FIFTEEN MILITARY COS.

Arranging Exhibits—County Displays—Rules Against Gambling. Adequate Police Force—Secretary's Office Moved to the Grounds and Ready for Business

Chief Marshal B. Frank Mebane of Spray is here. He has laid aside everything else and thrown himself heart and soul into the work of making the state fair next week the greatest event North Carolina has known. Mrs. Mebane will today join her husband at the Yarrowburg Hotel, which will be their home until next Saturday. Mr. Mebane does not expect to be away from the city an hour until the forty-fifth fair of the North Carolina Agricultural Society has passed into history.

There were numerous callers at the rooms of the chief marshal last evening. He is thoroughly enthused over the work, and his plans are being rapidly perfected. Today he expects to be able to announce positively the arrangements for the headquarters for the marshals.

The number of marshals for the fair is unprecedented. Chief Marshal Mebane said last night that 240 had accepted his invitation, writing that they would be here and participate in the parades. Only the names of those who positively accept are being considered. A great many of these young men will bring their horses with them.

The following marshals, in addition to the list already published, have notified Chief Marshal Mebane of their acceptance:

- J. F. Armfield, Statesville.
- Dr. C. O. Abernathy, Raleigh.
- J. B. Allen, Henderson.
- R. V. Brawley, Statesville.
- J. V. Blades, New Bern.

- R. T. Wilson, Danville, Va., R. F. D. No. 5.
- C. L. Wilson, Dunn.
- W. W. Williams, Spray.

The list of marshals is still incomplete. Others will be announced Sunday. It is essential that the marshals shall order their regalia from Sherwood Higgs & Co. immediately.

Fifteen Military Companies

Major J. J. Bernard, chairman of the committee on the military feature on Roosevelt Day (Thursday), says that he is now fully warranted in stating that fifteen companies will be in the line of march. Clinton Lumber Bridge, Fayetteville, Goldsboro (Company D) and Salisbury have notified Major Bernard that they are coming. Colonel Craig has written that Greensboro, Sanford and Burlington will attend, but the companies have not replied to the committee's invitation. They are expected, however. Louisburg and Franklinton have decided to come, so the committee is unofficially informed. The Boys' Brigade of Goldsboro will be in line with the troops. Then the two Raleigh companies and the cadets of the A. & M. College are to be added. The probabilities are that there may be fourteen companies, exclusive of the Raleigh organizations.

Program About Complete

Upon the return of Governor Glenn to his office yesterday, he, as chairman of the general committee on the entertainment of the president, held a conference with the fair officials and others in the executive office. There were present President Ashley Horne of the fair, Secretary Joseph E. Pogue, Mayor J. L. Johnson, Col. C. E. Johnson, Major Bernard, Captain Moody and Captain Stronach. A sub-committee, composed of Mayor Johnson and Mr. Sherwood Higgs, was appointed to smooth out the program and have it issued today.

Shows Pouring In

The secretary's office has been moved to the fair grounds. Yesterday on the grounds resembled what Monday has heretofore been. Exhibitors were busy arranging their displays and the show people made the old midway, now called

Absolutely Pure

A GRAPE CREAM OF TARTAR BAKING POWDER

It makes the most delicious and healthful hot breads, biscuit and cake

FREE FROM ALUM, LIME OR PHOSPHATIC ACID

Alum baking powders are unhealthful. Do not use them for raising food under any circumstances. So detrimental are alum baking powders considered, that in most foreign countries their sale is prohibited. In many States in this country the law compels alum powders to be branded to show that they contain this dangerous acid, while in the District of Columbia, Congress has prohibited the sale of all food that contains alum.

Alum baking powders are sold to consumers at from 10 cents a pound to 25 ounces for 25 cents, or 25 cents a pound, and when not branded may generally be distinguished by their price.

JUDGES FOR THE FLOWER SHOW

They Will be Josephus Daniels, Dr. Moment and Mr. Webb

It is announced that the judges for the flower show to be held this afternoon at Centennial school building from 2 to 6 o'clock will be Mr. Josephus Daniels, Dr. A. H. Moment and Mr. Alex. Webb. The ladies in charge of this work are especially anxious to have all the flowers that are to be exhibited sent out to the school building not later than 11 o'clock. The indications are that the display will be very attractive indeed, and it is anticipated that the judges will have a difficult task in awarding the prizes.

No Gambling or Indecent Shows

Secretary Pogue says that gambling on the grounds will be suppressed, and to this end adequate precautions have been taken. Of course games of a light character, where there are no blanks and no drawbacks, will be allowed if the chances are not more than ten cents each.

A Big Police Force

Magistrate C. A. Separk, who has had service as a deputy sheriff, will be chief of the police on the grounds in the daytime. He will have forty men under him. There will also be a night force under Magistrate A. H. Yearby. The fair will be open each day, beginning Tuesday, from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Chief of Police Mullins, in the city, will double the police force and bring out the night men also Thursday morning. Besides these, he has some plain-clothes men from a distance "who can't be spotted," as the chief expressed it.

