

POSTSCRIPTS

Mr. W. H. King is back from a visit to the St. Louis exposition.

The quartette of Shaw University went to Durham to give a concert there last night.

The colored First Baptist church had a rally Sunday and raised $302 for their new church.

A letter from a farmer in Duplin county yesterday said there had been no rain there in 90 days.

Chas. Faucette, a negro, was given 30 days on the roads by the mayor for being drunk in the market.

The retail clerks union will give another excursion to Chalybeate Springs next Thursday evening.

Mr. C. H. Poe went to Jackson Springs yesterday. He says that rain is much needed in eastern Carolina.

Judge Purnell has appointed J. Wayland Allen of Smithfield, United States commissioner vice J. G. Parker resigned.

Dr. B. W. Burkett left for Greensboro and will return next Friday afternoon. He is engaged in work at the institute in Greensboro.

Arthur McLean, a negro from Dunn, was caught by Mr. R. J. Ford trying to break into a box car. Mayor Powell sent him to jail to await the next term of court.

Rev. N. S. Jones returned yesterday morning from Jackson Springs where he attended the Baptist mid-summer meeting. He says the largest crowd of the season was there Sunday.

Mr. Hobby, who purchased the Frapps property on west Martin street opposite the car shed of the Union depot, is having a neat residence erected on the lower vacant lot.

Mr. R. L. Norton, upon his return from Granville county yesterday, reports that rain is badly needed in that section. It has been five weeks since a shower in the neighborhood near Oxford.

Two colored couples were granted marriage license yesterday. William Jones and Martha Horton, both of Heckon's Grove; James H. Howell, Holly Springs, and Lina Satterfield, Raleigh.

Rev. W. E. Walker, a minister of the A. M. E. church, was called into the register of deeds office yesterday and there married a colored couple, Will Jones and Martha Horton, both of Hickory Grove.
