his brother officers-Captain Porter and Lieut. R. H. Williams-and the greater part of the men, and proceeded to Basoy, where he arrived January 9 with two officers and 13 men.

The second day after separating from Waller, Captain Porter moved toward Lananga where he arrived January 11, with two men, all exhausted, physically been ordered to try Major Littleton, W. and mentally. Lieut. Williams and over | platious? Let the gentlemen who vote T. Waller and Lieutenant John H. A. thirty men were left in the mountains in Day of the Marine Corps, March 17 a similar conditions. A relief expedinext, on the charge of executing natives tion reached Samar January 18 and of the island of Samar without trial. | saved Lieut. Williams and all his com-It is charged that one native was panions with the exception of 10 men, tied to a tree and publicly shot in the who were not found, and who undoubtthigh. The next day, it is said, the edly died from starvation. Captain Porman was shot in the arms. According tor, Lieut. Williams and 18 men were to contend that this service will be ment and called upon the members to to the charges, the third day he was taken to the hospital at Tacoban, none made more efficient by letting it to the a gendemic session been held to do rise. When everybody was on his feet, the parties were billed. The President of the United rise when everybody was on his feet, the parties were billed. Friends of the two officers attribute the period of suffering. Major Waller perate search for reasons for support counties that he represents. their actions, if really guilty, to loss was disordered in his recollection. The of his bill, makes no such allegation. of mind, due to the privations which official report of the War Department He bases his somewhat incoherent and has reported favorably the bill appro-President advancing and shaking hands they suffered in the island of Samar. at Washington said the sufferings of inexplicable demand for so radical a printing $12,500 for the establishment

Major Waller rendered gallant ser- economy. vice with the United States Marines in Incessant rains from the start, swollen pointed to the Marine Corps from Vir- The question for this House ought to vey of the proposed route. Mr. Pou has streams and other obstacles made pro- ginia. Major Waller lived in Norfolk be, not whether this service can be requested this survey. grandfather. The prince said, as he gress extremely slow, and when their before he was appointed to the regular pared down in cost, but rather how can A delegation from Greensboro, headed

Wilcox Will Be Put on Trial Next Week

Suffolk, Va., March 6 .- Special .- The extreme western part of North Carolina. suspected murderer of Ella Maud Crop- examined by the prosecution.

Kluttz Leads the Fight Against Contract System

Efficiency of the Rural Delivery Will Be Promoted by Placing It Under Civil Service

Washington, March 6 .- Special .-Congressman Kluttz led the opposition today in the debate against the bill to of this service I dare maintain that it classify the rural free delivery service, equalled in department annals. I dare which would place the carrier service maintain that it has been a success beunder the contract system. It was one youd comparison with any hitnerto atof the most effective speeches yet delivered against the measure, which is certain to meet overwelming defeat, cost, the question of economy. I con-Congressman Kluttz is a regular whirl-tend as I did a while ago that the wind in debate and his speech today question of economy should no more attracted much attention. Members enter into this service than into the crowded around him while he spoke frank. I have read the report and es-Mr. Kluttz said, in part:

to stay. By its fruits it has demon- this year, 8.600 of these routes will be strated, not only its usefulness but its one-fourth of the rural population. Tais, indispensability. No improvement of multipled by four gives the total number the public service ever attempted by of routes after a while in the country the government has been so immediate, a: 34,400, which at $600 would to $28,-640,000. This seems an enormous sum.

"The service has done tardy justice amount of the River and Harbor bif to our great rural population; delivered expected to pass this House annually the mails daily at the very homes of it is ten millions less than is paid the the farmers; put them in daily touch railroads for mail transportation. And with the outer world; given them daily yet, because it goes to the farmer; bepapers, market reports, weather sig-cause it is intended to relieve the tonals, registered letters, postal orders, dium and solitude of country life; bestamps, and packages by mail. It has cause it is for the benefit of the man made life on the farm more tolerable who digs and delves in the soil, the and more pleasant, and it has lighten- question of economy is raised here when ed the life of many a farmer's boy; 1e- other appropriations for hundreds of lieved his solltude, saved him from the millions of dollars go without question, maelstrom, of the city, and in doing so Illinois (Mr. Boutell), somewhat jocu-has lightened the decling years of many House voting either yea or nay. a fond and anxious father and mother. "I am a believer in all proper economy put the farmer on something like an proper purposes, but I am opposed to a service is concerned.

delivering mail by the government to country. the citizen at his home being admitted, city homes, which does not equally de- tics, to consider. mand that such delivery should be made the temptations of the town and city. prefers to remain on his own broad snares, the smells, the confinement, of who must make his way of from twenty to thirty miles a day, through the ice and snow and over the bad roads of the interior, required to furnish bond for himself and a substitute, as well as horse and conveyance, should be grudged the six hundred dollars per annum, allowed him under the present regfor this bill answer to their rural con-

"Gentlemen may find some excuse for this seemingly inexcusable inconsistency. I hope they may be able to

