

Annual Reunion of Confederate Veterans

Gen. Carr Issues General Orders for Encampment Here During the State Fair—A Great Occasion

As announced some weeks ago one of the most notable features of the great State Fair will be the encampment of the Confederate veterans on Cameron field October 20th to 22d of this week. The details of the arrangement for the encampment are now being worked out very satisfactorily. Mr. Joseph S. Allen of this city has been appointed by General Carr assistant quartermaster general, and will proceed at once to arrange for the camp and camps throughout the state have been instructed to report to him the number of men for whom they wish quarters reserved. Governor Aycock has promised the loan of state guard tents enough to accommodate all who attend, also cooking utensils. A fund has been raised with which to provide each tent with good clean straw and furnish bread and coffee for the men. Miss Mary Armistead Jones has been appointed division sponsor for this reunion and each brigade and camp commander is expected to appoint a sponsor.

General Order Issued

General Julian S. Carr has just issued the following general orders, to-wit:

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 23.
Headquarters North Carolina Division United Confederate Veterans, Durham, N. C., Aug. 29th, 1903.

The next annual reunion of the North Carolina division of the United Confederate Veterans will be held near Raleigh on Wednesday, the 21st of October, at which will be held the annual election of division and brigade commanders. Only delegates from camps which are reported by Adjutant General W. E. Mickle as having paid their dues will be entitled to vote. The attention of camp commanders is especially called to this, and they are requested to see at once that their camp dues are paid as required by the constitution of the United Confederate Veterans.

Governor Aycock has kindly loaned the tents and cooking utensils of the state guard which will accommodate 1,000 men, and a fund has been raised sufficient to provide clean straw for the tents and bread and coffee for the men, but they must provide themselves with other rations and bedding. Let there be no misunderstanding about this. The camp will be ready for occupancy on Tuesday afternoon, the 20th of October, and may be occupied until noon on Thursday, the 22d. Command Jacob S. Allen, of Raleigh, is hereby appointed assistant quartermaster general with the rank of lieutenant colonel, who will have charge of the arrangement of the camp, and to whom all camps will report the number of men for whom they wish quarters reserved.

All ex-Confederate soldiers in North Carolina of good standing are invited to this reunion, but in order to exclude unworthy persons every veteran is required to carry with him a certificate from his camp commander, or from the clerk of the superior court certifying that he is a veteran in good standing. North Carolina's four living ex-Confederate generals, Hoke, Ransom, Cox and Roberts, have been invited and are expected to attend this reunion and meet once more the brave men whom they so gallantly commanded in the greatest of modern wars. Gen. John B. Gordon has been invited to deliver his address on "The Last Days of the War," for which an admission of 50 cents will be charged.

Miss Mary Armistead Jones, a granddaughter of Gen. L. O. B. Branch, is appointed the division sponsor for this reunion, and each brigade and camp commander is requested to appoint a sponsor.

The railroad companies will give a rate of one fare for the round trip, and all veterans joining in the grand parade will be admitted free into the Fair grounds.

A full attendance is desired and as many as can are requested to wear their uniforms. This will be the last opportunity that many will have to meet their old comrades and "fight over the battles" again.
By order of General J. S. Carr,
H. A. LONDON,
Adjutant General and Chief of Staff.
All state papers will please copy.
News from various camps of the state indicate that there will be a large attendance. The reunion will be a delightful occasion for the old soldiers who attend and a most excellent drawing card for the great State Fair, which is sure to be by odds the most successful ever held in the state.

Gov. Aycock to Colored Sunday School Convention

Made a Talk Yesterday that Was Enthusiastically Received—N. B. Broughton also a Speaker. The Conventions Work

Governor Aycock on yesterday morning visited the colored Sunday school convention, in session here, and made a short talk.

The governor was enthusiastically greeted, the entire convention rising. He expressed regret that he could not be present the previous evening when a much larger audience was present. He said in part:

"When I assumed the office of governor of North Carolina I determined to meet as best I could the great responsibility of that exalted position and give to the state of North Carolina a government of the whole people, devoted to the best interest of all the people. I have yet one year and a half to serve and it is my purpose that the work now in progress in this state shall be so firmly fixed during that time as to insure its performance. I am here, my friends, to show by my presence the deep interest I feel in your progress along the lines contemplated by this movement. Mere learning will not make you what you ought to be. You must be brought to a knowledge of God. This is peculiarly the work of the Sunday school. You have a tremendous work before you. It is yours to uplift ten millions of your people. It is a great work, demanding greatness of purpose, and greatness of ambition. Much is being said about your race. You have had all done for you by the whites. They worked out your emancipation and have carried forward the work of your elevation. You must take your part and do your duty. You can do much in the way of teaching your people obedience to the law. In all your freedom from the law, in all your power to bring your people up to a proper appreciation of the great duties confronting them, you shall have my hearty sympathy and co-operation."

