There are several new things now under the sun at Swindell's great dry goods and clothing emporium, on the corner of Wilmington and Martin streets. A visit to this great modern mammoth establishment will show you many things that are new, and that have for the first time made their ap- pearance this season, and are to be found only at Swindell's, where busi- ness is done in all the numerous depart- ments of one of the largest dry goods and clothing establishments in the South, on strictly modernized principles in all branches. A visit to this vast concern, where you will see the pro- ducts, not only of the home industries, but products from almost all climes of the globe, will not fail in pleasing you, and ingiving you a clearer knowl- edge of the enterprise and push of some concerns in your own State. All things for ladies or gentlemen's wear, in all the grades, and prices are kept here, and the attention of the world is directed to the fact that here you find the lowest prices ever placed on articles of real merit and value at SWINDELL's. Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family	<ul> <li>Iast night's figures; spot lots closed ½c better; No. 1 mixed 46; No. 2. do. 44½.</li> <li>PORK-Closed dull ; mess 11.25@12.00.</li> <li>LARD - Closed quiet; November 6.44@6.45;</li> <li>December 6.54@6.55.</li> <li>SUGAR- Raw firm 5.94@6.00 for 96-test;</li> <li>centrifugal 5%@5½ for fair refinery; refined steady; cut loaf and crushed 7.06; powdered 6%; granulated 6%@6.69; extra C 5.81@</li> <li>5.85%; golden 5½@5.69.</li> <li>COFFEE- Closed steady; fair Rio cargoes 20½; futures firm and 5 to 10 points higher; Rio or Santos, No. 7. 	Messrs. Sharp & Perkins have author- ized Mr. Johnson to sell the handsome display they are making here, for the benefit of the Soldiers' Home fund, and this will be done this week. Watch for the sale and procure a delightful pantry supply. Weather Report. Raleigh yesterday: Maximum temper- ature 79; minimum temperature 62; rain- fall, 0.00 inches. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicin- ity to-day: Cloudless, cooler weather, with westerly winds; light frost probable to-night. WASHINGTEN, D. C., Oct. 13.—Fore- east for Virginia: Fair weather; wester- ly winds; cooler. For North Carolina: Fair weather; northerly winds; cooler in eastern, sta- tionary temperature, in extreme western portion. Almost a Fire. The northeast corner of the grand stand in the fair grounds caught fire yesterday and caused some commotion, but no damage was done. The fire orig- inated, it is thought from a cigar stump, but it was extinguished with a bucket ful or two of water. Married. Mr. M. F. Ruth, of Raleigh, and Miss Hattie Cauble, of Lincolnton, were mar- ried at the latter place yesterday morn- ing at 10 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. C. E. Gower. They arrived in this city last night, accompa- nied by Rev. Mr. Gower and Miss Lucy Cauble, sister of the bride. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. Read our local in regard to Siik, Ses Plush Overgarments.
