

Dobbin & Ferrall | Dobbin & Ferrall | Dobbin & Ferrall

OUR STORE

Presents Its Services to the Members and Officers of the State Legislature and to all Visitors!

DOBBIN & FERRALL,

123 and 125 Fayetteville Street.

Our store is the best place in town to buy your furnishings. We carry the very best lines and sell them at very low prices. We invite your patronage and guarantee satisfaction in every instance. Drop in and see us. It's our pleasant province to play the role of suggesters—to remind you of things you need and may have forgotten to get—and which we can best supply.

UNDERWEAR AND HOSIERY, FOR INSTANCE, Dress Shirts, Drawers, Night Shirts, Collars and Cuffs, Neck Ties, SUSPENDERS, HANDKERCHIEFS, GLOVES AND ALL THE SMALL FIXINGS A MAN REQUIRES.

We can Shoe you in the best Men's Shoes manufactured—Shoes for every sort of man—for every sort of weather and for every occasion.

And the Hat Men, Too,

and do it so well that every man is pleased. Our "Stetson's Hatts" head our list and every man knows of them—yet we have others that are mighty good Hats. We offer an excellent chance for every man to please himself.

teen years, of good character, who is a lineal descendant from an ancestor who assisted in any way in the establishment of American Independence, remaining always loyal to the cause is eligible to membership. Initiation fee, $2.00. Annual dues, $2.00.

"There are many ladies in Raleigh who come under this clause and to these we extend this invitation. It may be generally known that this society is working for a definite object, that is, for erecting a memorial to the fifty-one patriotic ladies of Edenton, N. C., who met in October, 1774, and passed resolutions commending the action of the provincial Congress; also declaring against the use of tea or the "wearing of any manufacture" from England until the tax was repealed.

"The society now has a fund being created for this memorial, by the annual dues and by the profits arising from the 'North Carolina Booklet,' which is under the auspices of this State society.

"North Carolina, which boasts of being the first State to declare for independence, should have a longer roll of members of the Daughters of the Revolution than now exists.

"Come forward, patriotic women of North Carolina and join the ranks and subscribe to the North Carolina Booklet."

DANCE AT ROCKY MOUNT

The Carolina Club entertained Monday Evening—The Dancers

Rocky Mount, N. C., Jan. 6.—The Carolina Club gave another of its series of dances at Gayety Hall on Monday evening. Among those dancing were Misses Lula Davis, Bessie Bunn, Pearl Taylor, Mary Hardison, Annie Davis, Mary Higgins of Wilmington, Mildred Dorch of Goldsboro, Irtie Harrison of Weldon, Annie Lee Bunn, Florence Chalk, Maude Battle of Radford, Va., Priscilla Willford, Claude Bassett, Mary Ricks, Mrs. Jacob Battle, Jr., Mrs. H. R. Thorpe and Messrs. John Arrington, Rob Cooper, Pat Bunn, George Wilkinson, Clarence Swindell, Baldy Thorp, Harry Abram, Red Bullock, Henry Thorpe, John Donlan, Frank Sprull, Bud Rawls Munn, Ed Gordon, Hugh Willard, Will Matthews, Paul Capelle, Conrad Swindell and Steve Anderson, Willard Smith and Graves of Wilson.

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION

And Beautiful German by the High Point Chattawka Club

High Point, N. C., Jan. 5.—The crowning social event of the season was the annual reception and dance of the Chattawka club, given in their handsome new apartments, Wednesday evening, Dec. 31st.

Tho' scarcely a year old, every detail was so carefully arranged, and so skillfully managed, that the thirteen members would have done honor to a club many years its senior.

The beautiful club rooms, card room, reading room and ball room, were artistically decorated in an elegant pattern of bunting in Chattawka colors—old gold and purple, with a bright blend of holly and mistletoe, so suggestive of the merry festive season. While the whole scene was brightened by the rich paintings peeping from 'neath the festoons of bunting, the numberless electric lights being mellowed by shades in the same color—blend were reflected on the highly polished floor, while an orchestra from Washington, D. C., rendered continuous music suited to the various features of the evening. To the enthusiastic whist player the strings were touched with a "co," while to those who sought the cozy corner, the strains seemed soft and dreamy.

At 10:30 o'clock, refreshments, which were as beautiful to the eye as delicious to the palate, were served in elegance becoming the occasion. In a mock, banked with a background of Christmas greens stood the refreshing lemon punch bowl.

At eleven thirty the sound of the german whistle intensified the pleasure of those who followed President Albion Mills and Miss Constance Charles, the graceful leaders. The figures were many and beautiful, particularly the one forming the letter "C," (for Chattawka).

