Durham Votes Dry by a Surprising Majority

The Temperance People Had the Situation Well in Hand Early—Many Voters Challenged—Women Pray While Men Vote

Durham, N. C., Nov. 3.—Special. Durham was voted dry today by a majority of 348 against saloons and 333 against distilleries. This was beyond the hopes of the most sanguine prohibitionists.

The election was quiet throughout, there being nothing of unusual interest. The voting began early and, following a plan that had been mapped out, the supporters of the anti-saloon ticket were to vote early, and within an hour or two were well in the advance.

At all of the precincts there was little challenging. Most of this was done at the Five Points precincts where the Trinity College people voted. All of the students were challenged. The poll holders decided each case separately.

DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE IN GREATER NEW YORK

nificance. From the present outlook it seems the Democrats will elect the legislature, but the governor is uncertain. There was lots of cutting, few tickets having been voted straight.

ident of victory, but, owing to the tardiness of returns, nothing definite can be said of the results at the present time.

IOWA.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 3.—Returns from 38 precincts in Iowa at 9 o'clock give a net Democratic gain of 652, establishing a ratio of gain of 21 per cent. Should this be maintained Cummins' majority will be less than fifteen thousand, or less than twenty per cent. of what it was two years ago.

NEBRASKA.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 3.—Nebraska promises to be very close on supreme court judge. The Republicans undoubtedly carry the state on university regents, Barnes (Rep.) for judge, was killed in many districts. Returns are coming in very slow. At 10 o'clock but 50 precincts outside of Lancaster and Douglass had been heard from.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 3.—Barring the Scott county tragedy the election passed off quietly in Virginia today. The Democrats have secured all except about 25 members of the legislature in joint ballot, these being divided between Republicans and Independents.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 3.—Today's election was the second vote under the new constitution eliminating the negro. For the legislature (Democrats), S. S. Lambert, received 2,190; W. H. Gunn, 2,029; (Republicans), Floyd Hughes, 7,300; John S. Hann, 903. The registration shows 75,000 whites, 5,000 negroes.

MISSISSIPPI.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 3.—The election here was the quietest ever known and a small vote was polled. Nearly one hundred thousand votes were polled in the August primary, but only half of that number today voted.

CONNECTICUT.

Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 3.—Deniss Mulvihill, the Labor mayor, was elected today for another term of two years by a majority estimated at 2,600. The Democrats swept the city and only two aldermen were elected by the Republicans out of their entire ticket, excepting the minor offices whose nominations were equivalent to an election. The independent voters and Republicans confirm his election.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—The vote today in the Republican precincts was unusually heavy, while that south of Market street was light. Half of the supporters of Crocker, Republican candidate for mayor, believe he is elected over Eugene Schmidt, the labor candidate.

NEW JERSEY.

New York, Nov. 3.—Mark M. Fagan, the Republican mayor of Jersey City, was re-elected for a term of two years, defeating Police Justice and Assemblyman James J. Murphy, by a plurality of 1,500. The contest was the most exciting one in the history of the city. A total of 49,877 votes were cast out of a total registry of 45,250. The result was in doubt up to a late hour. The early returns indicated that Fagan would sweep the city by several thousand majority, and then the tide turned for a time in favor of Murphy, afterwards going back to Fagan.

UTAH.

Salt Lake, Nov. 3.—Indications at an early hour pointed to the election of the Gentile ticket and the defeat of the Mormon ticket. In the hottest municipal election in the history of the city, the issues were clearly defined, being Gentile vs. Mormon. The campaign was fought out all along this line. The Republicans, led by Senator T. J. Kraus, backed the Gentile ticket, while the Mormon church supported the Democratic ticket, which was headed by a high Mormon. Every bishop and elder in the Mormon church hustled at the polls today to give the tip the Mormon brethren to line up for

After early returns had shown big gains for the Gentile ticket, returns began to pour in from church districts, which showed that the Mormons of both Democratic and Republican affiliations alike had voted almost solidly for the Mormon ticket. At 10 o'clock the new developments pointed to a Mormon victory.

COLORADO.

Denver, Nov. 3.—Colorado has gone Republican, electing Campbell, for supreme judge, by a large majority. The vote is light, particularly in Denver, which has given Wilson (Democrat) for supreme judge, about three thousand plurality, but this will be easily overcome by the vote of the strong Republican counties.

NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 3.—Greater New York has voted Tammany back into power by a plurality that surpassed the private estimates of Tammany leaders, Charles F. M. Murphy and Patrick H. McCarron. Tammany and her allies have carried every borough but Richmond, which barely saved itself. The board of estimate, save for President Crumwell, is unanimous, every other fusion candidate for borough president having been defeated. Brooklyn simply went to pieces and welcomed "the tiger" with open arms.

Mayor, George B. McClellan; comptroller, Edward M. Grout; president of the board of aldermen, Charles V. Fornes; president of Manhattan, John A. Ahern; president of Bronx, Louis P. Haffen; president of Brooklyn, M. W. Littleton; president of Queens, Joseph Carrihy; president of Richmond, Nathaniel Marsh.

The vote for mayor, with a few of the districts missing, is as follows: Manhattan and Bronx—Low 129,431; McClellan 185,292; Brooklyn—Low 101,446; McClellan 102,588; Queens—Low 11,906; McClellan 16,979; Richmond—Low 6,555; McClellan 6,150.

Devery polled a total of 2,741. Grout for comptroller was re-elected over Hinch by 65,171.

