

RALEIGH IN BRIEF.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CAPITAL.

Short Items of News Gathered on the Fly by the Chronicle's Reporters.

Coal carts are kept busy nowadays as though a snappish winter were anticipated.

Business is lively despite the forbidding and threatening attitude of the weather.

The scheme for a town to be built at the Egypt coal mines is to be launched at an early day.

There is a prospect of having new opera chairs put in Metropolitan hall in the near future.

What about the side walk question. Does anybody know who is doing anything to bring it about?

Mr. W. H. J. Goodwin, of Swift Creek township, is critically ill. The CHRONICLE hopes soon to hear of his recovery.

It is stated that the old round house at the Raleigh and Gaston shops will be turned into an immense machine shop.

It is authentically stated that work is soon to begin on large additions to the Raleigh and Gaston railroad shops in this city.

Nearly all the seats in the Senate hall and Commons hall have been chosen and marked off by the members elect of the next legislature.

Curbing stone is being distributed along Martin street leading to the new Union depot site. The work of paving this street is to be pushed forward in a lively way.

The chamber of commerce has a very important engagement next Tuesday night. It is the time for the meeting which was postponed from last Tuesday night. Don't forget it.

The train from Weldon which is scheduled to arrive here at 4.15 p. m., has been arriving a little behind time recently on account of having to wait for boat connection at Norfolk.

"The last roses of summer" are now dispensing their beauty. That old familiar song is now very much in order. It is the especial delight of a certain popular young journalist in the city.

Phalanx Lodge, No. 34, Knights of Pythias, of this city have leased the hall over Julius Lewis & Co's store, and it is being fitted up in handsome style. Reception rooms and a library will be special features.

Commendations are due the board of aldermen for the purchasing of a street sweeping machine. Raleigh has the best paved streets in the State and when neatly swept they will be very pretty and imposing.

The fraternities and secret orders having lodges in Raleigh are on a tremendous local boom. There is never such interest in them as is now shown. The Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias are especially lively.

The box sheet for the Famous Thirteenth Regiment Band of New York will be opened at A. Williams & Co's bookstore to-morrow morning. Reserved seats will be $1.50; general admission $1.00; gallery 75c.

Durham is a hummer and no mistake. She made as much or more out of her chrysanthemum show for the Soldiers' Home as Raleigh made for the Hospital. Now the CHRONICLE would just like to know how the Raleighites feel about this?

The CHRONICLE was shown yesterday by the State librarian a handsome engraving of a Confederate monument erected on the battle field of Manassas, to commemorate the heroic deeds of North Carolina soldiers at the first and second battles of Manassas. He intends having it framed for the library.

The CHRONICLE hates to record the fact, but there are blessedly few young men in Raleigh who deserve any credit for such success as the chrysanthemum show had. It's a bothersome mystery to know where on earth they were or what in creation they could have been doing when such opportunities for a delightful evening were before them as the show presented.

The parties behind the projected scheme for the system of electric railway are the "mummet" set that ever got behind a scheme in Raleigh, and nothing definite can be squeezed out of them. But it was stated yesterday that a sale of the present horse car line with all the franchises had been made to an electric syndicate.

THE FLORAL SHOW.

Thanks to Those Who Rendered Valuable Assistance.

The ladies in charge of the chrysanthemum show, in aid of the hospital, desire to specially thank Mr. Frank Stronach for the use of the room in which it was held; Mr. Calvin Hawkins, president of the Raleigh electric light company, for the use of the electric lights and gas; Messrs. W. H. Hughes and A. P. C. Bryan, for the use of crockery; Mr. S. W. Hewin, for the use of tables and spoons; Mr. N. R. Young, for aid in decorating; the Governor's Guard, for the use of chairs; Mr. J. I. Thomson, for services as door-keeper. The ladies desire also to thank all who in any way contributed to the success of the affair.

The net receipts of the show are about $200. The rain Friday reduced them very materially. The attendance Friday evening was for this reason small, and the flowers sold at auction brought only a few dollars, whereas last year the auction realized $97.

Plates, dishes, etc., unclaimed can be obtained from Mrs. F. A. Olds, 114 S. Salisbury street.

Change of Date.