Just as the old year merged into the new a scene of chivalric beauty was presented when, with the grace of the knights of old, the following members transferred their handsome and elaborate rosettes. A dream of fair women was more than realized when youth, grace and vivacious loveliness were blended in the fair personages of the receiving ones.

Albion H. Mills to Miss Constance Nissen Charles, J. Howard Paylor to Miss Elma Shiplette of Richmond, Va., Ray Newby to Miss Edna McCrary of Lexington, N. C., Ed. Mills to Miss Lillian Hastenings, R. J. Pale to Miss Anna Coffin Kirkman, Lee H. Cartland to Miss Clara Coffin Kirkman, Harry E. Field to Miss Sara Webber of Rockingham, Bascom Haskins to Miss Stella Scraggs of Greensboro, Cliff Ring to Miss Lee Lambeth Thomasville, N. C., W. M. Crawford to Miss Elizabeth Yurley, Ed Eshleman to Miss Rhetter Leach.

The mid-night hour was a thing of the past, long before the strains of Home Sweet Home were heard. The occasion will long be remembered by the members and fortunate guests of the Chattawka club. The happy congratulations which were added to evidence of the high esteem and hearty appreciation of the efforts of the thirteen gallant young men who compose the club.

Among those present were Mrs. Charles Ragan in green satin chiffon and velvet, Mrs. Fred N. Tate white silk and black, Mrs. Walter E. Steele chiffon and applique, Mrs. Henri C.

Turner white Paris muslin over white silk, Mrs. Charles F. Long white satin chiffon and pearl pusses merino, Mrs. B. A. Bert blue and black silk, Mrs. Ennoe, grey cloth and white applique, Miss Clara Coffin Kirkman, pink crepe and white lace, Miss Mary Alexander White silk and lace, Miss Lillian Hastenings white mull and lace, Miss Constance Nissen Charles pink muslin, ribbons and pink roses, Miss Anna Coffin Kirkman tan gauze and white, Miss Irvin Paylor white organdie and silk with pink ribbons, Miss Rhetta R. Leach black organdie with pink trimmings, Miss Sara Webber of Rockingham white organdie over yellow, Miss Elizabeth Yancey white cloth with swans'own, Miss Lambeth of Thomasville, N. C., in green and black, Miss Stella Scraggs of Greensboro, N. C., black velvet and lace bertha, Miss Cora Pitts of Reidsville, N. C., white organdie and lace and carnations, Miss Shiplette of Richmond, Va., white organdie, ribbon and lace; Miss McCrary of Lexington, N. C., white organdie satin and lace; Messrs. Albion H. Mills, Robert Slaughter, Harry E. Field, Ed. Mills, Fred Ingram, R. J. Pale, Lee H. Cartland, Ray Newby, Cliff Ring, Ward Eshleman, N. C. Crawford, Bascom Haskins, Julius Kermer of Kernansville, N. C., Robert Idol Gilmore, Gilmore Kermer of Kernansville, N. C., Earle McCrary of Lexington, C. C. Barbee, Earle Thompson of Salisbury, N. C., H. Harry Green, Lee Hoover of Thomasville, N. C., Dr. John W. Moore, Mr. Chas. Ragan, Fred N. Tate, Walter B. Steele, Henry Turner, Charles F. Long, B. A. Best, Mr. Carr.

Banquet at Roxboro

Roxboro, N. C., Jan. 3.—Special.—The chief social event of Roxboro for the new year was a banquet given last night at the Reade Hotel, in honor of the visiting and home young ladies, by the young men of the town.

The parlors and dining hall of the hotel were beautifully decorated for the occasion. The dining hall was beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers of ribbons and the tables fairly glowed with lovely flowers. Eloquence, logic and wit reigned supreme in the toast and speeches.

The following is the menu and program:

Invocation—Rev. M. D. Giles.

MENU.

Bananas, Grapes, Orange, Chicken Salad, Crackers, Cream, Olives, Cakes, Pickles, Crackers, Coffee, Cheese, Crackers, Toast Master—Dr. E. J. Tucker, Our Town—Mayor R. I. Featherstone, Progress—Hon. J. A. Long, Minuette—Schubert—Misses Maggie and Annie Long.

The Young People of Roxboro—A Prophetic Vision, Rev. G. T. Watkins, A Man's Value to Society—Rev. K. D. Holmes.

Seguidilla—Eohn—Miss Annie Reade Long.

Home Girls—Prof. S. G. Winstead, Her Royal Highness, Woman—Hon. W. T. Bradsher.

The Young Men of Our Town—C. G. Winstead.

Only Forget—Gensippe Villa—Miss Carle W. Pettigrew, accompaniment by Miss Delma Noel.

