This bill was introduced in the House by the Republican representative from Watauga and passed that body. It was avorably reported by the Senate committee on propositions and grievances. The bill passed its second reading, then Senator Wellborn moved that it be postponed till January 27th, when a lologation would be here from that ection and he thought a compromise be made. This motion was lost and then the senator from Ashe made appeal which was largely devoted . mearthing the wickedness of Ralrigh.
