THE SWORD OF DAMOCLES!

No thinking, respectable man can contemplate the effects—the horrors—of one Radical Legislature in North Carolina without a shudder!

What does it mean? Where does it lead? What are its effects financially, economically, in the home circle, for the tax-payer, for the poor and self-respecting white man and his wife and little ones?

It means that hereafter each Judicial district will vote for its own judge as now it does for its own solicitor. What does this mean? It means that GEORGE H. WHITE, the present colored solicitor of the Second district, will be elected a judge of the Superior court of North Carolina. Article 4, section 21, of the State Constitution. Bear in mind, this colored judge will ride every district in North Carolina. He will preside in haughty Asheville, and he will preside by the sea, in Dare.

Surely, the Radicals will not nominate a negro for judge? Well, perhaps not, and yet they have a negro from the Second district in Congress, and they have a negro State's attorney, whose duty is nearly as responsible as that of a judge. Are the white men of North Carolina ready to have a negro on the bench? Are they ready to have the delicate rights and duties of themselves to each other, and the privileges of their wives and children, as between themselves and their colored neighbors, passed upon by a negro?

Again: The next Legislature will divide the State into Senatorial Districts. This was done in 1881. (See Laws 1881—chapter 296.) and is to be done each ten years. By combination and gerrymander the State will be so restricted that for ten years to come the Legislature will, at all hazards, go Radical, and with it goes the credit of the State, and with it goes the charters of Raleigh, Wilmington, Charlotte, Durham, Asheville, Fayetteville, New Bern, and other Eastern towns and cities, and their charters go the prosperity of these cities.

The next Legislature restricts the Congressional Districts of North Carolina, and, by gerrymander, the State will lose certainly half, probably three-fourths, of her Congressmen—and this means endorsement of Speaker Reed—and of the odious Force Bill—and of the stabs of northern Congressmen, during the present Congress, at southern industries.

Again a Radical Legislature means the repeal of chapter 17, section 716 and of chapter 22, section 819 of the Code of North Carolina, which means that chaos and confusion, shall again break loose and reign supreme in Bertie, Halifax, Northampton, Vance, Craven, Pasquotank, Granville, Hertford, Warren, Washington, Currituck, Edgecombe, New Hanover and Wake. Shall these things be? Shall the finances of the State be thrown into irresponsible hands again? Shall county script again fall to 25 and 50 cents on the dollar in these counties?

Again a Radical Legislature means the defeat of Vance, and when this tribune of the people shall fall, this man who has incurred the displeasure of hydra-headed monopolies and who has grown old and poor and blind in his fight for the rights of the oppressed against the rich—when this man falls, who will dare to champion the cause of the poor and the needy, seeing how little the reward for duty done?

Again and above all, it means that North Carolina has taken a step backward. Its moral effect will be great for evil. It means that the inevitable conflict between white and black is nearing. It means that the van guard of the black and the rear guard of the white have met. It will give the negro a false idea of his own position in the State. It will reopen the old wounds of 1868-1870. It will turn the head of the colored man from business to politics. It will make him insolent and stiff-necked. It will affect every household in the State. The farm hand and nurse, the house maid, and even the cook in the kitchen, will feel licensed to greater freedom and incompetency.

In the name of the great State of North Carolina—her business relations and her rising tide of prosperity—in the name of that Peace and Security we now enjoy and of that Confusion and Shame which we should seek to shun—the CHRONICLE calls upon each man in the State to rouse himself, and to each woman in the State to help in the good cause by her work, her example and prayers in the interest of good government and Democracy.

MOORE COUNTY POLITICS.

A gentleman in Moore county, who had been urging the Democratic nominee for the Senate to declare for VANCE, writes us:

Your editorial on "Moore County Politics" struck the nail on the head. I wish that it could be placed in the hands of every Democrat in the county. . . . We concluded to settle our affairs within the ranks of the party. That is the way to do it. Differences between Democrats encourages Republicans and helps to elect a Radical Legislature.

