CLEVELAND!

THE DEMOCRATIC LEADER UNDOUBTEDLY ELECTED PRESIDENT.

NEW YORK REDEEMED.

New Jersey and Connecticut Remain in the Democratic Column - The Solid South Still Solid - Tom Watson and Jerry Simpson Defeated.

By Telegraph to the State Chronicle.

New York (3:15 a. m.)—From the best information obtainable the following table gives the result in the various states. Later returns may of course change the result:

Democratic—Alabama eleven, Arkansas eight, Delaware three, Colorado six, Florida four, Georgia thirty, Illinois twenty-four, Indiana fifteen, Kentucky thirteen, Louisiana eight, Maryland eight, Mississippi nine, Michigan six, Missouri seventeen, New Jersey ten, New York thirty-six, North Carolina eleven, South Carolina nine, Tennessee twelve, Texas fifteen, Virginia twelve, Total, 250.

Republican—California nine, Idaho three, Iowa thirteen, Kansas ten, Maine six, Massachusetts fifteen, Michigan eight, Minnesota nine, Nebraska eight, New Hampshire four, Ohio twenty-three, Pennsylvania thirty-two, Rhode Island four, Vermont four. Total, one hundred and forty-eight.

For Weaver—Nevada three, Colorado two, Total, seven.

Doubtful—Oregon four, Montana three, North Dakota three, South Dakota four, Washington four, Wisconsin twelve, West Virginia six, Wyoming three. Total, thirty-nine.

The Next Hour.

New York, Nov. 9.—At half past one this morning the reports so far received indicate that the democratic majority in the next national congress will be in New York the republicans appear to have elected by ten of the thirty-four congressmen, a democratic gain of 1. New Jersey and Connecticut have not apparently changed their present division of representation, except that the democrats in New Jersey have gained the additional member accorded by the new apportionment. The South has rolled up almost solid delegations from every state. Alabama has an additional senator in the fifty-third congress and it is a democratic gain; also Arkansas. Georgia gains a new member and recovers the district now represented by Watson (farmer's alliance member). The republicans are one in Mississippi, one in Ohio and one in Oregon. Although the republicans carried Rhode Island on the presidential ticket, the reports are that no selection for congress was made, necessitating another election. Owing to the absence of reports from the central and western states and the uncertainty as to the results in congressional districts, it is impossible to even attempt to approximate the total representation of the several parties in the next house, but it will be democratic.

Democratic national headquarters, New York, Nov. 9, 3 a. m.—Mr. Don M. Dickinson, chairman of the democratic campaign committee, said: "We do not desire to boast of the result. The grand result speaks for itself. It shows that the producers of the country have determined that they shall no longer be burdened by excessive taxation for the benefit of great monopolies, and are determined to uphold local rights against the abuse of centralized power. In Michigan we have achieved a great success in electing a governor and several congressmen. The uprising in the northwest is the most significant sign of the times, but in view of the splendid performance of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, there is nothing sectional about the democratic success. The present political and economic principles everywhere."

Carter Concedes New York.

New York, Nov. 9.—At midnight Chairman Carter, of the republican committee, said: "The democratic majorities in New York city and Brooklyn will be difficult to overcome by republican gains throughout the state. Our democratic friends seem to have under the various parts of the state. New York and New Jersey are the present ballot law. Fortunately the national committee relied upon three distinct combinations and two of them yet remain intact, even if the loss of New York be conceded."

Chairman Harrity's Statement.

At 11:45 o'clock Chairman Harrity gave out the following statement: "There is no doubt of the election of Cleveland and Stevenson by the popular vote, while the defeat of Harrison is certain. New York has given a magnificent plurality for Cleveland, and surpasses all her previous records. There is no break in the south. Republican claims for Delaware are unfounded. In Connecticut the returns show a steady advance over the figures of 1888, when we carried the state. Indiana is undoubtedly ours. The most glorious results appear to be in Illinois, where, from the returns, it would seem that for the first time in its history the state has gone democratic. We have won the most glorious and decisive victory in the history of campaign."

