

Battle Royal at the Polls Monday

Only 27 Names Erased from the Registration Books Saturday, but All the Challenged Must Qualify Before the Polls Close Monday

The judges of election were in session at the eight polling places in this city from 10 until 3 o'clock yesterday to pass upon the 338 challenges for the city extension election Monday. This was the first great fight preliminary to the battle royal to be waged tomorrow, and the extensionists boasted that 707 of the 8 boards of judges of election maintained their construction of the election law and placed the burden on the person challenged while the "anties" claim a victory in that only about a score of names were erased from the books and most of these, they believe, were for extension.

er he be for or against extension," declared the chairman of the extension committee. Counsel for both sides were present at each of the eight precincts yesterday when the boards met and presented the contention of the "anties" and the "stretchers." The lawyers representing the opponents of extension contended that it was the duty of the challenger to furnish evidence against the challenged. The other side contended that the person challenged must appear and qualify. The judges in all the precincts, save the first division of the first ward, decided that those who had been challenged and notices served should have until the closing of the polls Monday to appear and show their qualification for voting and if they failed to do so, their names should be erased from the books. In the first division of the first ward by a vote of 2 to 1 the judges held that they had no right to erase a name unless the challenger proved that the challenged was disqualified. The counsel appearing for the extensionists included Messrs. W. N. Jones, A. B. Andrews, Jr., B. M. Gatliff, E. P. Maynard, and B. C. Beckwith, while the lawyers for the opponents were Messrs. J. N. Hilding, W. B. Snow, R. T. Gray, R. H. Battle, W. E. Jones, Perrin Busbee, M. N. Amis and John Himsdale. Of the 27 names stricken from the books as disqualified yesterday 17 were in the 3d, 5 in the 2d and 5 in the 4th wards. The polls will open at sunrise, 4:45 o'clock, Monday and close at sunset, 7:20. The saloons in Raleigh will be closed until 5 o'clock Tuesday morning. There has been no change in polling places. The opponents of extension have made no challenges yet, but they have a list of nearly 150 who will be challenged on election day if they attempt to vote. Both sides held conferences until a late hour last night and expressed confidence of victory.

Summer School Begins Wednesday

Program Arranged for the Opening Exercises--Excellent Course of Lectures Provided--Receptions to Teachers--Course in N. C. History

All life and bustle at the A. & M. College now. Carpenters, plasterers, painters and electricians seem to vie with one another in their efforts to make the buildings pleasant and comfortable for the teachers who will gather there in a few days from all parts of the state. The visitor is astonished at the magnitude and beauty of the new auditorium and is told that the acoustic properties are perfect, and he finds that the great hall underneath, although arranged for the college library, is as well adapted for use by the model school and kindergarten as if it had been designed for that specific purpose. Watauga Hall, which will easily accommodate 120, and is set apart for ladies, is rejoicing in a new coat of paint and whitewash.

Away to the west and the south the view is superb with the chapel and orphanage of Nazareth crowning the hill across the valley, while the close shaven lawn, which were never more charming, complete the picture. The summer school will open informally on Wednesday at 9 a. m., when registration will begin. A meeting of the faculty and students will be held at 4 p. m., when the course of study will be explained and the program of daily exercises will be announced.

The formal opening of the school will take place in the new auditorium at 8:30 p. m. The following is the order of exercises: Devotional exercises. Speeches of Welcome--Hon. B. F. Dixon for the state; Mr. A. B. Andrews, Jr., for the city; Rev. W. G. Clements, for Wake county schools; Dr. G. T. Winston, for the college. Address by Mr. J. W. Bailey. Informal reception. The public is cordially invited to be present at these exercises.

A very interesting feature of the school will be the series of evening lectures. There will be illustrated lectures by Hon. Martin Dodge, Dr. Lossing of the department of the Interior, Prof. Charles W. Burkett, Prof. F. L. Stevens and Dr. Franklin Sherman.

