Saleswomen's Peril GRAVE DISEASES, DUE TO STANDING

Facts About Miss Merkley's Dangerous Illness and Complete Cure

Have you ever thought why so many women or girls rather walk an hour than stand still for ten minutes?

Miss Margaret Merkley

It is because most women suffer from some derangement of their delicate organism, the discomfort of which is less trying when they are in motion than when standing.

In some states laws compel employers to provide resting places for their female employees.

But no amount of law can regulate the hard tasks of these women. They must get the strength which this work demands or run the risk of serious diseases and the surgeon's knife.

Read about the experience of Miss Margaret Merkley, 275 3d Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham— Gradual loss of strength, nervousness, bearing-down pains and extreme irritation compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor said I had ovarian trouble and ulceration of the womb, and advised an operation. If I wanted to get well, I objected to this, and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I soon found that all the good things said about this great medicine were true. The ulceration soon healed, backache, headache and nervousness disappeared, and in a short time I was strong, vigorous and perfectly well. I wish every working girl who suffers would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a vegetable tonic which invigorates and strengthens the entire female organism, and will produce the same beneficial results in the case of any sick woman as with Miss Merkley.

picturesque of the October home weddings was celebrated this morning when Miss Alice Watson became the bride of Mr. J. Frank Morris. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Watson on Trade street. Very beautiful and impressive was the ceremony used by Dr. H. F. Cretzberg to unite the happy lives. Amid many good wishes and showers of rice, the happy couple left on the morning train for an extensive bridal trip to Niagara and northern cities.

The marriage of Miss Rosa Hege, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hege, to Dr. H. H. Kapp, one of Winston's most popular physicians, was celebrated this morning at the home of the bride's parents in Salem at 10 o'clock. The home was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Bishop Rondthaler of the Moravian church officiated. The contracting parties left on the morning train amid showers of rice and hearty good wishes for an extended trip to northern cities.

JENNIE MAY TO STAND TRIAL Absence of C. M. Bernard Caused Postponement Till Saturday

Jennie May, who lives at the corner of Davie and Swain streets, has returned to Raleigh after an absence of more than three months and will stand trial before Police Justice Badger on the charge of having a house of bad character. The woman disappeared from here the day after the tragedy on June 24th and upon her return last Saturday was served with a warrant. The case was to have been heard yesterday afternoon but was continued on account of the absence of Claude M. Bernard whom the state desires to subpoena as a witness.

City Attorney Snow has had subpoenaed as witnesses four colored hackmen, C. M. Bernard and J. C. Dockery and two newspaper men, R. L. Gray and W. C. Briggs, who interviewed Jennie May the day Mr. Dockery was shot by Policeman I. W. Rogers. The woman has as her lawyers Messrs. Watson and Lambert.

When it was ascertained yesterday afternoon that C. M. Bernard was in Concord on business and had not been served with a subpoena City Attorney Snow stated that Mr. Bernard was the state's most important witness and asked that the case be continued until four o'clock Saturday afternoon. This was done.

Cotton Growers to Meet Secretary T. B. Parker yesterday announced that a large attendance was anticipated at the meeting of the North Carolina Cotton Growers' Association which has been called to be held here Friday, October 20th. The primary object of this meeting is to get the farmers in line to hold their cotton for eleven cents and to stand firmly by the organization. Whether officers will be elected or not at this session is unknown. The present officers were chosen early last spring, when the state association was organized.

A Small Fire A small fire occurred shortly before noon yesterday in the Holleman building over Rosengarten's store. Some rags and rubbish in a closet in the tailor shop there caught fire and made quite a blaze for a few minutes. The firemen used extinguishers and put out the blaze without turning on a stream of water.

26th VOL. STATE RECORDS

Just Out With Census Heads of Families in 1790

Chief Justice Walter Clark of the supreme court announces that the 26th volume of the North Carolina State Records, edited by himself for the state, is just from the presses of the state printer. It contains, among other things, the names of the heads of families in the state, according to the United States census of 1790, and an index by Dr. Weeks. It requires a special act of the congress to secure the copy of the census for publication. It will be interesting to all who are interested in the history and genealogy of the state. Another publication that is just from the presses of the state printers is the reprint of the fiftieth volume of the North Carolina Supreme Court Reports as annotated by Judge Clark.

An Excellent Attraction (Wilmington Messenger Oct. 10th.) Miss Effie Eissler, assisted by a most excellent company, presented Hazel Kirke to a small but delighted audience at the Academy of Music last night. It was indeed unfortunate that such a well presented attraction should have no larger audience, but this was due to the public waiting to see the Clansman.

Every member of the company played the part assigned to them remarkably well. There were times when the audience could not restrain their mirth and again handkerchiefs would be brought freely into use. The play is one full of touching scenes. Miss Eissler and her well balanced company deserved full houses.

Patterson Loving Cup Mr. Clarence H. Poe, the secretary of the State Literary and Historical Association has placed on exhibition in the window of Mahler's Sons' store the beautiful $500 loving cup donated to the association by Mrs. Lindsay Patterson in memory of her father, William Houston Patterson, to be presented each year to the one writing the best literary or historical production. The cup is to be awarded at the meeting of the association here next week.

The cup is a magnificent one and is about twelve inches high. Its handles are studied with North Carolina fossils. On one side appears the following: "William Houston Patterson, Car Cardium."

"The Sign of the Four" The attraction which will be at the Academy of Music for one night only Thursday, October 12, is called "The Sign of the Four," with "Sherlock Holmes" as the leading character. This play has proven to be one of the best of the dramatic sensations of Sir A. Conan Doyle's works and it is said to be a commendable example of what good drama should be. The play abounds in thrilling dramatic situations and the audience is borne along on the tide of excitement with never flagging interest until the fall of the final curtain. Messrs. Gridley & Co. have selected a cast of more than usual competence and have given the play a splendid scenic equipment.

Lecture by Mr. Walker Mr. J. C. Walker of Talula Odd Fellows lodge at Cary delivered an entertaining and instructive lecture last night before the members of Manteo lodge here. Mr. Walker spoke of his trip through the western part of the state last summer in the interest of the order. He visited Wilkes, Ashe, Alleghany, Caldwell, Watauga, Mitchell and other counties. On this journey he traveled 350 miles in conveyances through the country. Mr. Walker is a close observer and an interesting talker, and he gave a graphic description of the points in the mountains, the life of the people, the industries and the progress being made.

Goldsboro Military Coming Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 10.—Special. From present indications it is probable that the entire military force of Goldsboro will visit the capital city on the occasion of the visit of President Roosevelt next week. The entire force comprises four companies. There are two regularly organized companies of the North Carolina National Guard and a battalion composed of two juvenile companies. The last named will be quite a novelty in the shape of militarism and will attract a deal of attention. This battalion will be in charge of Capt. Edgar Bain, a son of Inspector General T. H. Bain. Each company will have its regular officers and will be uniformly and equipped. For the most part the rank and file are under twenty years of age. They are well drilled and will make a creditable showing.