SENATOR PLUMB gave the Treasury Department a little raking over Friday, because of its having entered into a limited partnership with a lot of New York speculators, and Saturday SENATOR COCKRELL reopened the same wounds in a few remarks, objecting to the consideration of SENATOR SHERMAN'S bill to reduce the amount of bonds required of national banks. Mr. COCKRELL said that he proposed when this bill was taken up, to offer an amendment requiring the withdrawal of all bond circulation, and the substitution of Treasury notes—"the best paper currency that any country ever had."

"That will take," he continued, "the control of our finances out of the hands of a combination and monopoly. What has been seen within the last few weeks has not been creditable to the country. The Secretary of the Treasury has been seen drawn on by speculators in stocks and grain in New York, to pay out every dollar of cash surplus in the treasury in order to save them and to save their imaginary profits in speculation and gambling."

REPUBLICANS are conspicuous for their greed. At the recent State convention W. P. BYNUM, Jr., of Greensboro, was nominated for Superior Court Judge. On Saturday the same gentleman was nominated for state Senator in Guilford county. We suggest to the young aspirant to decide which office he is a candidate for. It might be embarrassing and contrary to the Constitutional inhibition for him to try to fill both at one time. We give this advice knowing that he cannot be elected to either office but so that he may map out his course of action. If he is a candidate for Judge, he cannot make political speeches. If for Senator, he can defend the Force bill and denounce the Democrats with all the fierceness that characterizes his party.

The Asheville Citizen truly says that the one thing EWART can claim in his favor is his speech against the Force Bill, and in the same breath that he asks for votes on that score he damns his party. For if there was ever a Republican party measure that is one; and even now there are threats by the Republicans to have the President call an extra session to make it a law.

We have Mr. KENNEDY'S authority that SENATOR QUAY is a "Judas Iscariot" and a "braided criminal," and we have SENATOR QUAY'S authority that Mr. KENNEDY is a "blackguard and a loafer." What sort of a party must it be that acknowledges such men as leaders?—Wilmington Star.

Moses and Joshua.

(H. D. Murrell, Alliance Lecturer in Wilmington Star.) Zeb Vance was the Moses of North Carolina in 1876, and is now the Joshua of the American working people.

STATE POLITICS.

(From Mecklenburg Times, organ of the Mecklenburg Farmers' Alliance.)

The lines of battle have been formed, candidates have been nominated in nearly or quite all the counties in the State, and the single question is whether the Democratic candidates or their opponents shall be elected. If the Democrats are in the majority in the next legislative SENATOR VANCE will undoubtedly be elected his own successor; if the Democrats are in the minority then J. J. MOTT or some other Republican will take SENATOR VANCE'S place in the United States Senate. This is the simple issue and there can be no evasion.

The National Economist claims to be the organ of the National Alliance and that organization is essentially non-partisan. But no one reading editorials in recent numbers of the Economist could fail to see the very direct and aggressive attitude of that paper in North Carolina politics. If the object of the Economist is not to weaken the Democratic party in the State and thereby aid in defeating the Democratic nominees to the Legislature, we fail to see what the object can be. Certainly such is the effect of the teachings of that paper in its recent issues.

Now the Times begs to protest. The Economist has no right to interfere in these matters. It is published in Washington, D. C., and though its editor may have lived in a good many places, he is not a North Carolinian. He has no right to intermeddle with purely political matters here, nor to dictate to our people as to the casting of their votes.

He is doing great injury to the Alliance by furnishing a pretext to its enemies to accuse it of violating its fundamental principles and of using indirect and sinister means to accomplish bad ends. Already the papers which are hostile to the Alliance and which are ever ready even to pervert facts in order to falsely accuse and bring odium upon the Alliance, are charging that its members are responsible for the mischief the Economist is doing and are secretly giving aid and encouragement to that paper, while the fact is not one Alliance man in a hundred can approve the course of the Economist in respect to our State politics.

