TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY IN FULL BLAST.

Opening Speech Made by Dr. Geo. W. Sanderlin.

NOTES FROM THE ASSEMBLY.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Tucker Give a Delightful Sail to Friends.

(Special to the Chronicle.)

MORHEAD CITY, N. C., June 18.—The Assembly Hall was absolutely filled today at 10:30 A. M. to witness the opening exercises of this, the eighth annual session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly.

The exercises were begun by singing that patriotic song, "My Country," with charming Miss Homesley at the piano. Prayer by Dr. Skinner followed, then another song, "Sun of My Soul." The newly elected President, Prof. Charles D. McIver, then introduced the most entertaining speaker in North Carolina, Hon. Geo. W. Sanderlin, whose duty it was to make the opening address. The manner in which he performed that duty was manifested in the faces of his audience. For one hour and twenty minutes this most entertaining of speakers delighted his audience with a speech which, for wit, humor and strength has never been surpassed at Morhead City. It was one of his greatest efforts. His subject was "The Importance and Dignity Due the Teacher for his High Vocation." After a delightful introduction, the speaker declared that there were four classes to whom special honor was due: (1) Ministers of the Gospel; (2) Women; (3) Editors; (4) Teachers. The teacher is worthy of all honor from the very nature and scope of his calling. He has to deal with the immortal mind. What is mind? No matter. What is matter? Never mind. Dr. Arnold, the greatest teacher, used to take off his hat when he came into the presence of one of his pupils. "He," said he, "I know not but that I am talking to the future rulers of the country." The influence of the teacher on the mind of his pupils never ceases in its effects. Teaching requires (1) patience. I make a special plea for the plodder. The teacher's vocation calls for (2) perseverance; (3) discrimination; judgment is also necessary. In every school, each pupil will come under one of the following heads: (1) The plodding ox, (2) the stubborn mule, (3) the fiery horse, or (4) the soaring eagle. The speaker then touched upon Webster's blue-back spelling book, and in his wittiest style gave some illustrations of the manner in which a spelling lesson was conducted years ago. His address was full of facts, but was not at all dry. It was acknowledged by all to be the most entertaining speech ever delivered here.

After the address, the audience adjourned to the dining room where a splendid dinner was waiting. At three o'clock a free sail was given by all the boatmen to the entire Assembly. The day has been delightful with no rain, but a steady breeze.

At four o'clock a sail was given by Mr. and Mrs. Willie Tucker, composed of the following ladies and gentlemen: Mr. and Mrs. John Burwell, Mr. and Mrs. Omega Foster, Dr. Fab. Haywood, Miss Mamie Meadows and L. J. Battle, Miss Lillian Holmesley and Frank M. Harper, Miss Emma Katie Jones and A. B. Andrews, Jr., Miss Mamie Allen and E. P. Mangum, Mrs. Ellis and Dr. Skinner, J. Meyers and H. Rumbough.

Among the married ladies present, Mrs. Willie Tucker is conspicuous for her charming appearance and delightful manners. There were about fifty persons in the surf this afternoon. More boys are needed here badly. Can't some of the Raleigh boys come to the rescue?

At nine o'clock a most delightful morning sail was given by Miss Fannie Holt, of Graham. Two boats were chartered and we had music and sailing, with the light of the moon.

There are at least one thousand guests here now, but the Foster Bros. will no doubt prove equal to the task of assigning all to rooms. We were glad to grasp the hand of Dr. Thos. Hume of Chapel Hill, and also that of Henry King of Raleigh. All of us are having a royal good time and are anxiously awaiting the morrow when Talmage's appearance is expected.

It is quite gratifying to be able to announce that not a single warbler has so far ventured to start up "Annie Rooney." We will endeavor to give a full account of to-morrow's proceeding.

GRAND CHANCELLOR

JNO. M. SHERWOOD.

A Raleigh Boy Honored With the Highest Pythian Office

AT THE STATE GRAND LODGE.

A Member of Phalanx Lodge, No. 34 Elected by a Flattering Vote, and His Friends are Glad.

A Raleigh boy was again honored yesterday.

At the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, held in Charlotte, Mr. J. M. Sherwood, Past Chancellor of Phalanx Lodge, No. 34, of this city, was elected by a flattering vote Grand Chancellor of the order in North Carolina.

This was good news to his host of friends in Raleigh and all over the State, and the news, which was telegraphed here yesterday afternoon, soon spread over the city.

Mr. Sherwood is the efficient and popular Assistant Treasurer of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company, and Treasurer of the Durham and Northern, and is known and esteemed by every one, and everywhere.

