Major Otey Passes Away. Lynchburg, Va., May 5.—Major Peter Johnston Otey, congressman from the Sixth district of Virginia, died at his home, 1018 Federal street, in this city, Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, the cause of death being heart disease and diabetes. From these two diseases he had been a sufferer for two or three years, but only during the past three months was he troubled with pain about the heart.

He grew progressively worse and last Tuesday came home from Washington to consult his physician. He was unable to walk a-out, and on Thursday was playing chess. On Friday he was compelled to take to his bed, and on Saturday his family were summoned. Saturday evening he became unconscious, but rallied a little Sunday morning, when he spoke to his wife. He then relapsed into unconsciousness, from which his mind cleared a short time before his death, when he remarked that it was difficult for him to breathe and he would like his position changed. Soon afterward he breathed his last.