Governor Flower, at 11:30 o'clock, claimed 40,000 majority in New York state, based, he said, on most careful analysis of the returns.

At Democratic Headquarters.

New York, Nov. 8.—The democratic national committee had made elaborate arrangements for receiving the returns at headquarters, 139 Fifth Avenue. Committee man Smalley's room on the third floor was utilized as a telegraph office. Six wires were run in and as many operators were ready for action. A big sheet was hung outside the building on which to throw the returns. The front doors were closed and no one was admitted except by the rear and with a ticket.

Chairman Harrity, ex-secretary Whitney, secretary of committee, Sherin and committee man Smalley gathered in the telegraph room early and the first news by telling stories during the feverish wait for tidings.

The wires began to tick at 6:30 o'clock. The first news was: "Seventy-two election districts in New York city out of 1,137 give Cleveland 4,750; Harrison 5,633." Then the returns by bunches of election districts in New York city began pour in. They indicated at first that, in the same ratio, Cleveland's majority would be about 60,000. Then the democratic majority ran along steadily at about one-fifth the entire vote, indicating a vote of about the same as last election, when it got up to 390 election districts, giving Cleveland 45,647 and Harrison 31,158. Chairman Harrity remarked: "That looks better. We are all marked." The returns were not all given yet.

When it was announced that 520 districts had given Cleveland 73,064 and Harrison 41,470, there was unqualified satisfaction expressed. The first news from outside of New York city was from Brooklyn, ten districts of which gave Cleveland 1,736, Harrison 895.

At 7:15 the national committee had further cause for satisfaction by the statement, "Eighteen districts outside of New York city give Cleveland 1,669; Harrison, 2,782."

The reason for congratulation was that it indicated a light vote up the State, giving cause for satisfaction by the statement, "Eighteen districts outside of New York city give Cleveland 1,669; Harrison, 2,782."

The famous sergeant-at-arms, Jimmie O'Neil, created the furor of the party part of the evening by bursting into the committee room and exclaiming: "Gentlemen down here I live, the fortieth election district of the second assembly gave Cleveland 988 and Harrison 1,212. The claim diggers have gone in their work. That is the house of Governor Flower's stand in the Fire Island matter," was the explanation given. This slight set back was off set by the next news, that of Queens county, which gave a democratic gain of over nine hundred.

Slight surprise was expressed at the first tidings from Buffalo, Lieutenant-Governor Sheehan's home, forty districts out of one hundred and twenty-eight, giving Cleveland 7,787; Harrison 8,719. This gain was more than counter balanced by the word that Chautauque county gave Harrison only five thousand five hundred majority, a falling off of 300 since 1888. There was considerable cheering when it was announced that Weaver had carried Oregon, and there was more cheering still when a telegram was received that the state of Washington probably went for Cleveland. This was followed by the returns from 800 city election districts, showing a democratic gain of 58,988, which created great excitement. The returns from the interior of the state came pouring in, showing a republican loss in nearly every case. Chairman Harrity was overwhelmed with congratulations, but he would not commit himself. "It looks very much like a republican slaughter," he said, "but it is too early in the game yet to shout."

Much amusement was caused by the return from Gravesend, where John J. McKane is supreme showing Cleveland 2,967; Harrison 290. As the returns came in to democratic national headquarters, they were duplicated by special wire to Mr. Cleveland at his house on 51st street.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.—The voting in this state to-day was for presidential electors, 13 congressmen, governor and other state officers, and a legislature which will select a successor to David Turpie, democrat, in the United States senate.

In Indiana the republicans conceded the loss of President Harrison's home county by 800, a gain of 400 for the democrats. Democrats claim the county by 1,700 plurality.

Indiana republicans claim the state by 10,000; populists claim a vote of 40,000 at 11 p. m.