SUCCESSOR APPOINTED

Major W. A. Graham Succeeds S. T. Wilfong on Board Agriculture

Governor Glenn yesterday announced the appointment of Major W. A. Graham of Lincoln county as a member of the state board of agriculture from the seventh district, to succeed the late Mr. S. T. Wilfong, who died a few weeks ago. The appointment of Major Graham will meet with very general approval on the part of the other members of the board and with the people of the state at large.

Major Graham has served as a member of the board for a number of years and always took a deep interest in the affairs of the department and in the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, of which the state board of agriculture also constitutes the board of trustees. Major Graham resigned from the board to become a member of the 1905 legislature.

Commissioner of Agriculture S. L. Patterson said yesterday that the appointment of Major Graham was especially gratifying to him and that a hearty welcome awaits him on the part of all the other members of the state board.

There will be no meets of the state board until the regular semi-annual session in December.

GRAY SPECIAL MASTER

Succeeds Capt. V. E. McBee to Sell C. N. R. R.

Change Made on Account of the Illness of Mrs. McBee at Asheville. Sale to Be at Lumberton, Oct. 17, as Advertised

Mr. R. T. Gray of this city is appointed special master in the stead of Capt. V. E. McBee for the purpose of making the sale of the Carolina and Northern Railroad as advertised for October 17th at Lumberton in the case of Atlantic Seaboard Construction Company vs. The Carolina Northern Railroad Company, which has been pending in the United States court here for some time. The order substituting Mr. Gray to make the sale was made last evening by Judge Thos. R. Purnell on application of the bondholders in consequence of the sickness of Mrs. McBee at Asheville and a certificate from the attending physician that Capt. McBee cannot leave her at this time. There was a request that the sale be postponed for thirty days, but the bondholders objected to this and sued a course would have added materially to the cost of the case hence the determination to substitute Mr. Gray for Capt. McBee and let the sale proceed. Advertisements are now running in the papers and elsewhere for the sale on October 17th and it was thought best to let it proceed. So the road will be put up to the highest bidder at Lumberton on that date.

Bob Will Get the Money

(Greenville, S. C., News.) The original Bob Haynes is not going to let any of the tainted money at the Raleigh state fair get away next week if he can scotch it with a joke. President Roosevelt will be one of the attractions, and the genial Bobble naturally expects a tremendous crowd. From the Raleigh Evening Times it is learned that the Greenville end man will have a minstrel performance that will certainly make good, and being his own press agent Bob is telling the people that they just cannot possibly afford to visit the city without buying a ticket to his show. He does not expect President Roosevelt to occupy a box seat, for the president cannot remain overnight, but other people, whose money is equally as good, will be there, and they will have to see Haynes if they want to be happy. Bob's creed is that the proper way to separate a man from his money is by providing something to make him laugh while the thing is being done, but as the proceeding will require about two hours there will be nothing questionable about the act. The minstrels are said to be the cleverest ever got together by an amateur, and with Bob Haynes as the star there'll surely be something doing.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At all druggists. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

Banner Must Come Down

Contributions were being collected yesterday to place a decent banner across Fayetteville street in place of the string now fluttering. A banner has been engaged from another town. As stated yesterday Secretary Pogue says the present banner will be taken down. If it is not it is safe to say that some public-spirited citizens will carry out the common threat and tear it down or destroy it.

The Governor Pleased

Governor Glenn returned yesterday from Murfreesboro where he opened the fair. He reports a delightful trip and that he was highly pleased with the fair. He addressed 4,000 people and they were a prosperous, happy looking crowd. The exhibits, he said, were highly creditable.

Defaulting Cashier Indicted

Buffalo, Oct. 12.—Frederick R. Greene, cashier of the failed National Bank of Fredonia, was indicted today by the federal grand jury and will be brought to trial next March. He may plea guilty, for if he does not, revelations may shake the honor of the judiciary of the state worse than the investigation of Justice Hooper.

The Weather

Washington, Oct. 13.—Raleigh fair Saturday and Sunday; North Carolina fair, warmer Saturday; fresh southerly winds; Sunday showers; cooler in western portions.

High Point Happenings

High Point, N. C., Oct. 13.—Special. Mrs. Allie Sullivan, aged 83 years, died yesterday at the home of Mr. Wesley Myers. She was the mother of Mrs. Julia Ausband and sister to Mrs. A. A. Grimes. The funeral services were held at the home of Mr. Myers this morning at 9:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. M. Hilliard of Greene Street Baptist Church. The North Carolina Chair Association met in session here yesterday to complete organization and transact other business demanding attention since their first meeting in Thomasville last month.

Through the good offices of Mrs. George Fowler, the Colfax Rebecca Lodge, No. 53, of Amesbury, Mass., has presented to Magdalen Rebecca Lodge of High Point a full set of regalia.

Ninety lots were sold in Mechanicsville, a suburb of High Point, yesterday, the price in each instance being satisfactory all around. From the result of this sale quite a number of houses will be erected. It is estimated that one thousand people from High Point attended the Central Carolina fair at Greensboro yesterday.

The Southern Machine Works, one of the latest enterprises for High Point, has opened for business. The plant is located on Commerce street and is an up-to-date plant in every particular.