The Ladies who Should have Been Here—H. C. Satterfield.

Preachers and Otherwise—D. F. Giles, Pizzicati, Rafstel, Josey—Miss Mary Hunter.

The Professions—Hon. F. O. Carver, Recitation—H. A. Johnson, The Old and the New Year—Hon. W. D. Merritt.

Chorus—The Old North State—Accompaniment by Charlie J. Webb.

The guests departed at 1:30 o'clock feeling deeply indebted to the hosts, the young men of Roxboro, for a very pleasant evening.

Those present were Messrs. J. A. Long, R. I. Featherstone, Jno. A. Noel, A. S. de Vlaming, W. D. Merritt, G. W. Thomas, S. G. Winstead, F. O. Carver, G. T. Watkins, K. D. Holmes, W. T. Bradsher, C. G. Winstead, H. C. Satterfield, H. A. Johnson, C. J. Webb, D. F. Giles, Stephen Wilkerson, Jot Moore, E. E. Bradsher, W. F. Long, Dr. R. J. Teague, — Webb, M. D. Giles, E. M. Davis, H. D. Long, J. N. Thompson, E. G. Long and C. G. Nichols, Messdames G. T. Watkins, R. A. Paas, Margaret Strayhorn, — Webb, W. F. Long, J. D. Morris and J. A. Noel, Misses Maggie Long, Mamie Winstead, Marjorie Jordan, Sima Featherstone, Pearl Hall, Annie Winstead, Maud Satterfield, Alice Tucker, Annie Long, Ruth Featherstone, Sue Long, Pattie Brooks, Mary Stephens, — Landis, Mattie Brooks, Polite Yancey, Mattie Mitchell, Mary Hunter, Mattie Satterfield, Delma Noel, Maie Nowell, Willie Johnson and Annie Webb.

ROXBORO SOCIETY

Two Events of Interest—Receptions at Bowley and Reade Hotels

Roxboro, N. C., Jan. 5.—Special.—Owing to the absence of your correspondent last week reports of two very important social functions did not appear in The Post as they should. The first was a reception at the Bowley Hotel, given by the young men who board there. The hours were from 8 to 12, Monday evening, December 29. Dancing was the feature of the evening. Delicate refreshments were served. Those who were present report a most pleasant evening.

The second was a reception at the Reade Hotel Friday evening, January 2. This was given by the young men of Roxboro complimentary to the visiting young ladies and to the young ladies of the town who are at home from school for the holidays. An excellent supper was served and a number of toasts were offered. Dr. E. J. Tucker acted as toast master. The pleasures of the occasion extended far into the small hours after midnight.

Dr. Joseph Graham, PHYSICIAN,

Office in the Carolina Trust Building.

Bell Phone — Interstate Phone —

Winter Tourist Tickets now on sale via

SOUTHERN RAILWAY

To all the principal Winter Resorts, at Very Low Rates

The resorts of the South, Southeast and Southwest; also Cuba, California and Mexico offer many inducements to the tourist

Some Prominent Resorts

Are St. Augustine, Palm Beach, Miami, Jacksonville, Tampa, Port Tampa, Brunswick, Savannah, Thomasville, Charleston, Columbia, Aiken, Augusta, Pinehurst, Camden, Summerville, Asheville, Hot Springs.

"THE LAND OF THE SKY" AND "Sapphire Country."

TICKETS ON SALE Up to and including April 30, 1903, limited to return until May 31, 1903.

STOP-OVERS Allowed at important points. THROUGH SLEEPING CARS Of the highest standard between principal cities and resorts. DINING CAR SERVICE UNEXCELLED.

Ask nearest Ticket Agent for copy of "Winter Homes in a Summer Land." W. A. TURK, S. H. HARDWICK, Pass. Traffic Mgr., Gen. Pas. Agt., Washington, D. C. Washington, D. C.

HOTEL DORSETT

FAYETTEVILLE STREET RALEIGH, N. C.

Fifty Newly Furnished Rooms, all Modern Conveniences, European and American Plan.

Two blocks from post office Three blocks from Opera House.

Up-to-date Cafe for Ladies and Gentlemen. PRIVATE DINING ROOMS FOR PARTIES.

W. W. NEWMAN, Manager. W. L. DORSETT, Proprietor.

Thos. H. Briggs & Sons

RALEIGH, N. C.

SHEET IRON STOVES,

COAL STOVES, COOKSTOVES AND RANGES.

Among those present were Mrs. Charles Ragan in green satin chiffon and velvet, Mrs. Fred N. Tate white silk and black, Mrs. Walter E. Steele chiffon and applique, Mrs. Henri C.