Twelve precincts in Indiana: Harrison 1,291; Cleveland 945; same precincts in '90 gave Tinsler 1,031; Matthews 880; net republican gain 185.

The World bulletin says chairman of democratic state committee says Cleveland carried Indiana. No returns received yet from that state.

Sixteen precincts in Indiana: Harrison 1,571; Cleveland 1,304.

At 11 o'clock p. m. the democratic chairman of Indiana claims the state for Cleveland by 12,000.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat concedes that the democrats by 9,000 to 10,000 plurality.

In Indiana seventy precincts give Harrison 7,349; Cleveland 6,236; net republican gain over 300 of 474.

One hundred and twenty Indiana precincts give Harrison 12,295; Cleveland 11,306. Net republican gain over 300, 1,015.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 8.—In this state to-day the voting was for presidential electors, eleven congressmen, secretary of state and minor state officers.

11 p. m.—Returns from Iowa come in slowly; and show small republican gain over 88.

The State Register, Clarkson's paper, claims Iowa for republican by plurality of 10,000.

In Iowa 107 precincts give Harrison 13,737; Cleveland 11,706; Bidwell 321; Weaver 740.

At 1:30 a. m. the Des Moines Register and Leader both say it is impossible to tell how Iowa has gone; returns insufficient to justify an estimate.

ELIAS CARR!

CHOSEN GOVERNOR OF THE OLD NORTH STATE BY THE VOTES OF DEMOCRATS.

Returns from Many Counties Show Democratic Gains—Wake County Still for Democracy With a Small Majority.

Wake County.

The following precincts in Wake county give democratic majorities:

Raleigh, first ward, 390; second ward, 387; third ward, 185; fourth ward, 2, fifth ward, 238; outside ward, 149; Wilder's Grove, 26; Millfield, 4; Forestville, 145; Cary, 1; Hilliard's school house, 21; Robertson's store, 14.

The following gives the republican majority:

Raleigh, Outside East, 35; Buckhorn, 30; Harris' Store, 77; Neuse, 25; St. Mary's, 93; Edwards Store, 75; Roleville, 101; Middle Creek, 63.

Rutherford.

This town is democratic by 250 majority.

Salisbury.

The democrats carry Salisbury by 613 majority, a gain of 300.

McDonell.

Marion—McDonell county gives not less than 150 majority for the democratic ticket. The democratic representative is elected.

Marion, N. C.—McDonell county gives not less than 150 majority for the democratic ticket. Democratic representative elected.

Gulford.

Greensboro.—The democratic ticket of Guilford county is elected by 250 to 350 majority.

Greensboro, N. C.—Entire democratic ticket of Guilford county elected by 250 to 350 majority.

Surry.

Mount Airy.—This township gives democratic over majority. The indications are that Surry is democratic by 300 majority.

New Hanover.

Wilmington—Mecklenburg county, including the city of Charlotte, gives Cleveland 9,100 majority, a gain of 1,500. New Hanover county, including the city of Wilmington, gives Cleveland 7,500 majority, a gain of 1,736. S. B. Alexander, democrat, is re-elected to congress from the sixth district by 10,000 majority over Weaver, populist.

Wilmington.—Carr's majority is over 1,000 and Cleveland's 977.

Mecklenburg.

Charlotte—Cleveland's majority in Mecklenburg is 1900 and probably more.

Lenoir.

Kinston—Woodward's majority is 225.

Perquimans.

Hertford, N. C.—Perquimans county for Harrison 390; Furches 300; Parker, third party, elected to legislature.

Northampton.

Jackson, N. C.—From official and unofficial returns Northampton has gone democratic for judicial, legislative and county officers.

Person.

Person gone republican by about 100 majority.

Johnston.

Smithfield, Nov. 8.—In Johnston county there is a democratic gain of 937.

Selma—Cleveland gains 128 at this place.

Wilson's Mills.—The official vote at this place is as follows: Carr and balance of state ticket, 49 majority; Bunn, 29 majority; Cleveland electors, 19 majority; Post, democrat, for senate, over Fuller, third party, for sheriff, over Creech, third party, 25 majority.

