ASSISTANT GEN-

J. W. Crews, Brother to Raleigh Manager at Postal Telegraph Office. Promoted :

The Atlanta Constitution of July 22d announces that Mr. J. W. Crews, a brother of Manager W. J. Crews, of the Raleigh Postal Telegraph office, has been elected to the position of assistant general manager of the Southern Bell Telephone Company with headquarters at Atlanta. The Constitution says:
"The growth of the business of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company under the management of W. T. Gentry, general manager, in Georgia, Adabama, Florida, North Caro-

"Mr. Crews is a native of Virginia and has been with the company about twenty years. He held positions as manager both of the Richmond and Norfolk (Va.) exchanges, and later on was promoted to traffic agent. During the past two years he has been supering the past two years he has been supering the past two years he has been supering the positions as a native of Virginia and History with headquaraters in Savannah.

Crews is considered one of the leading telephone men of the south and is fully equipped for the position he assumes and was considered one of the most affable and popular men both in Norfolk and Savannah. "Much of the suctess of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company is attributed to the wise selection of its officers. Mr. Crews' successor has been chosen, but his name cannot be given out at this time, although it is known that he is a prominent young Georgian who has been with the company for ten or twelve years and has gradually risen the top ranks. The many friends of this company extend their congratulations to General Manager Gentry and the company and prophesy continued growth and even greater prosperity."
