Night Was Her Terror

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 25 pounds." It is absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles 10c. At all drug stores.

Health and Long Life and Work

Senator Depew: I have observed that health and longevity are indissolubly connected with work. Work furnishes the ozone for the lungs, the appetite and the disposition which support vigorous life; the occupation which keeps the brain active and expansive. When a man from 50 upward retires, as he says, for rest, his intellectual powers become turbid, his circulation sluggish, his stomach a burden and the coffin his home. Altgeld Was Not Prepossessing

(Syracuse Herald.) In appearance Altgeld was pale and stooped, somewhat slovenly and awkward, with coat hunched up in the back. His clothes were well worn, his trousers always baggy at the knees, his shoes big and unpolished, and he wore a soft felt hat. His face and head were uncommon. His eyes were an impenetrable blue, usually dull, and looked out from under drooping eyelids. His head was unkempt and his hair grew as observing people say the hair of an Anarchist grows, in queer strings from the back of the crown to the forehead. His nose was pointed and turned up, and there was little animation in his face or in his figure.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this Remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured.—Sallie Harris, Salem, N. J. Mrs. Noosen: My daughter's becoming more proficient. She plays regular pieces now. You don't notice her playing exercises now as much as she did. Mrs. Naylor: No; but I notice her playing exercises my husband as much as ever it did.—Philadelphia Record.

"Your maple syrup," said the lady, "seems to be a good deal like the quality of mercy." "How's that?" the smiling grocer asked, expecting a compliment. "It is not strained."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Towns: Do you really mean to say that he's happiest when he's looking for work? I always considered him lazy. Browne: Exactly. When a man's looking for work he hasn't any.—Philadelphia Press.

ILLUSTRATION OF FIVE YEAR DIVIDEND

PLAN OF THE AETNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

CHURCHILL, N. C., Sept. 26th, 1901.

Mr. J. D. Boushall, Gen'l Agt., Raleigh, N. C.

DEAR SIR: Yours of yesterday received with notice of accumulated dividend amounting to $28.46 on my policy No. 247028. I execute and enclose form 110 and 234, for which you will please pay the premium—$27.73—due Sept 29th, 1901, and send me check for balance.

I am most grateful to the Company for the large dividend that has been accumulated under my policy. I must say that insurance is the best investment that a young man can put his money in, especially in the old Aetna. I will recommend the Aetna to those who want insurance as the very best Life Insurance Company in America.

Wishing the Aetna and all of its officers much success, I am, Yours very truly, J. J. NICHOLSON.