RALEIGH IRON WORKS CO

FOUNDERS MACHINISTS

IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Norwood Giles arrived in the city from Wilmington yesterday and is the guest of Mrs. W. R. Gaffes on North street.

Among the young ladies who arrived yesterday to re-enter Peace Institute for the spring term were Miss Stella O'Berry of Goldsboro, Miss Redman of Tarboro, Miss Annie Smith of Concord, Miss Edith Grier, Miss Filson and Miss Finley of Wilkesboro, Miss Yale of Wake Forest, Miss Sykes of Grissom, Misses Covington, McNair and McLean of Louisburg.

The San Susa Club was to have been entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Ludlow Skinner, but the meeting was postponed for the reason that Mrs. Skinner was unwell.

There will be an important meeting of the Daughters of the Revolution at 4 o'clock this afternoon in their apartments in the Trust company's building. Every member is urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chamberlain will leave Friday for Detroit, Mich., where they will make their future home. Many friends here regret exceedingly to lose Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain from Raleigh.

Miss Elizabeth Briggs left yesterday for Wake Forest to spend a few days.

Mrs. Ed Stallings has returned to Raleigh from Wilson, where she visited relations.

Mrs. W. H. Hughes has gone to Portsmouth, where she was called to the bedside of her brother, Mr. P. H. Miller, who is critically ill.

Misses Nell and Annie Hindsdale went to Wake Forest yesterday to attend the reception given Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Lawrence.

Mrs. C. E. Aycock and son, Master Frank Daniel's Aycock went to Wilson yesterday morning to visit Mrs. Aycock's sister.

Misses Margaret and Norma Peddy, who have been attending the Baptist Female University, returned to their home in Keysville, Va., yesterday.

Miss Sarah Burkhead has returned from Whitville, where she spent Christmas with her mother.

Every member of the Pansy Club of the First Presbyterian church is earnestly requested to be present this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The annual meeting of the Capital Club will be held in the club rooms this (Wednesday) evening at 8 o'clock.

Olla Podrida Club

Mrs. Kemp P. Battle, Jr., entertained the Olla Podrida Club yesterday afternoon at her home on North Wilmington street. The subject for study was Shakespeare's "Winter's Tale." Each lady responded to the club roll with a quotation from this play, "Town Topics" was a pleasing reading by Mrs. R. T. Gray. There were admirable readings and discussions by Mrs. Ben Skinner, Mrs. W. S. Primrose and Miss Eliza Poole. There was an elegant service of refreshments, every one being charmed by the delightful entertainment accorded the club by Mrs. Battle.

A Runaway Match.

Greensboro, N. C., Jan. 6.—Special.—Mr. Frank G. Dunklee of Christiansburg, Va., and Miss Little Lash Hairston of Walnut Cove were united in marriage in this city last night, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's uncle, Dr. W. A. Lash, Rev. Dr. H. Baldwin Dean, rector of St. Barnabas Episcopal Church, officiated. The couple left at midnight for Christiansburg, where they will reside. Miss Hainston had been visiting in Danville and Mr. Dunklee went there yesterday and brought her to Greensboro, having previously arranged for the wedding to take place here. It is learned that the parents of the bride objected to the match.

MRS. HOFFETT'S STATEMENT

Urges All Ladies Who Are Eligible to Join Daughters of Revolution at Once

Mrs. E. E. Moffitt, as secretary of the North Carolina Society Daughters of the Revolution, has issued the following statement regarding the meeting of the society in their rooms, Carolina Trust Company building, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

"All members and applicants are requested to attend this meeting the first for the year 1903, as matters of importance relating to the historical reading course and plans for the success of the organization will be discussed.

"Any woman above the age of eigh-

ton of Walnut Cove were united in marriage in this city last night, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's uncle, Dr. W. A. Lash, Rev. Dr. H. Baldwin Dean, rector of St. Barnabas Episcopal Church, officiated. The couple left at midnight for Christiansburg, where they will reside. Miss Hainston had been visiting in Danville and Mr. Dunklee went there yesterday and brought her to Greensboro, having previously arranged for the wedding to take place here. It is learned that the parents of the bride objected to the match.

MRS. HOFFETT'S STATEMENT

Urges All Ladies Who Are Eligible to Join Daughters of Revolution at Once

Mrs. E. E. Moffitt, as secretary of the North Carolina Society Daughters of the Revolution, has issued the following statement regarding the meeting of the society in their rooms, Carolina Trust Company building, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

"All members and applicants are requested to attend this meeting the first for the year 1903, as matters of importance relating to the historical reading course and plans for the success of the organization will be discussed.

"Any woman above the age of eigh-