Several evenings will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Mrs. Dr. Della Dixon-Carroll will deliver one lecture, and Mrs. Dr. F. L. Stevens another. On one evening the plans and operations of the various book clubs of the city will be presented and at a later date the work of the Woman's Association for the Betterment of Public School Houses will be taken up. The public school children will repeat the operetta Snow White in compliance to the visiting teachers. Two receptions will also be given, the first on Thursday evening, July 2nd. In the list of evening lectures are the names of some of the best known citizens of the state. Dr. R. H. Lewis will lecture on school hygiene, Prof. W. L. Poteat on science and life, Prof. J. B. Carlyle on the teacher's tasks of the new North Carolina, Dr. T. D. Bratton on Henry Timrod, Prof. C. Alphonso Smith on southern oratory before the war. Addresses are also expected from Hon. D. A. Tompkins, Hon. B. R. Lacey, J. P. Caldwell of the Charlotte Observer and Jos. E. Robinson of the Goldsboro Argus.

A unique course in North Carolina history has been arranged. A lecture will be delivered each morning by some North Carolinian who has made a reputation as a student of state history. The first six lectures in this course will be given by the following gentlemen in the order named: Prof. C. L. Raper, Col. F. A. Olds, Dr. T. N. Ivey, Hon. R. H. Battle, Mr. Marshall DeLancey Haywood, Right Rev. J. B. Cheshire. Other appointments in this course have been made and will be announced later.

The interest taken in the school by all classes is exceedingly gratifying to the promoters of the enterprise. College presidents and professors, school superintendents, members of county and city boards of education, teachers in public and private schools, editors, lawyers in various parts of the state, leaders of the social life of the city, and the little children who have entered the practice school and the kindergarten all seem glad to help on the good cause and make a school which is sure to accomplish great good not only in this immediate section but throughout the state.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel troubles. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by all druggists.

STILLS WILL KEEP ON

Constitutionality of the Watts Act to Be Put to the Test

Asheville, N. C., June 27.—Special. There will certainly be a conflict in the mountain counties between federal and state authorities over enforcement of the Watts law. The fact became known today that a large number of distillers have during the past two days notified the collector's office that they would continue to operate their stilleries after the first of the month, and the surprising information was today received from the commissioner of internal revenue that the bonds of all distillers who sought them would be renewed. It now appears that scores of arrests will be made, and this in turn means that an early decision on the constitutionality of the Watts law will be imperative. Not only this, but distilleries cannot run without the su-perence of deputy collectors and storekeepers and gaugers, and the fact developed today that the collector would, as a matter of course, assign such officers to duty whenever a distiller expressed his determination to continue operations.

Every day that a distiller persists in coming the situation will become more complicated, as under the provisions of the Watts law, every succeeding day constitutes a separate offence. The government will protect storekeepers and gaugers to the extent that their cases will be transferred to the federal courts where they will be defended by the district attorney whenever they are charged with being accessories to the crime of distilling. It is declared that neither the commissioner of internal revenue nor the collector has any desire to antagonize the state authorities, but they simply do not see how they can consistently act otherwise in view of either the letter or spirit of the revenue laws. They will insist that their attitude is anything but an act of defiance.

TEMPERANCE IN UNION

Relentless War to Be Made on Blind Tigers

Monroe, N. C., June 27.—Special.—The Anti-Whiskey League of Union county held its regular monthly meeting here this afternoon in the court house and was well attended. The body was addressed by several of the leading members and the whole meeting was full of enthusiasm. The effect of the Watts bill relative to the legal and illegal manufacture and sale of intoxicants was freely discussed. The best plan to extinguish the scattering "blind tigers" remaining was also given considerable attention, and arrangements to carry out this plan were perfected. Resolutions were adopted to arrange for at least three addresses in each township in the county by Hon. R. F. Benzley, Prof. Walker and others during the summer. Delegates were appointed to attend the state league to be held at Raleigh July 7th. Union no doubt has the whiskey traffic as well under control as any county in the state, and expects to master it entirely before her efforts tire.

