FOR CONGRESS. 1st District--W. A. B. Branch, of Beaufort.

DEM. JUDICIAL CONVENTIONS. 11th District, Lincolnton, Aug. 14th.

UNDULY SUSPICIOUS.

We publish in another column a statement from the Chatham Record denying a rumor that Mr. W. F. Strowd would run as an independent candidate for Congress against Mr. Bunn in the Fourth District.

It is a sad reflection upon our faith in good men that such a rumor could gain currency. It is born of an unworthy sentiment that excites distrust and suspicion in the minds of many people.

This suspicion and distrust, instead of decreasing as men become better educated, seems to be on the increase. While there are evils in our legislation, and while there are bad men in public position, we cannot think that it is wise to magnify these evils, or exaggerate the number of bad men who are a very small portion, comparatively, of the men in high position.

THE THIN END OF THE WEDGE. (New York Herald.) The resolution submitted by Mr. Edmunds in the Senate yesterday to limit debate on the Tariff bill so as to give the power of closure to the majority is only the thin end of the wedge.

AN UNFORTUNATE MISTAKE. Mr. Newland Tenders the Nomination for Solicitor in the Tenth District to Mr. Council. (Lenoir Topic.) The question of the Solicitorship is not in satisfactory shape and Mr. Newland has tendered the Democratic nomination to Mr. Council.

THE NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND MECHANIC ARTS. Will begin its second session on September the 4th 1890.

Sale of Land. On Wednesday, the 29th day of August, 1890, I will sell at public auction at the Court House door in Raleigh, Wake county, N. C., 378 acres of land, situated in Harnett county, N. C., adjoining the lands of William Guy, I Matthews, William Cutts and others, lying on the waters of Bowles creek, and more fully described in a Deed of Trust from W. P. Wren and wife to W. H. Pace, Trustee, recorded in Book W, page 543 to 545, Register's Office, of Harnett county. Terms of sale cash. Time of sale 12 o'clock m. W. H. PACE, Trustee.

began with Mr. RANDALL, has now become an exact science under Mr. REED. The Senate is free. There are no blind ditches, traps, hurdles or fences in the way of free debate. And while with the tendency of some Senators to go off into wind and sound there may be objections to this, still in the absolute freedom of the Senate there is a valued safeguard to our liberties. Reduce this body into the condition of the House, with such a man as Mr. REED in the chair, and the Senate will become a kind of museum for such as the NAPOLEONS used to create to amuse the French and provide sinecures for their dependents and slaves.

Mr. EDMUNDS' proposal is the thin edge of the wedge. It is a step toward the Force bill. That wanton and disgraceful measure a law, and we can have service pensions, river and harbor bills, public buildings, tariffs on water and sunshine as we now have on sugar and salt, and a financial saturnalia. We trust that the Senate will maintain its freedom. It is the last of the institutions which our fathers gave us that remains as it was given. A fight for the liberty of the Senate is a fight against force bills, legislative corruption and executive despotism.

EDUCATIONAL STATE PRIDE.

(Atlanta Constitution.) State pride is commendable from every point of view. It is the local spirit of patriotism; it makes home rule a fixed fact; stimulates home progress, and exalts the citizen.

The good people of North Carolina carry this feeling into every line of action. In educational matters it is especially prominent. The North Carolina Teacher is one of the best publications of its class in the South, and in it we find advertised such works as "The North Carolina Copy Books," "The North Carolina Practical Spelling Books," "First Steps in North Carolina History," "School History of North Carolina," and "The North Carolina Speaker."

All these books are written and published in the Old North State, and it will be noted that each one has North Carolina in its title.

When state pride is fostered in this way it goes without saying that the rising generation of North Carolinians will be devoted to their commonwealth. Home books for the people will lead them to make their home section independent of the outside world.

A SLANDER REFUTED.

[Chatham Record.] We hear that Mr. W. F. Strowd, of this county, has been most vilely slandered by the circulation of a rumor that he would be an independent candidate for Congress against Capt. Bunn. Of course wherever Mr. Strowd is known such a slanderous rumor would not be believed and its denial would not be necessary, but in justice to him and for the information of the citizens of this district who are not acquainted with him we deem it proper to state that there is no truth whatever in such a rumor. It is true that some republicans and persons pretending to be his friends have urged Mr. Strowd to run against Capt. Bunn, but he has indignantly rejected such solicitations and is now doing what he publicly declared in the Durham convention he would do, and that is, urging his friends to give Capt. Bunn their enthusiastic support. If all the Democrats of this district will work as zealously for Bunn's election as Mr. Strowd is doing, his majority will be much larger even than it was in 1888!

COL. LANE'S ADDRESS.

The Chatham Record of yesterday publishes the address of COL. J. R. LANE, which was delivered at the annual meeting of the Chatham County Confederate Association. It is a valuable contribution to the war papers, and any party desiring it can secure it for five cents by addressing the Record, Pittsboro, N. C. The published address is in full of that portion that refers to the battle of Gettysburg in which COL. LANE's regiment immortalized itself, suffering heavier loss than did any other regiment in either army in any other battle of the whole war.

SENATOR VANCE, in a voice of warning, tells the Republicans if they continue "this cruel and unjust policy," it will not be long ere a revolution will annihilate them and their theories, and adds: "In the redress of wrongs, indignant men are not always nice or wise; and though not in the bargain, the blood will naturally follow the pound of flesh. Do justice to the people and do it now."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.--U. S. Government Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO. CARPETS. This one item, and it's a big one with us, should be considered by every one intending to buy any kind of floor covering.

The demand for carpets has been unusually heavy for this month, and that, with some alterations that we have been making, has kept this department in some disorder, but now we are about straight, and can show carpets with all our accustomed conveniences.

As to prices, all we will say is that during August you can get prices that you can't get after Sept. 1st. As to the quality of stock we carry, you haven't an idea, until you come and see; and in the medium grades, we really have for you some of the choicest patterns, and at prices that the same goods have not been offered at in the city.

Parents and guardians will do well to note the following facts: The Institute was located at Murfreesboro in preference to many other very desirable places because of its celebrity for health, and the history of the school for more than forty years demonstrates the wisdom of their course.
