That the issue will be dispensary or license has practically been determined. The statement is made that within the next few days, certainly by the middle of next week, petitions will be presary to call such an election.

The central committee of the State Anti-Saloon League held a session here last night but the only public business was the election of Mr. J. W. Bailey as chairman in place of Mr. N. B. Broughton, who finds his time largely taken up now with the Interdenominational Sunday school work. Rev. G. T. Adams continues secretary and Mr. L. C. Blair as treasurer. The state committee, composed of one man from each county, will be named as soon as the persons selected accept the appoint-

This is one of the most unusual moves that has occurred in the history No. of the police department for years, and is not understood generally by either policemen or laymen. Detectives Plannery and Hall went immediately to work on the case. The unusual action of the grand jury asking for an exchange of officers on the case, coupled with the mysterious visit of the grand jurors to Mayor McLane Monday, was generally discussed today. The mayor No. 107, 8:56 a.m.-Daily for Greensboro was state attorney prior to becoming executive, and his advice is said to have been requested. The coroner has also been asked by Walter Johnson, brother of Mortimer, to exhume the body and invite a re-examination. Walter, who is in New York, is expected here Thursday.