The governor was enthusiastically applauded when he took his seat. Messrs N. B. Broughton and W. C. Pearce, the latter international field secretary, also made talks.

The convention opened its third day's session yesterday morning with a large attendance. Dr. J. E. Shepard presided.

W. C. Pearce, field secretary of the International Sunday-school Union, opened with a speech on the Sunday school work, emphasizing and enlarging upon his address of the previous evening.

He was followed by Prof. G. G. Marcus on primary Sunday school work.

Hon. N. B. Broughton was the next speaker. He fully sustained his great reputation as an eloquent public speaker especially along the lines of his leading thought. He urged improvement in methods of Sunday school work. Many of the old ways are now obsolete and are giving place to the more rational and the more effective. Mr. Broughton dwelt on the absence of boys and young men from Sunday schools and churches. This was especially noticeable in the colored Sunday schools. There are means by which this may be remedied and these means should be adopted and systematically worked.

Mrs. M. F. Bryner, international field worker, was next introduced. She illustrated her method of conducting Sunday school class work.

It was at this stage of the session that Governor Aycock was introduced by the presiding officer and spoke as quoted above.

The committee on officers made the following report:

President, Col. J. H. Young; vice presidents, W. G. Pearson, Durham; D. W. Perkins, Elizabeth City; Miss C. L. Mount, Wilmington; Mrs. J. S. Taylor, Wilmington; J. H. Smith, Statesville; recording secretary, C. A. Whitehead, Goldsboro; corresponding secretary, H. E. Hagans, Goldsboro; treasurer, Rev. A. L. Scott, Washington; superintendent primary work, Rev. C. Dillard, Goldsboro; superintendent home department, Rev. A. A. Bright, Raleigh; normal department, Dr. S. N. Vass, Raleigh.

Executive Committee—Rev. C. H. King, James Bebe; Mr. Bishop Clinton, E. A. Johnson, Rev. C. L. Alexander, Rev. H. C. Mabry, S. G. Atkins, Rev. Jno. Adams, Rev. W. E. Walker. The report was adopted and the convention took a recess until 2:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The convention reassembled, Prof. G. G. Marcus presiding. Prayer by Dr. N. F. Roberts.

The committee on resolutions reported the following, which were adopted: "We, your committee on resolutions, beg leave to submit the following: "The various churches and Sunday schools throughout the state heartily endorse the work being done in the International Sunday-school Association, conducted by Dr. J. E. Shepard and Prof. G. G. Marcus.

"Whereas, we believe that if the masses of our people are ever lifted up to a higher standard of Christian living and citizenship and the commission of crime reduced and finally abolished there must be a more united effort on the part of all Christian workers; therefore, be it resolved,

"First, That we pledge ourselves as Sunday school workers to redouble our efforts in organizing the Sunday school work in every destitute section of the state.

"Second, That we strive to improve our various Sunday schools—in methods—in management—in instruction—in equipment, and in spiritual power.

Third, That we return many thanks with our highest appreciation to the railroads, to the pastor and trustees of St. Paul A. M. E. church, to the Morning Post and the News and Observer for full reports of the convention, and to the International Association for sending to us Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner and Prof. W. S. Pearce, and to the friends who entertained us."

Field Secretary W. C. Pearce was introduced and for forty minutes spoke on the proper method of presenting the lesson. He was followed in an able address by State Secretary S. M. Smith, and a few words by Mrs. Bryner.

The convention adopted the report of the committee, fixing next June as the time and place.

WILMINGTONS INDUSTRIAL PROGRESS

Hon. John D. Bellamy Talks of Her Rapid Development

Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, ex-congressman from the sixth judicial district, who is in the city for a few days, says he never knew Wilmington to make such rapid headway in internal improvement and commercial expansion as she is now. He says all business enterprises appear to be exceptionally prosperous and there is a general air of prosperity and enterprise everywhere you turn in the city by the sea.

