The May Festival

The Boston Orchestra played at Richmond April 28th and 29th. Yesterday they went to Spartanburg, where they gave a choral concert from Handel's Messiah and other selections in the evening, a symphony concert on the afternoon of May 1st, a concert production of Gounod's opera Faust in the evening, and two orchestral and vocal concerts in the afternoon and evening of May 2d. Then they came to give their concert at Raleigh on May 3d. Spartanburg began with one little concert by the Converse College Choral Society in 1893, just as Raleigh is doing now. They have since then given, with the aid of this orchestra, thirteen oratorios and cantatas, six symphonies and numberless other works, have employed 94 first-class vocal performers and 24 instrumental soloists, including such names as Novlien, Stein, Del Phente, Campanari, Bioplum, Burmeister, Pachmann, Remenyi, Bruno Steindel, Dr. William Carl.

The work before Raleigh now is first to give the orchestra such a reception as to make sure that they will be willing to make this a centre, and then to work up a big festival for next year. The sooner the house is filled the better.

Small a complete set of the coast survey charts relating to the coast of North Carolina from the Virginia to the South Carolina lines. These will prove very valuable additions to the records in the office of the secretary of state and Mr. Grimes is to be commended for securing them. eration of his list to file with the clerk of the court.

Weldon, N. C., April 30.—Special.—I find that about every Democrat in this township liable for poll tax has paid. It is estimated that not ten Democrats in Halifax county have failed to pay.

Goldboro, N. C., April 30.—Special.—Hon. W. R. Allen, chairman of the county Democratic executive committee, said tonight: "There are about 175 white men and between five and six hundred negroes in Wayne county who have failed to pay their poll tax. Only a few Democrats have failed to pay."

Smithfield, N. C., April 30.—Special.—Poll tax very near all paid in Johnston county.

Wilkesboro, N. C., April 30.—Special.—Sheriff says there are approximately one thousand white polls unpaid in Wilkes county.

Sheff, N. C., April 30.—Special.—One hundred and forty white voters in Cleveland county have failed to pay poll tax tonight, but forty per cent of these will pay tomorrow and preserve their right of suffrage, as they have under the law until Thursday night to do this.

Durham, N. C., April 30.—Special.—There are now some two hundred and fifty white men in Durham county who have not paid poll tax. One more day remains on which tax can be paid time enough to qualify to vote, the law reading "on or before" May 1. Sheriff Markham is of the opinion that by tomorrow night there will be very few not qualified. During the past two weeks there has been a rush to pay tax. About two thousand dollars was taken from the sheriff's office during last week. A considerable portion of which was poll tax. Never before in the history of the county have so many negroes paid taxes. This looks as if many of them are qualifying to vote. Probably one hundred white men will be disqualified on account of not paying tax; and many of these could have paid, but did not do so from choice.

Wilmington, N. C., April 30.—Special.—Sheriff Stedman said this evening that 390 white voters in New Hanover county have failed to pay their poll tax. This number of delinquents is lower than ever before as shown by the sheriff's books. It is hardly probable that five per cent of the delinquents now on the books will pay their poll tax before tomorrow night.

Paper of Historic Value

A document of considerable historic value was added to the records in the office of the Secretary of State yesterday. It being the daily record or log of the survey between North Carolina and Virginia, made in 1887 and 1888, to re-establish the boundary of 1783. The log is by H. T. Greenleaf, civil engineer, and is in the form of a report to Hon. W. D. Pruden, commissioner for the State of North Carolina for this survey.

You Must Pay Today or Disfranchise Yourself

About 500 Polls in Wake Unpaid Last Night—Reports from Other Counties

Today is positively the last day for the payment of poll tax in order to qualify the elector for the right of suffrage under the new amendment to the constitution.

Reports from over the State were received last night as follows:

Salisbury, N. C., April 30.—Special.—About 100 white voters in Rowan county will lose their votes on account of the legal enactment requiring the payment of poll tax as a requisite to the exercise of the franchise. Persistent efforts have been made to save the vote of every white man in the county, and such as have lost their votes owe it to their own neglect or unwillingness to pay a poll tax.

Fayetteville, N. C., April 30.—Special.—It is estimated that from 180 to 200 white voters in Cumberland county have not paid poll tax. Of those hardly 100 are Democrats.

Elizabeth City, N. C., April 30.—Special.—There are not more than fifty white voters in Pasquotank county who have failed to pay their poll tax.

Charlotte, N. C., April 30.—Special.—Tomorrow is the last day for paying poll tax. About one thousand white voters in Mecklenburg county have not paid this tax. Half of this number is in Charlotte township. This is about one-sixth of the voting strength of the county. About two hundred have paid up during the last four days.

Concord, N. C., April 30.—Special.—The nearest estimate is five hundred polls in Cabernus county unpaid at 6 o'clock this evening. It may be twenty-five wrong either way. About equally divided between the races. May say not over 275 white.

Hertford, N. C., April 30.—Special.—The tax books of Perquimans show that not twelve white voters have failed to pay poll tax.

Monroe, N. C., April 30.—Special.—Two hundred white voters in Union county here have failed to pay poll tax. The sheriff has already begun the prep-

CONFERENCE OF SUPERINTENDENTS

Mr. Joyner Leaves for Charlotte—Governor Goes Friday Morning

Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner left yesterday afternoon for Charlotte, where he goes to attend the big educational rally similar to the one recently held at Greensboro. It will be held in Charlotte on Thursday and Friday. As in Greensboro, the county superintendents of schools will be there from many neighboring counties, and there will be free and full discussions as to the needs in the various localities.

Governor Aycock will leave Raleigh for Charlotte Friday morning and deliver an address that night. Mr. Joyner confidently expects an especially successful meeting. Mr. Joyner will not return to Raleigh for a week or ten days. He will speak at Boonville in Wilkes county, May 7th, and at Oxford on May 9th, coming back to Raleigh from the latter place.