BAR ASSOCIATION

An Interesting Session Is Expected This Week

Durham, N. C., June 27.—Special.—Mr. J. Crawford Biggs, secretary of the North Carolina Association, is expecting a large attendance at the annual meeting of the association which will be held at Wrightsville Beach July 1st. He is receiving many applications for membership and many letters asking for information. One of the leading addresses of the occasion will be delivered by Hon. Seymour D. Thompson of New York city. He is recognized as one of the leading textbook writers in the country. Maj. W. A. Guthrie of this city will respond to the address of welcome. It was intended that Judge W. P. Bynum should respond to the welcome address, but he cannot attend on account of sickness in his family.

Driven to Desperation

STRUCK BY A BICYCLE

A Charlotte Man Dying as a Result of a Boy Scorching

Charlotte, N. C., June 27.—Special. Erwin Williams, aged forty, is lying at the point of death at his home here as the result of being run over by a bicycle ridden by A. F. Martin, a sixteen year old boy. The accident occurred in front of Williams' home. Martin, with two companions, was scorching on a down grade when Williams attempted to cross the street. He dodged the first two wheels, only to be knocked down by Martin's machine. Williams was struck on the base of the spine, was rendered unconscious and has not since regained consciousness. He has continual hemorrhages and can not recover. Martin was rendered unconscious by the impact of the collision and was severely injured. He may lose the sight of one eye. Mr. Williams has a wife and several children. Both the victim and the boy are employed by the same concern. Will Nelson, a tough darkey, attacked Hester Calhoun late last night with a razor and chopped Calhoun's eye out. The pair were returning from Lincoln on an excursion and became involved in a quarrel. Nelson jumped from the rapidly moving train and boarded another excursion train which was en route from Charlotte to Lancaster.

Dr. Bizzell Wins Honors

Dr. J. A. Bizzell of Dunn spent yesterday in the city. He was at one time instructor in chemistry at the A. and M. College, and has just won the degree of Ph. D. at Cornell University. He won the high compliment also of being engaged as assistant chemist in the state experiment station at Cornell. His many friends accorded Dr. Bizzell a warm welcome back to Raleigh yesterday.

GREAT MEETING OF MASONS AT KINSTON

Goldsboro, N. C., June 27.—Special. Yesterday was a red letter day for Masonry in eastern North Carolina. The two Masonic lodges in Kinston invited lodges from the surrounding counties, and a special session of the grand lodge of North Carolina was held. Deputy Grand Master Liddell of Raleigh, Past Grand Master Nichols of Charlotte, Past Grand Master Cotton of Raleigh, Past Grand Lecturer Hatcher of Tarboro, Grand Lecturer Hatcher and other grand lodge officers were present. A session of the grand lodge was held at eleven o'clock in the opera house. Then the grand lodge proceeded to the court house where there was a public installation of all of the officers from various lodges. The court house was packed with Masons and visitors. A special train from Greensville brought from that section nearly four hundred Masons. There were many present from Jones, Pamlico, Pitt, Greene, Craven, Wayne and other counties. After the installation of the officers Mr. L. V. Morrill of Snow Hill introduced the orator of the day, Col. A. C. Davis of Goldsboro. This gentleman is not only a fluent speaker and a cogent advocate before a jury, but his well stored mind in law, literature, history, politics and current events fits him for any emergency and he always meets the highest expectations of his audience.

AWARDED CONTRACT FOR BUILDING

Mr. J. P. Ferrell of Montgomery, Ala., left for his home yesterday afternoon. He stopped over here to spend a few days with relatives, having been on a business trip north. While here he awarded a contract to W. P. Rose for the erection of a two story brick store building on East Hargett street, near Wilmington. The lot is adjacent to the one on which Mr. C. M. Bernard is having a building erected.

Died in Savannah

Many friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. P. H. Hughes, which occurred in Savannah, Ga., yesterday. She was for a number of years a resident of Raleigh, Mr. Hughes having been manager of the Postal telegraph office here at one time. The funeral will be held in Savannah today.
