The highest priced piano is not always the best, although the firm who makes it will claim it is. It costs a great deal more to produce a piano in a one-horse factory than it does in a large, completely equipped factory. The result is obvious. The large factory makes better instruments and charges smaller prices than the factory that only turns out seventeen thousand pianos in six years. We only buy of large manufacturers and for that reason are in a better position to give you greater value for your money than any small one-horse manufacturer. Drop in and see our fine line of pianos and you will not care to buy elsewhere.

AN IMPORTANT REPRODUCTION

We are pleased to announce that we have issued a Platinum Reproduction of the celebrated steel engraving "THE LAST MEETING," Generals Robert F. Lee and Stonewall Jackson, the evening before the battle of Chancellorsville, May 1, 1863.

The original picture was painted by Julio of New Orleans, La., and copies of the steel engraving are almost entirely out of the market the few copies remaining being held at a very high price.

Our reproduction is printed on platinum paper 16x20 inches and is a facsimile of the original engraving.

We have also designed a special frame for the picture. The frame is a four-inch quartered oak moulding, stained to match the Confederate gray uniforms, with a burnished silver cartridge ornament inside. On the upper right hand corner are attached two small Silk Confederate flags mounted on ivory standards. The frame is in every way worthy and emblematic of the picture.

There will be only a limited number of these pictures made. If you wish one order at once.