"I do not understand any gentleman The expedition of Major Waller and Major Waller's command for 20 days change, if I rightly apprehend him, al- of a weather bureau at Asheville. most solely upon the alleged ground of Congressman Pou can do nothing ited star route system, let to the lowest Post Roads tomorrow. Senator Pritchbidders, and simply at the least cost and will know nothing about the Charwithout regard to either acceptability lotte post office until his return, so it or efficiency, there may be merit in the is said. It is not known when he will gentleman's hill; but if it is to main- get back to Washington. promptest mail service, it must have no popce. trial of James Wilcox, the lover and There will be some twenty witnesses such friendly knock-out-drops adminis Ex-Senator Marion Butler is spending tered to it. Indeed, I do not believe much of his time in Washington, Today watching the social and ethnolog-bear phenomena of our own times we have seen that the largest contribution which a European people made in the

A telegram tonight from Sheriff of the Committee on Post Offices and the heirs of N. D. White of Jones for the most numerous, but the best pamed Annie order the foundation of the most numerous, but the best pamed Annie order the foundation of the most numerous, but the best pamed Annie order the foundation of the Committee on Post Offices and the heirs of N. D. White of Jones for Wilcox case Tuesday. If an indictment is returned he will be arraigned. A telegram tonight from Sheriff of the Committee on Post Offices and the heirs of N. D. White of Jones for Wilcox case Tuesday. If an indictment is returned he will be arraigned. A that of Solicitor Ward, except that he anybody, anywhere. All the time he special venire will probably be ordered. The university men we feel the importance with the universities of the German Father land. From them thousands of eager with the form the universities of the technical sensition. From them thousands of eager with the universities of the mean father land. From them thousands of eager with the universities of the universities of the technical sensition. This occurred near the grand jury this after will probably be ordered and he will be eight or ten witnesses. The committee in charge of this service he has reported and he will probably be ordered and he will probably be so fortunate as to secure, as I am informed, some twenty-odd routes in his own district; and all at once he has awakened to the alarming fact that the system is all wrong, that its administration has been an extravagant failure, and that its only salvation is to cut its tail off close behind the ears and reduce it nearly to a level with the starroute system.

"In spite of all the abuse that has been heaped upon the administration has been marked by an intelligence untempted improvement in government ser-

"But coming now to the question of city delivery service; and I want to be timates of the Postmaster General. His "Rural free delivery service has come estimate is that b ythe first of July so rapidly and so unusually acceptable but it is only about the cost of three battleships, only about one-third of the upon all proper occasions and for at equal footing with his neighbors in the cheese-paring economy which I believe cities and towns, so far as the postal will prevent the development and evolution of the greatest benefits of this "And the correctness of the policy of service for the rural population of our

"Gentlemen talk about politics. I why should not the dweller in rural was glad to hear the gentleman from communities be put upon an equality Illinois (Mr. Boutwell), somewhat jocuas near as may be, with the dwellers larly it is true, admit that this bill was in towns and cities? Is there any di- intended to perpetuate the Republican vinity which doth heage about city and control over this service; and I believe town people which does not also extend that while it was said jocularly, there authorizing the President to appoint to the people who live in the country and fix more truth than jest in it. I want Capt. John R. Bartlett, U. S. N., retired, and on the farms? Is there any reason gentlemen on this side of the House, and on the farms? Is there any reason gentlemen on this side of the House, why the government should deliver especially those who say that this bill mails from two to five times daily at takes the system absolutely out of poli-

> "Why, gentlemen complain that there at least once daily, where practicable, has been politics in the administration at the home of the man, who, resisting of this department heretefore, and that there has been partiality shown as between different sections. That may be acres, away from the temptations, the true, and the reason is not tar to seek. Gentlemen on this side of the House the city? I trow not, and I want every know that they have been promised member of this Congress who votes in time and again that inspectors should favor of this bill to answer this ques- be sent to their districts and routes estion to his rural constituents when he tablished, and that these promises have goes home for re-election. Is there been broken, and they have been broany reason why the city carrier who ken because of the greed, because of works but eight hours a day-has all the influence and the power of influenholidays with annual leave, and who tial members of this House and chairmen walks on asphalt pavements-should of great committees, from whom a sinreceive eight hundred to one thousand gle request is more powerful with any dollars a year, while the rural carrier, subordinate official of this government than the most importunate demands of humble members of this House like myself and other gentlemen on this side. How does it happen that the chairman of one of the great committees of this House has over a hundred of these routes in his district? How does it happen that another chairman has twenty of them? How does it happen that another member of a great committee has over a hundred of them? The reason is not far to seek. Take it out of politics; put it under the civil

Congressman Pon has had his secretary busily engaged with the seed proposition for some days. Altogether Mr. Pou has sent 17,000 packages of seed The House Committee on Agriculture towards securing the passage of a bili "If I understand the temper of this for the macadamizing of New Bern ga, on the east coast of Samar, to cross | China during the march of all the forces | House, the gentleman will fail to im- avenue to the national cemetery until the the island to Basoy, about 36 miles. from the sea to Pekin. He was appress it with his own pessimistic fears. city authorities furnish him with a sur-

a secondary place to even the discred- House Committee on Post Offices and tain the enviable reputation which it Congressman Moody today obtained has already made, if it is to fulfill an appointment for Frank McFayden its present promise, if it is to give the of Waynesville, which pays $90 per rural population the very best and month. He is ordered to report at blameless life the same night, are well "The gentleman from California ad- claims bills today in favor of James F. mits that the child was born in the room | White of Jones county for $900, and