Tremendous Crowds Give Him Enthusiastic Greeting

Brussels, Aug. 21 .- General Louis Boha arrived here at half past six o'clock this evening. There was a huge crowd in waiting for him at the railway station who shouted "Long live Botha." The police tried long, but in vain to clear the way for him to get out of the station. Finally he had to make his exit through the side door. Then an enormous crowd of his admirers surrounded the carriage containing his son and himself. The carriage had to be driven at a walking pace towards the boulevar's and Rlue Royal, and thence to the bouse accompanied by Mrs. Botha.
