DR. KRASNOI'S FLIGHT

(St. Paul Pioneer-Press.)
Dr. Michael Krasnoi, an escaped Russian exile, who for more than six years has been a fugitive from the Siberian prison, said yesterday that he had just arrived at St. Paul, Minn., where he will live among the immigrants from his native land and other escaped exiles.

Dr. Krasnoi, who is thirty-one years of age, was educated at the Berlin University, where he received the degree of doctor of medicine. He speaks English fluently, as well as French, German, and his native tongue.
"Yes, I am an escaped Siberian exile," he said yesterday, "and I have been for six years a fugitive. However, I am now far out of their reach, no longer fear their cruelties. I am bound for Bottineau, N. D., where I intend to practice medicine among my countrymen."

One night, while holding a meeting in my office, we were surrounded by the Russian guards. I was President of the club, and when the officer in charge of the soldiers smashed into the room I was addressing the other students. All of us were placed under arrest, and without trial or hearing we were exiled to far Siberia. No two of us were sent to the same place. Some were exiled to the mines in western Siberia and others to the eastern and northern parts of the empire. I was detailed to work as a section-hand on the new Trans-Siberian Railroad, near Neichinsk, in the province of the Trans-Baikal.

Reidsville, N. The report of these gentlemen will be presented at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Monday afternoon. Already enough money has been verbally subscribed for the capital stock for the furniture factory and it is evident that another company for the same purpose could be organized on short notice.

DRESS GOODS

Bright, New Styles!

Newness Permeates the Dress Stuff

First comers are sprinkled through our assortment most generously. Case after case of dress goods are arriving and are constantly being brought forward for inspection. We can hardly term this an opening, but the display will resemble an opening in no small degree. Many fabric novelties are shown for the first time, while the lines of staple Broadcloths, Vicunas and Meltons for suits and separate skirts are larger now than at any time during the coming season. This may sound strange, but it is necessary to place early orders with mills to insure the deliveries. We would deem it a favor if the ladies will call and look through this line, if only to post themselves on quality and price. For we are satisfied that our offering in cloths are the best obtainable. The materials for separate and walking skirts are more varied and of a higher character than heretofore in both black and colors, while the new weaves in Etamines at popular prices are truly beautiful. Lots of nice things for separate waists.

WHITE WOOLEN DRESS STUFFS

While the assortment of these goods get smaller day by day the variety is still large enough to please every one. The sale of these popular goods have been very gratifying, and we have decided to continue the sale for another week. Last week's price list holds. Remember we are offering special values in white Broadcloths, Canvas, English Serges, Mistrals, Cordis, etc.