CONNECTICUT.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 8.—The elections in Connecticut were for presidential electors, four congressmen, governor and other state officers, and a legislature which will select a United States senator in place of Joseph B. Hawley.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 8.—Eight towns in Connecticut give democratic gain of 40 on president, 75 on governor and a gain of 3 in legislature.

New York, Nov. 8.—The Commercial Advertiser claims Harrison has carried Connecticut by a good plurality.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 8.—Seventeen towns in Connecticut give democratic gain of 2,384. Cleveland 2,127, democratic gain of 116.

New Haven—Twenty nine towns give a democratic gain of 53 for the state ticket.

In Connecticut 45 towns give democratic net gain on vote for governor over 88 of 95 democratic gain on representatives in legislature.

Sixty-two towns in Connecticut give a republican gain on the governor's vote of '91. Sixty-three towns show a democratic gain in the legislature of four.

At 11 o'clock democrats claim Connecticut for Cleveland by 1,000. No election of state officers by people. Legislature republican.

Bridgeport, Conn., has gone democratic by 500; four years ago Cleveland's majority was 629.

Hartford, Conn.—31 towns: Harrison 4,570; Cleveland 4,378, democratic gain of 211.

In Connecticut fifty-three towns give Harrison 11,192; Cleveland 11,648. Democratic gain 953.

The Sun bulletin claims at 11 p. m. that Cleveland has carried Connecticut by 3,000.

101 Connecticut towns: Harrison 31,713; Cleveland 31,077; democratic gain of 1,472.

Six hundred and ninety-four majority for Cleveland in Hartford, Connecticut, a democratic gain of 377.

11 p. m.—Cleveland men claim the state by a plurality of 1000.

Cleveland's plurality in Connecticut at 12:30 p. m. is estimated at 2,900.

DELAWARE.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 8.—The voting in this state to-day was for presidential electors, eight congressmen, governor and other state officers, and a legislature which will choose a United States Senator in place of Geo. Gray.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 8.—Delaware has probably gone republican.

Chairman Delaware republican committee, says: "Democrats concede Sussex county to republicans, 15 districts in city give gains for Cleveland of 243."

In Wilmington, Del., only five districts in the city were heard from and they indicate a small republican loss; the city will probably go democratic. No returns from any of the counties have yet been received.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 9.—(2 a. m.) It is now known that Wilmington has gone democratic by 47 majority. Democrats estimate their majority in the state at 1,000. This insures the election of a democratic legislature, which will return George Gray to the United States senate. If the case, democracy, is re-elected to congress.

FLORIDA.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 8.—In this state to-day the voting was on presidential electors and two congressmen.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 8.—The democratic executive committee says the state will give 15,000 democratic majority, a democratic gain of 4,000 or 5,000 over vote of 1888.

Jacksonville's state democratic executive committee says Cleveland's majority in this state is 25,000 to 30,000, both congressional districts democratic.

Indications at 10 p. m. are that Florida's solidly democratic vote has not been disturbed by the people's party, but that it will be lighter than at the state election in October. Two democratic senators have been returned to the state legislature and all the democratic electors, there being no republican opposition. Stephen R. Mallory, democrat, is re-elected to congress in the first district and C. M. Cooper, the democratic nominee, is elected over Austin S. Mann, third party, in the second district.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 8.—The election in Louisiana to-day was on presidential electors and six congressmen.

The vote in Louisiana was light. Cleveland's majority in state 49,000.

MAINE.

BANGOR, Maine, Nov. 8.—Maine electors, senators and state officers in September and the voting to-day was for presidential electors only.

Maine has gone republican by about 14,000 plurality.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 8.—Maryland voters for presidential electors and six congressmen.