The date for the appearance here of the Thirteenth Regiment Band, of New York, has been changed from Thursday, November 20th, to Friday, November 21st.

It may be accepted as an absolute fact that the coming of this organization will be the greatest musical event in the history of Raleigh. Reserved seats on sale at A. Williams & Co's book store at $1.50. Box sheet will be open to-morrow.

Will Royal Germeteur will strengthen up the system and protect against Try it.

The Briggs regret to give him up—He said to the CHRONICLE: "There is no better man anywhere than him. John Briggs" The CHRONICLE's best wishes go with Mr. Massemore in his new home.

Mr. Frank Jones is very seriously ill at Vanderbilt Theological Seminary in Nashville, Tenn. Yesterday a telegram was received here apprising his people of his illness with the sad intelligence that there was but little hope of recovery. In response to the telegram Miss Dora Jones and Mr. Thad Jones, his brother and sister, left here last afternoon to attend his bedside.

Mr. Joseph Butler, who has for a long time served the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Co., as Foreman of the shops in this city has resigned to accept a position with the C. C. & A. R. R. Co., at Columbia, S. C., and left for that city yesterday. Mr. Butler is a most estimable citizen, and one of the finest machinists in this country, having learned his trade with the London and Northwestern Railway Company at their celebrated works at Crewe, England. While Raleigh regrets to lose such a citizen, she can but congratulate the friends in Columbia on such a valuable acquisition to its citizenship.

Weather Report.

North Carolina, light rain, preceded by fair on the coast; no change in temperature, except cooler in southeast portion; variable winds.

INNES' BAND COMING.

The Famous Thirteenth Regiment Band of New York on the 21st.

The press notices of the Thirteenth Regiment Band which appears here on the 21st, are enthusiastic with praise of the band's splendid musical achievements. It was in Shreveport, La., on the 4th and 5th, and the Caucasian of that city says:

The audience that assembled last evening at the opera house was one of the most refined and critical. Innes and his famous band won their laurels the night previous and their praise was spoken on all sides yesterday, and the increased audience last night proves that Shreveport will patronize art. In our humble opinion the Thirteenth Regiment Band, under the leadership of Mr. Innes, is superior to Gilmore's. Innes is much more affable and obliging—responding readily to the wishes of the people. His encores are always appreciated, being a relief, as light opera from grand opera, but both highly enjoyable. The overture was grand, the vocalists were in better voice than last night, possibly excepting Signor Battistini. Senora De Orsagan captivated her hearers. This little lady is a most charming artiste, dresses in exquisite taste, delightfully petite and vivacious, a wonderfully good actress, a voice pure, sweet and flexible, in fact, an artiste. Mr. Short's cornet solo was one of the many features. "Sea Shells" by Innes, was a gem. He is undoubtedly the greatest trombone soloist in this, or most probably any other country. Executing so perfectly as he does with a sliding instrument, it is beyond conjecture what miracle he would have performed had he chosen a valve instrument. The slide trombone is considered to be the most difficult of all band instruments. This excellent organization will be at the opera-house to-night for the last time positively. Their success is assured, and we doubt if a tardy will get seats, so do not procrastinate.

LOCAL COTTON REPORT.

Movement of the Staple in Raleigh for the Past Week.

The receipts of cotton in Raleigh for the past week were fairly good, though not so heavy as was expected. The slight decline in prices here in sympathy with the general decline in all the great marts, on account of the panic and feeling in financial circles, has caused a hold-up on the part of planters, and nearly all who are holding back their cotton in hopes of an advance in prices.

WHAT YOU CAN SEE

By Taking a Little Stroll Through Certain Parts of the Town.

About this season of the year Raleigh seems to afford a grand exposition of all the products of art and industry, and it doesn't cost anything to see it.

A Big Show at Woolcott's.

