THE STOCK MARKET

Active and Strong at the Opening and Continued so With Slight Irregularity to the Close

New York, Sept. 2.-The stock market ecceed active and strong after the proaged holiday, owing to the favorable character of Saturday's bank stategett and the sharp gains in the London market. Very large blocks of Union Southern Pacific, Pennsylve Aa, ok & Western, Reading and the Alcheons were taken, the last named for one block of 6,500 shares en a small range. Canadian Cific reanded to the 21 point rise in that stock abroad with a similar gain here, and Microuri Pacific, Southern Pacific, St Paul and Detroit Southern preferred Dec. made gains of a point or over.

Recessions were not pronounced aside from Colorado Fuel, which lost 21. There were many notably strong stocks of a minor character, particularly Derol: United Railway which advanced Dealing were large in Reading comsheres changing hands at 701.

Traing was on a very large scale, and prices moved decidedly upward during the second hour. The market ess broeder and there was a more general distribution of strength than in per heavy in special groups of stocks, $3.50; spring patent $3.75@$4.00; rearticularly the Pacifics, but there were ective dealings in every stock of promirence. St. Paul, Southern Pacific and Vorfolk & Western extended their gains shout 2 pohfts, while Union Pacific, New olirk Central, Atchison, Pennwithin and numerous others rose over a point. Detroit United Railway jump-6 in all to 97. The bond market was active and substantially higher for the active issues at noon.

Special stocks were pushed vigorously speard on pool manipulation, particuely Sombern Pacific, which advanced Reading also came into demand, at its 2 point gain did not stimulate trading in other coalers. The market generally was dall and fractionally be-

Reading worked its way up through an avalanche of stock that came out so its rise until it touched 73%, a gain since Friday's close of 41. Reports of a possible early termination of the coal strike were current, and there was a sympathetic advance in the other coal-Erie gaining 1; and Delaware & Hudson 2

Dealings showed considerable irregumity in the closing hour. Heavy profit king occurred while new stocks were one brought forward into the rise. one reactions were very sharp, includint a point each in Canadian Racific nd Western Union and 2 points in Sorth American and Anaconda. Amalguand was marked up to 69, and there ens renewed buying of Baltimore & Oh St. Louis Southwestern preferred New York at Southern Pacific which carried St. Louis then to the top. Reading fell off but tose again to 75; the second pasferred sched 794, a rise of 34. Baltimore & this fell off abruptly to a shade under riday's close, but was rapidly bid- up to 116. The market closed active and

We drove the Spaniards from Cuba because of cruelty, and now we refuse to trade with Cuba on equal terms or to permit her to trade with other countries upon equal terms. If the accounts from hat Island, as given in the newspapers, be correct, and if the President of the United States be correct, the Republican party is scarcely less cruel to the Cubans than the Spaniards were.

But the Democratic party is the party of the people because of its simplicity, its economy. So long as this government had as its rulers such Democratic leaders as Jackson, Jefferson and Benton wealth was equally distributed; but at the present day, under the unjust laws of a Republican Congress, we find undue aggregations of wealth.
