First Baptist Church of Raleigh Desires Him as Successor to the Late Dr. A. A. Marshall

A congregational meeting was held at the First Baptist church last night and a call extended to Rev. W. C. Tyree, D. D., now pastor at Durham, to succeed the late Dr. A. A. Marshall as pastor

There was a very large attendance manifested over the prospect of secur- here ing Dr. Tyree as pastor. While no expression has been secured from Dr. Tyree the First Baptist congregation feel confident that he wil laccept.

He has done a great deal of special evangelistic work in nearly every town of any importance in the state and few if any ministers are so well known in all parts of North Carolina. It is understood that Dr. Tyree has under consideration one of two other calls, notably one to a strong pastorate in South Carolina. The fact that other calls were being considered hastened the last night and much enthusiasm was action of last night by the congregation

Preached Two Strong Sermons Sunday Morning and Evening

Two large congregations, filling the Edenton Street Methodist church, heard Rev. Dr. John C. Kilgo preach two strong sermons on Sunday. The Sunday morning sermon was a particularly able 5th. If an estappel be relied upon as a effort. The text was selected from the fourteenth chapter of John, embracing the first to fourth verses inclusive. I: was shown that Christ when on earth 58. What equities are discussed by was constantly restricting himself to Bispham's Principles of Equity under the conditions which existed, conditions everything. He sought to delocalize ideas and taught a universal religion. The Deity was a national thought, There were different Deities or ideas of Deity, all of which were local. Matthew drop. ped the gospe! when he completed the Jewish Christ, but John went back of David and even of creation itself. There is no localization in John's gospel.

There is much in the apostolic doctrines that the world needs to get rid of. Just as well try to make a North Carolina Christ or a national Christ as to regard the Saviour in the light in which He was then commonly viewed. Paul was an apostle who was broad enough for a world missionary, 'He knew no local Christ. The light which 64. What is the difference between a shone round him was recognized as from Christ-not the Jew. Paul's faith waked to the great universal gospel. He who has made a Methodist Christ or a Baptist Christ has amputated the Christ from the purpose of His coming

In the old days religions were not only local but temporary. To conquer a nation was to conquer a god.. The graves of the gods are everywhere. There are those who stab religion under the guise of fighting ecclesiasticism. They say it will do very well for the prayer meeting but has no place in education. Can christianity die?