We venture to say there are not a dozen Democratic candidates for the Legislature in the State who have not been instructed to vote for VANCE as Senator, or have declared their purpose to do so. Now, these men are to be elected or defeated. Every word spoken, every line written, to dissuade the people with SENATOR VANCE, tends directly to weaken these candidates, two-thirds of whom at least, throughout the State, are members of the Alliance. The logic and inevitable effect, whatever may be the object, of the Economist in recent editorials, is either to defeat the Democratic nominees, the great majority of whom are members of the Alliance, or else induce them when elected to be guilty of the disgraceful, dishonorable and treasonable conduct of violating their pledges to the people and the instructions of their constituents.

In this State a majority of the Democratic nominees for Congress are members of the Alliance and any disaffection caused from the needless interference of the National Economist in the personal politics of this State will inevitably strengthen the opposition to CAPT. ALEXANDER and other Congressional nominees who are members of the Alliance. There can be no middle ground in this matter and no dodging the real issue, and if we are not much mistaken the point is about to be reached when patience and forbearance will end in indignation and resentment will begin.

GOD BLESS HIM, SO HE WOULD.

But the Tax Payers Would Have Been That Much Richer. (St. Louis Globe Democrat—Republican Organ.)

The New Hampshire Republicans very properly congratulate the soldiers of the country upon the fact that "their enemy, Grover Cleveland, is no longer in a position to defeat the just and generous purpose of a grateful nation." Had he been President during the past six months, the veterans would have lost at least $30,000,000.

MARSHALL MOTT truly says that the place for any man who opposes the Force Bill is in the Democratic party.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

Another Donation—Every Methodist in the State Ought to Help Swell the Fund. (Charlotte Chronicle.)

Dr. Crowell told the reporter that a large donation of land had been recently made to the college by a gentleman in this State. He was not at liberty to make public the name of the gentleman, but said the donation was a notable addition to the endowment of institution.

MAKING VOTES.

That is What Hon. W. T. Crawford Is Doing. (Asheville Citizen.)

Hon. W. T. Crawford, Democratic candidate for Congress, was in Asheville last night. The Citizen representative was among the many who called upon him, and found him in the most robust health and buoyant spirits.

"I have only made three speeches in the western counties so far," said Mr. Crawford, "and I have never known the Democracy to be as much enthused in that section. At Birdtown, in Swain county, I had a very large crowd to hear me speak, and I not only found all those who supported the Democratic ticket two years ago hard at work for me, but a number of gentlemen who supported Mr. Ewart before are now warmly and actively supporting me. Among this number is Chief Smith, of Cherokee, Swain county. His support is active and aggressive, and that means a great deal with a man of his commanding influence.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—U. S. Government Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

THE NEW SILKS, —DRESS GOODS— —AND— Dress Trimmings, W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.

We are positive that the display in these three departments has never been excelled by any of our previous efforts

SILKS. The most popular weaves this season will be Bengaline, Faille Francaise, and Eppinglines. These we show in Blacks, as well as all the fashionable Autumn shades.

DRESS TEXTURES. The popularity of the new "Rough" faced materials is now assured; and, combined with Velvet and Silk and Paeonetteaire, are capable of the most surprising effects.

DRESS TRIMMINGS. Our showing of these important accessories to dress goods is simply wonderful. It is quite difficult here to give anything like a comprehensive idea of what we have; but among the latest things brought out are the Turquoise effects, Velvet and Tinsel Combinations, &c., &c.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS. THE reason RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER is the most wonderful medicine, is because it has never failed in any instance, no matter what the disease, from LEP-ROSY to the simplest disease known to the human system. The scientific men of to-day claim and prove that every disease is CAUSED BY MICROBES, —AND— RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER Extremates the Microbes and drives them out of the system, and when that is done you cannot have an ache or pain. No matter what the disease, whether a simple case of Malaria Fever or a combination of diseases, we cure them all at the same time, as we treat all diseases constitutionally.

Asthma, Consumption, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Disease, Chills and Fever, Female Troubles, in all its forms, and, in fact, every Disease known to the Human System. Beware of Fraudulent Imitations. See that our Trade-Mark (same as above) appears on each jar. Send for book "History of the Microbe Killer," given away by LEE, JOHNSON & CO., DRUGGISTS, RALEIGH, N.
