W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO. A BIG ORGANIZATION. And a Great Convention of Much Significance—Shall Raleigh Retain the Main Office?

An Inter-State Immigration Convention will assemble at Asheville, N. C., on the 17th of December next. Full conference between the Governors and Commissioners of Immigration of all the Southern States have led to this determination. The occasion will be an important one, considering the magnitude of the interests to be considered and the objects to be obtained. These interests and these objects include everything that pertains to the advancement of the South; knowledge of its resources is to be imparted or interchanged, inducements to the investment of capital made clear, invitation to the increase of population extended, and information upon all those questions which interest the investor and the immigrant given with candid and liberal accuracy.

Mr. J. T. Patrick is secretary of the association, and for two years past his office has been located in Raleigh. The meeting at Asheville will be the time for the regular election of officers, and among those prominently mentioned for President is Mr. B. F. Chilton, one of the most prominent men of Texas. It has been hinted to the CHRONICLE that if Mr. Chilton is elected, he proposes to make his headquarters at Raleigh, and begin in earnest to develop the immense resources of the South through the influence and aid of the association.

The location of the office here with Mr. Patrick as secretary, was secured by the chamber of commerce, and while Raleigh may not have felt any special benefit from this move, it has greatly aided the state at large. Mr. Patrick, as State Immigration Agent and as Secretary of this association has done some telling work for the State.

A fact or two will show this. The increase of population in North Carolina during the last decade was 282,000 in round numbers. In Virginia the increase was about 116,000, and yet Virginia, or some parts of it, seems to have made greater strides in development and improvement than North Carolina. North Carolina's increase is due to a considerable extent to the incoming of people from other States, and this incoming is largely due to the work of Mr. Patrick.

Now put these facts together. Then take the fact that there is a great movement of people and capital southward. Then recognize the fact that many of these people will seek information and guidance from the main office of the Inter-State Immigration association, and some notion may be formed as to the importance of an effort on the part of Raleigh to keep the office with its President and Secretary here.

THE LAST CALL.

Are the people of Raleigh going to ignore the appeal for Willie Davis, a native of Chapel Hill, who is now under sentence of death in Texas, and whose life may be saved for $125,000.

Is it possible, oh people of Raleigh, that you are growing callous to the appeals of the unfortunate and distressed? The CHRONICLE cannot make individual appeals. It cannot make anybody give anything, and wouldn't if it could.

Responses to such appeals must be voluntary and spontaneous. But it has put the case before the people. Only two responses have been received so far. Is this to be all—all that shall go from the city of Raleigh?

The CHRONICLE hopes not. It pleads earnestly for responses to the call. But this is the last appeal we shall make; and may you rest easy over the result.

The following are the subscriptions: STATE CHRONICLE $5.00 MR. WALTER JEFFREYS 3.00

Now listen. The Durham Globe has secured $94.75. It has suggested that the matter be mentioned by the ministers of the various churches there in their pulpits to day. The CHRONICLE has no suggestion to make; but it would be glad of any movement here in aid of the unfortunate DAVIS.

FOR SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE.

(Special Cor. of State Chronicle.) We see the names of several eminent qualified gentlemen mentioned as candidates for the Speakership of the next House of Representatives. But it seems to us the man for the occasion has not yet been named. He should be fully identified with the new movement for financial reform and for the rights of the people against grasping corporations.

He should be a man of strong individuality, with opinions in accord with the grand idea of relief to the agricultural and laboring classes, and the courage to maintain them. He should not be mere drift-wood landed safe in the harbor of Democracy by the recent ground swell. If so, the reform would go backward.

Let the people be heard and let us have a man who is peculiarly their representative with all the qualifications referred to. Let us have a farmer pure and simple, and let us recognize and show our appreciation of the grand work the farmers did for Democracy in the recent election. In looking over the list of members we do not see any who would make a better representative of that class than William T. Adams, President of the Farmers' Alliance of Graubville county, and we bespeak the careful consideration of his name by all the members elect.

FARMER.

A GENEROUS EXAMPLE.

Catawba Is Willing To Send The Banner To Mecklenburg But Will Expect To Get It Back In 1892.

(Newton Enterprise.) We take off our hat to Mecklenburg. Her Democratic majority for the Judicial ticket was on official count 2,380. This beats Catawba by a considerable majority and entitles her to the banner. We are in favor of shipping it right off. It is true that the Republicans did not try much this year and the late election was not a very good test of party strength, and furthermore there is some force in the argument of some that only Presidential years are counted in contesting for the banner; but on one side of this much prized emblem of victory is inscribed, "Take it from us who can." It is a broad unrestricted challenge and we believe we should comply with it without delay. Let the banner go to Mecklenburg, the home of Vance, for the next two years, and we will work all the harder to get it back in 1892.

THE REVOLUTIONARY FORCES ROUTED BY PRESIDENT BOGROU WHO IS IN FULL POSSESSION.

(By United Press.) NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Herald's special from Tegucigalpa, says: The rebellion in Honduras, headed by General Sanchez, is practically ended. The revolutionary forces have been utterly routed by the army of president Bograu, and he is in full possession of the Capital City, with the exception of one barracks, where the remnant of the army is imprisoned. If any of the rebel leaders escape death, it will be through the clemency of President Bograu.

Bograu is now practically master of the situation, as he has Sanchez and his army surrounded in one of the barracks, which is now being bombarded by shell and shot.

Bograu has already taken many prisoners. The city is badly wrecked and the inhabitants are thoroughly terrorized. Barillas, of Guatemala, remained entirely neutral during the trouble.