He is an enthusiastic Pythian, and considering the great increase in numbers of that order in the State for the past three years, together with the energy and enthusiasm of the new Grand Chancellor, it is safe to say that the coming year will be one of great success for the Order in the State.

In the last report of Grand Chancellor Cook we find the Order in a flourishing condition, having over 1,500 members, a gain of 33 1/2 per cent. in the last year.

The Chronicle is happy in this recognition of the valuable services of Past Chancellor Sherwood to the Order, and extends its congratulations.

BLOOD AND THUNDER

AMONG THE TURKS.

Mihran, an Italian Robber, Monarch of all the Surveys.

HE RULES HIS BAND,

Which Demands Toll From all Turks Upon the Penalty of Death and Destruction.

(By Cable.)

LONDON, June 18.—A dispatch from Constantinople gives an account of the increase of brigandage in various parts of the Turkish Empire. In the Turkish province known as Old Serbia, a brigand chief named Mihran has established himself in the mountains with about 80 followers and lives in princely fashion on black-mail exacted from the people of the villages. They are glad to pay the exemption and protection of their property from injury and for that purpose each householder pays Mihran a sum in proportion to his possessions. Christians being obliged to pay about double the amount exacted from the Turks. Mihran is said to be a renegade Italian, and he holds his followers in complete discipline. One of them having been shown to have plundered a peasant who had punctually paid black-mail, Mihran had the offenders ears and hands cut off, and sent them in a bag to the injured peasant.

Mihran exacts from every one the honors due to the bank of Passa. The Turkish authorities made a demonstration of attacking the brigands about three months ago, but withdrew their forces without having done anything of consequence. Mihran remained in seclusion for a few days, and then suddenly descended on the villages and collected all the amounts that the peasantry had agreed to pay.

The most startling reports come from Algeria of the ravages of the locusts. In many districts not a sprig remains on a farm, and the inhabitants are in a famishing condition. Their only resort for food is the locusts themselves, of which vast quantities are being consumed. The French Colonial authorities are taking steps to stay the plague as much as possible by the use of scientific means.

A Shanghai dispatch says that the number of executions in that vicinity has not been paralleled since the Taiping rebellion. All the more active of the mob leaders have fallen into the hands of the government troops, and been condemned to death. One of the men who wrecked the French mission was condemned to be cut to pieces, and the sentence was duly carried out, the executioner having been bribed to make death as prompt and as painless as possible.

A GREAT DAY

IN MORGANTON.

Thos. W. Mason, Esq., Eloquent and Beautifully Pleads

FOR A DAVIS MONUMENT.

He is followed by Col. Thos. S. Kenan, who also Speaks of the Confederacy's Chief.

[Special to STATE CHRONICLE.]

MORGANTON, N. C., June 18.—The meeting of the veterans here to-day to raise funds for the Davis Monument was a glorious success, notwithstanding the fact that the farmers are busy in their harvest. The old soldiers turned out in force, and these with the citizens and fair women of Morganton, filled the large Burke county courthouse to overflowing to hear the addresses of Hon. Thomas W. Mason and Col. Thomas S. Kenan. The orators were introduced by Associate Justice Avery, and for two hours the large audience listened with rapt attention to the finest addresses ever delivered in this historic town. Mr. Mason's eulogy on Jefferson Davis was superb. Elegant and chaste in diction, it will rank with the best productions of the age. He came yesterday a stranger and to-day his praise is on every tongue. His tribute to Southern women was a gem.

Like their sisters of Carthage we wove their fair tresses into chords to speed the arrow at the breast of Rome. They too changed their rich robes into silken banners under which the soldiers marched against the invader while they committed their fair hands to labor and their pure souls to prayer.

Colonel Kenan was among old friends and comrades, and was strikingly happy and appropriate in his remarks to the old veterans. A nice contribution was given to the Davis Monument Fund, after which the old soldiers partook of an elegant dinner prepared for the occasion.

Senator Avery and Mrs. Lillian Burr were married last night and Dr. Ross and Miss Kate Chambers the night before. All off on bridal tour.

Tacoma Collector to be Removed.

(By The United Press.)

TACOMA, Wash., June 18.—Private advices received in Tacoma to-day from Washington state that Collector C. M. Bradshaw, of the Port Townsend custom district, will be removed very soon. Formal charges were filed against him at the Treasury Department some time ago alleging incompetency, neglect of duty and connivance at certain irregularities, notably, smuggling of opium, and bringing into this country of contraband Chinamen by means of false certificates from Victoria.