Yesterday a CHRONICLE man while strolling about looked in at the mammoth establishment of Woolcott and Son. That house looks as though old Santa Claus had been at work there all the year. There was never such a great and attractive display of pretty things for the little people, and on next Christmas morning all the good little boys and girls in Raleigh will get some of those pretty things. The big house is full of trim from cellar to garret, and any kind of a novelty that can be imagined can be found there. There are tea sets for little girls, ranging in prices from five cents to five dollars, and there are hobby horses and horns and guns for the boys at every price, and there are enough of them to give every boy and girl in the county one each. Besides these are the prettiest dolls, doll houses, doll pianos, pretty vases and in fact everything that little folks dream of when they dream of Christmas and Santa Claus. Messrs. Woolcott are going to make a large house for Santa Claus soon, and they are going to make it very beautiful with all sorts of pretty decorations.

Stronach's New Bakery and Grocery.

Ever since Messrs W. C. & A. B. Stronach opened their new bakery there has been an immense rush upon them for their splendid bread. Customers have crowded the immense bakery on Hargett street and their main grocery palace on Fayetteville street. The Messrs Stronach have put on several additional delivery wagons and yet they have some mighty hustling to do to fill orders as fast as they come in. People going to the two-story brick bakery on Hargett street fell into the habit of leaving orders there for a thousand and one other things, and as a matter of convenience and accommodation, the Messrs Stronach have taken the front part of the lower floor for a branch grocery and have filled it up with a stock of the finest groceries that can be had. Mr. Terrell is in charge of the branch house, and yesterday the CHRONICLE man saw him scratching his head in perplexity as to how he would manage to dispose of the many orders that were coming in. The establishment is very neat and inviting and lady housekeepers will find it an interesting place.

THE WORLD'S COMMERCE.

New York, November 15.—Messrs. Hubbard, Price & Company in their cotton circular to-night say: Cables from Liverpool and London this morning were more encouraging, the prominent house recently reported as embarrassed, having been assisted by a powerful syndicate; consols advanced, and cotton, after opening easy at two sixty-fourths decline, closed firm at last evening's prices. The market here evinced a disposition at the opening to advance, although November and short notices were pressed for sale, but the better feeling was soon arrested by heavy sales which speedily depressed prices.

Receipts at the ports to day were estimated at 42,000 bales, against 46,300 bales last week, and 42,902 bales last year.

The spot market closed steady at 9.5-8. Total sales in futures to-day 66,000 bales.

Futures closed firm and 1 to 6 points higher as follows:

Table with columns for City, Sale (Tons), Mkt (Firm/Weak), Ret, Ex.

In Liverpool to-day spot cotton closed steady; middling uplands 5.5-16.3; sales 7,000 bales.

Futures closed easy as follows:

Table with columns for Month, Price.

New York Money Market.

New York, Nov. 15—Money easy with call loans offerings at 5/16 per cent. No transactions recorded. Exchange closed fairly active and steady; posted rates 4.80/4.85; actual rates 4.75/4.80 for 60 days and 4.85 for demand. Governments closed steady; currency rates 113 bid; fours (coupons) 122; four-and-a-halves (coupons) 104.

Advices from London concerning the affairs of Baring Bros., acted as a damper on stock speculation here this morning, and caused a renewal of the apprehension which existed in the earlier days of the week when stocks were tumbling at a ruinous rate. This morning there was a rush to sell immediately on the opening and selling increased as the morning wore on. The dealings were on an enormous scale and were accompanied with the wildest excitement, the scenes of panicky days being re-enacted on the floor of the exchange. The selling movement was especially marked in Atchison. The statement that the Baring Bros. would immediately commence liquidating seemed to terrify holders of speculatives and they began selling without regard to loss or gain. Lackawanna, Jersey Central, Northwest, Rock Island and Atchison were the principal features of the first hour of business. The first named was the weakest and at 11 o'clock was down 8 per cent. The decline in the rest of the stocks at the time named ranged from 1-4 to 6 per cent. After eleven o'clock the advice from London was of a more favorable nature. They put a somewhat better face on matters, but this seemed to have no influence in stopping the selling which continued with little or no interruption to the close.

At 11:30 the lowest prices of the morning and the lowest since Tuesday were made. Canadian Southern was the feature dropping 4 1/2 per cent. 42. On the appearance of the bank statement which proved to be a pleasant surprise, showing as it did an increase in the reserves of $1,711,195. There was a steadier feeling and some covering. Many of the leading stocks recovered sharply. The market closed excited and unsettled. Sales 434,764 shares.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. John Y. MacRae druggist.