It has come to pass that it is almost impossible for one who contemplates locating in Wilmington to rent a house and nearly as difficult to procure board, all the boarding houses being crowded. As for renting a store, that is out of the question. Mr. Bellamy said to illustrate the conditions that a store of his beams vacant recently. It has been renting for $28 a month. One man offered him $30 and another $35, but before he closed the trade still another man, who was seeking a place to do business, offered $45 and of course got it.

As another illustration one of the most prominent clothing merchants in the city is involved with proprietors of a business building there in a suit testing the right of the owner of the building to rent the store he occupies over his head without giving him the refusal of it. In case, said Mr. Bellamy, the suit should go against the clothier and he should have to vacate the store there is not another store available in the city, so that it would really result in forcing him out of business. The merchant in question is Mr. S. E. Fishblate and the store room involved is in the Masonic temple. Judging from Mr. Bellamy's remarks it would seem that Mr. Fishblate is one of the first tenants of the temple, held the temple corporation up to heavy damages as forfeit for failure to have the store ready for occupancy by the date specified in the lease. So now that the term of the lease expires October 1st the temple management has seen fit to lease it to Mr. Solkey, one of Mr. Fishblate's competitors, without allowing him to have a chance to renew at even an advanced rate of rental.

Mr. Bellamy says the season at Wrightsville Beach this year has been by far the most successful they have ever had and that there is no doubt now that when the 1904 season opens there will be at least one more hotel, and that will accommodate at least three or four times as many guests as all the others now in operation. This will be the Hammock hotel, and will be a bang-up hostelry in every respect.

The electric car line which has superseded the old steam railway service between Wilmington and the beach is doing much to establish the resort on a footing which will assure its first rank among seaside resorts of the south Atlantic coast.

Friction Which at First Developed Fast Disappearing—Results Gratifying Says Supt. Ellington

Mr. J. C. Ellington, superintendent of Wake county public roads, said yesterday that reports coming in now from supervisors in all parts of the county show that the general road work is getting down now to good smooth working order.

The friction which existed for a while and seriously interfered with putting into effect the feature of the new law which has to do with having the outlying roads worked by residents along the respective roads, has nearly or quite all disappeared and many of those who come to Raleigh and paid the exemption tax $3.00 to be relieved from road work are now expressing their willingness to work in compliance with the law. It will be remembered that the law provides that all men between 21 and 45 should work the road six days in the year, receiving for their services 50 cents per day from the county fund. There is also a provision that any persons who may wish to avoid doing this road work can pay $2.00 and be exempted. A number of people paid this penalty rather than do road work and many of these now come forward and express a willingness to do the road work now for 75 cents per day. This would mean that counting the payment they have made for exemption their services will cost the county 25 cents per day.

Recently four days work has been done on these general road district and competent judges declare that as much has been accomplished in that time as was done on the roads for ten years past.

In the department of permanent road improvement Mr. Ellington reports good progress. The Tarboro road improvement as well advanced. The force building from Raleigh are within half a mile of Cary, where they connect with the second division which is being pushed rapidly under the direction of Supervisor Holloway.

THE TELEPHONE GIRL

Excellent Opening Attraction at the The Academy of Music Last Night

The Hello Girls opened the season at the academy of music yesterday, giving two performances—matinee and night.

A very good-sized audience was present at night and enjoyed the performance thoroughly. The Hello girls were in good trim. They were pretty of figure, in pretty costumes and turned loose a flood of tuneful music and fun.

Max Bloom, the clever eccentric comedian, as the inspector of telephones, was the chief fun-maker. His work was as clever in this role as it was last season as the "polite lunatic" in the Belle of New York.

Miss Nichols, the "telephone girl," was clever in her part and her solos were particularly fetching. Her rendition of Hiawatha was indeed charming.

Harry Clayto is a young and versatile chap and scored quite a hit at every turn.

Taken all in all, it was quite a pleasing performance, and all seemed satisfied.

The August crop report by the North Carolina department of agriculture will be completed and issued within the next few days, probably Monday. The report will show the condition of cotton and indeed of crops generally to be exceptionally good—some sections, especially in Robeson county—report the condition of cotton to be 110 as compared with the average. Conditions generally seem to range from 85 to 110 for various crops.