For president of the board of aldermen, Fornes has a full share of the large vote. For president of Manhattan, the plurality of Ahern (Tammany) is about 69,000. For president of the Bronx, Haffen (Tammany) is elected by 5,000. Littleton (Democrat) is elected in Brooklyn, Cassidy (Democrat) in Queens, and Crumwell (fusion) in Richmond. Tammany elected 35 of 44 aldermen voted for in this county. In 1901 it elected 28.

General Dan Sickles, the hero of Gettysburg, wins in the fifth for alderman. Tammany elects 28 of the 35 assemblymen from New York county. The New York county vote on the canal referendum is 214,101 yes and 23,884 no, with 111 election districts missing. The proposition carried in the state by about 100,000.

Mayor Low received the returns at his home, 30 East Sixty-fourth street. At 8:15 o'clock he wrote this message and directed that it be sent: "Col. Geo. B. McClellan, Hotel Barthold, New York: 'I congratulate you on your election. If I can be of service to you pray command me.'"

"SETH LOW"

When the news that McClellan had actually carried Brooklyn arrived the mayor concluded that there was no hope of anything better on this side of the river. Then it was that he wrote the dispatch to McClellan. Police Commissioner Greene interprets the Tammany victory to mean that the city wants a wide open town.

KENTUCKY.

Frankfort, Ky., No. 3.—Returns here indicate Beckman's re-election by from 18,000 to 20,000 plurality, and the election of seventy Democratic members of the house against thirty Republicans. The senate will be composed of 23 Democrats and 15 Republicans.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 3.—Kentucky, by a decisive vote today, placed itself safely in the Democratic column, electing the full state ticket by a plurality estimated at 15,000. The Democratic managers had been counting upon a plurality of 20,000, the size depending largely upon the vote in the city of Louisville, which is always uncertain. When, however, it was found that Louisville had given a Democratic plurality of about 5,000 out of a total registration of 48,000, it was conceded by all that the full state ticket was elected. The state ticket, therefore, came to Louisville with a good plurality, only to find another good plurality here to increase it.

Governor Beckman's election will be contested tomorrow by Col. Morris Beckman, the Republican nominee, on the ground of illegibility. The constitution provides that state officers may not be re-elected. Governor Beckman was chosen to fill an unexpired term. The case will be carried to the highest court.

SCATTERED RETURNS.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 3.—Democrats carry the city by 7,000 majority. Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Republicans made a clean sweep of McClellan for Providence, R. I., Nov. 3.—The midnight returns indicate Garvin's re-election by about 2,000.

THE EARLY RETURNS

How the Counting Proceeded While the Count Was Going On

New York City. New York, Nov. 3.—The World concedes the election of McClellan. He gets large majority in Mahattan. The Devery vote is small.

New York, Nov. 3.—The Herald and all New York papers concede McClellan's election by great majority. Grout and Fornes ran up with the ticket. New York, Nov. 3.—Returns from about one-third of Greater New York indicate the election of McClellan for mayor by a majority of about 6,000. It was a landslide and the entire Democratic ticket is elected. Brooklyn, which was expected to give a big majority for Low, went Democratic by about 6,000.

New York, Nov. 3.—Indications are that Republicans will control the next legislature by a safe majority. The assembly will stand: Republicans 88; Democrats 62. New York, Nov. 3.—McClellan's majority will probably be 66,000. His majority in Brooklyn will be about 10,000. New York, Nov. 3.—9 p. m.—Low congratulates McClellan on his big majority.

MARYLAND.

Baltimore, Nov. 3.—Owing to the time consumed in the count, because of the numerous candidates, it will be very late before anything definite is known here as to today's election. The vote polled was very heavy, the largest in many years, and nine of every ten tickets were scratched. Not a precinct in the city has been heard from, nor is there any likelihood of any returns coming in before midnight.

The leaders of both parties are at sea. Many negroes remained away from the polls and the friends of Congressman Wachter cut the local and legislative Republican candidates. On the other hand, the opposing Democratic factions cut the city candidates belonging to their party. It is generally believed that the legislature will be Democratic, but no one can predict the election of either a Democratic or Republican governor. The election was a very quiet one.

Baltimore, Nov. 3.—The returns are coming in slowly, but those received indicate that Warfield, Democrat, will be surely elected governor.

Washington, Nov. 3.—At 10 o'clock the Washington Post bulletins that its reports indicate the election of Warfield for governor.

OHIO.

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—On scattering returns received up to 7:20 p. m. Republicans claim that they have a plurality approximating 100,000 in the state and over two-thirds of each branch of the legislature.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 3.—This city gives Herrick an increased Republican majority of 7,000 over Johnson.

Canton, O., Nov. 3.—The majority here for Herrick, Republican, is three thousand.

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—According to present returns Ohio will give Herrick for governor a majority of one hundred thousand or more. The legislature will be Republican. All doubtful districts show Republican gains.

Cincinnati, Nov. 3.—91 out of 229 precincts show a gain for Herrick over last year of 4,493. Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—2 a. m.—Returns from all parts of the state at this hour indicate that Herrick, for governor, will have a majority of not less than 140,000. Throughout the country districts many counties where the vote was expected to be strongly Democratic immense Republican majorities have appeared.

NEW JERSEY.

New York, Nov. 3.—The indications are that the Republicans have elected a majority of their assemblymen in New Jersey. The Republicans elected their city ticket in Newark and elected all of the 11 assemblymen. Out of about 41,000 votes cast in Jersey City for Mayor Murphy (Dem.) was running slightly ahead when 15,000 votes had been counted.

RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, Nov. 3.—The returns from the state election are coming in slowly. Eleven districts show Republican gains of 107. Garvin's (Dem.) plurality last year was about 5,000. The indications at 9 o'clock were that he had been re-elected by a reduced plurality.
