STEEL IN THE ADVANCE

Call Loans Affected by Report of Gold Engaged in London for Shipment to America-Leading Stocks Less Active Than Some of the Less Prominent wew York, Oct. 2.-Opening prices were a small fraction higher than Saturday, with only a few exceptions. clined 10 points. Middling 10.65; New 18@19; store packed 15@16. The principal gains were among the Orleans and gulf 10.90; sales 25 bales specialties. Delaware and Hudson rose 2, Linseed, United States Rubber kets were unchanged to 1/8 lower. and Metropolitan Street Railway large Futures in New Orleans were as fol- 5.20; fine 5.20.

Conspicuous gains in the specialties and apprehension over the money conditions curtailed operations in the standard stocks and the advance in Reading was of little influence. Improvement of prices followed the open-Ing dealings, but none of the favorites got far away from Saturday's closing and a few were heavy. Many large blocks of United States Steel were bought at 38 1-2. Northern Central gained 4 points, Great Northern preferred, Coal Oil and Federal Mining preferred 1 3-4 and Reading, Minneapolis. St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie, Northwestern Sti Louis and San'Francisco second preferred, Consolidated Gas. Smelting, the Linseed stocks and the United States Pipe 1 1-4. Prominent stocks eased off at 11 o'clock and the trading became dull.

A report was cfrculated of an engagement of gold in London for ship- tion, the issuance of some more ment to New York, and call loans tober notices of delivery and a gener were quoted below 6 per cent. South- xpectation that the government repo ern Pacific and Union Pacific were on the condition to be issued tomorro pushed up a point, but the general will state it about 68 per cent. Stead market made only a moderate re- hammering also occounted in some d sponse, and prices slipped back again, gree for the final decline. The gi Tennessee Coal, St. Louis Foundry pre- ners report was in one sense of litt ferred, Pullman, Union Bag preferred value, as it was devoid of compar and Virginia and Carolina Chemical sons with other years. But the expe rose a point or more, Distillers' Securi- tation was so genral that the quantit ties and Federal Mining 1 3-4, and the would be put considerably higher the preferred and Chicago Union Traction the figures actually given that the r preferred 2 1-2. polized the dealings and forged stead- leans. Local shorts covered and con fly upward, but the usually active list mission houses executed a good man was neglected. Consolidated Gas buying orders. Colorado Fuel, Sloss-Sheffield Steel, of liquidation, especially of October, Allis-Chalmers preferred, American caused another setback. Weolen, Southwestern and St. Louis second preferred 1 to 1 3-8. Speculation was practically at a standstill in the afternoon hours except for the buying of minor industrails. With the attention of the dealers diverted entirely to this class of securities, favorite stocks held well. Pittsburg Coal preferred moved up 3 3-4, Sloss-Sheffield Steel 3, Cast Iron Pipe Foundry 2, Rock Island preferred 1 1-2 and Union Bag and Republic Steel preferred 1. The closing was dull and about steady.
