yesterday afternoon. He came to Raleigh to conduct service at the Church of the Good Shepherd Wednesday night. He is recognized as one of the brightest and most promising young rectors in the diocese. Members of the Good Shepherd parish were delighted with the service he conducted.

An At Home

The Wilkesboro Chronicle of this week contains the following item of interest: "Mrs. James W. McNeill and her sister, Miss Johnson, of Raleigh, were 'at home' to a number of the married ladies, and entertained in a most pleasant and charming manner. At night from 8 to 12 they entertained a number of the young people with a 'Progressive Advertising Contest' function. In the contest Miss Johnson won the prize and Mr. Bud Lewis captured the booby prize. Elegant refreshments were served, and altogether it was one of the most elaborate and charming functions of the season. May they often return."

What is a Farm Worth?

(New York Press.) My old friend William H. Plumb of Bangor, N. Y., wants me to tell him what a farm is worth that gives an annual income of $800, and what is the value of a cow that gives $15 net in milk and butter a year. According to the system of farm book-keeping with which I have long been familiar, this $800 income means that there is that sum left after deducting the cost of seeds, planting, cultivating, harvesting and marketing the crops, paying wages of all the help, feeding the hands and all the stock, clothing the family, paying the taxes, pew rent, tickets to the circus, buying a new horse or two, repairs on the carriages, wagons and implements, expenditure for chewing tobacco, smoking tobacco, pipes, a few gallons of whiskey now and then, etc., world without end. Such a farm is too valuable to sell at any price. As for the cow—why, she is worth, according to the same system of book-keeping, a good currying and three bran-mashes a day.

Night Was Her Terror

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolute! guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles 10c. At all drug stores.

Lady (to bird fancier)—"I must get you to change that parrot, Mr. Chickweed. I've only had him a week, but quite half a dozen times he has shocked my visitors with his horrible language!" Bird Fancier—"I thought you wanted one that was quick to learn, ma'am." Punch.

Lady—"I have made inquiries at your last place, and your former mistress doesn't speak very flatteringly of you." Applicant—"No, I don't suppose she thinks any more of me than I do of her, but I hope I'm fairly enough to keep my opinion of her to myself."—Boston Transcript.

"What soulful eyes you have!" she said to the innocent youth. "Have I?" he smilingly asked. "Yes," the murmuring, in her gushing way. "Especially the left one. I could look into its liquid depths for hours." "I might leave it with you over Sunday," said the youth. "It's glass."—Tit-Bits.

ILLUSTRATION OF FIVE YEAR DIVIDEND PLAN OF THE AETNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

CHURCHILL, N. C., Sept. 26th, 1901.

Mr. J. D. Boushall, Gen'l Agt., Raleigh, N. C.

DEAR SIR: Yours of yesterday received with notice of accumulated dividend amounting to $28.46 on my policy No. 247028. I execute and enclose form 110 and 234, for which you will please pay the premium—$27.73—due Sept 29th, 1901, and send me check for balance.

I am most grateful to the Company for the large dividend that has been accumulated under my policy. I must say that insurance is the best investment that a young man can put his money in, especially in the old Aetna. I will recommend the Aetna to those who want insurance as the very best Life Insurance Company in America.

Wishing the Aetna and all of its officers much success, I am, Yours very truly, J. J. NICHOLSON.