There was only one district in doubt in Maryland, the sixth district, formerly represented by McComas, secretary of the republican national committee, where Wellington, republican, contested the election against McKaig, democrat, sitting member. The district was carried last election by McKaig by less than 200 in a total vote of nearly 34,000. Latest returns show that he has carried it against McKaig by 200, has gained largely in Garrett county, and is re-elected by an increased majority.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 8.—The voting in Massachusetts to-day was for presidential electors, thirteen congressmen, governor and other state officers, and a legislature which will select a successor to United States Senator H. L. Dawes.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 8.—At 8:30 p. m. the returns of only ten towns in Massachusetts were in. They gave Harrison 2,381, Cleveland 1,543, Bidwell 65. Cleveland's plurality is 838. This shows a democratic gain of 303.

Sixty towns in Massachusetts give Cleveland 9,775; Harrison 13,244, a net democratic gain of 655.

In Massachusetts eighty towns give Cleveland 14,754; Harrison 19,707; net democratic gain over 99 of 605, republican over 91 of 410.

Boston, Nov. 8.—The weather throughout New England was perfect and the vote enormous. In Massachusetts it is safe to say the vote is the largest ever cast. Reports from New Hampshire and Connecticut also indicate a large vote. The result will be slow returns. In this city returns are coming in slowly. The first twenty-two precincts of Boston show a net gain for Halle, republican, over Allen, republican, last year of 959. Russell's net gain over his own vote last year in the same precincts is 632. This shows a net republican gain of twenty-four.

One hundred towns: Cleveland 19,910; Harrison 25,611; democratic gain over 99 of 605, republican over 91 of 410.

Gov. Russell telegraphs that he is holding last year's plurality in Massachusetts. Boston gives him 14,000 plurality.

In Massachusetts 130 towns give Cleveland 21,906; Harrison 32,363; Halle 32,460; Russell 22,297. Compared with four years ago net democratic gain of 1,314; compared with '91, net republican gain of 1,072.

One hundred and fifty Massachusetts towns give Cleveland 29,036; Harrison 39,273; Halle 35,929; Russell 29,304.

VERMONT.

WATERBURY, Vt., Nov. 8.—The voting in this state to-day was for presidential electors, four congressmen, governor and other state officers, and a legislature which will select a United States senator in place of Joseph B. Hawley.

Wilmington, Vt., Nov. 8.—Eight towns in Vermont give democratic gain of 40 on president, 75 on governor and a gain of 3 in legislature.

New York, Nov. 8.—The Commercial Advertiser claims Harrison has carried Connecticut by a good plurality.

Sixty-two towns in Connecticut give a republican gain on the governor's vote of '91. Sixty-three towns show a democratic gain in the legislature of four.

At 11 o'clock democrats claim Connecticut for Cleveland by 1,000. No election of state officers by people. Legislature republican.

Bridgeport, Conn., has gone democratic by 500; four years ago Cleveland's majority was 629.

Hartford, Conn.—31 towns: Harrison 4,570; Cleveland 4,378, democratic gain of 211.

In Connecticut fifty-three towns give Harrison 11,192; Cleveland 11,648. Democratic gain 953.

The Sun bulletin claims at 11 p. m. that Cleveland has carried Connecticut by 3,000.

101 Connecticut towns: Harrison 31,713; Cleveland 31,077; democratic gain of 1,472.

Six hundred and ninety-four majority for Cleveland in Hartford, Connecticut, a democratic gain of 377.

11 p. m.—Cleveland men claim the state by a plurality of 1000.

Cleveland's plurality in Connecticut at 12:30 p. m. is estimated at 2,900.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The voting in Illinois to-day was for presidential electors, 22 congressmen, governor and other state officers and a legislature. A vote was also taken on giving the legislature the power to propose amendments to the constitution. The people also voted on the question of electing United States senators by a direct vote and on requiring an educational qualification for voters.

In Chicago 254 precincts give Fifer, republican for governor 33,522; Alford, democrat, 48,455.

Two hundred and ninety-two precincts in Chicago give Cleveland 50,541; Harrison 34,547.
