John L. With a Knife.
HE COMES NEAR HAVING A ROW AT GREENSBORO.

In His Usual State of Inebriety He Abuses People at the Station and Comes Near Having a Duel With Knives With a Young Man From Haw River.

GREENSBORO, N. C., April 11.—(Special).—While the north-bound train was standing at the depot today John L. Sullivan was discovered in the second class car, in his usual condition of drunken stupor. A crowd collected, and the big brute began to abuse the crowd, calling them damned Tar-heads. A young man from Haw River, N. C., still further angered the pugilist by referring to Corbett. This directed the abuse to the young man, who drew a knife and threatened to disembowel Sullivan. This made the latter furious, and he rushed back into the first class car and procured himself a knife and would have gotten into a fight with the Tar-head but for the presence of a policeman.

Yesterday in the Senate.
 By Southern Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—SENATE.—The Democrats succeeded in forcing the executive session this morning in the face of the combined Republican opposition. As soon as yesterday's journal was read, a motion to proceed to executive business was made by Mr. Gorman and was antagonized by Mr. Hoar. A vote was taken by yeas and nays, and the motion was carried 39 to 16 a strict party vote, Mr. Peffer voting with the Democrats.

The journal of yesterday having been read, the Vice President stated that the business before the Senate was the resolution for the admission of the three Senators appointed by the Governors of Montana and Washington. Mr. Gorman thereupon moved to proceed to the consideration of executive business.

Mr. Call claimed the floor in pursuance of notice of his intention to address the Senate on his resolution to increase the membership of certain standing committees of the Senate. He intimated his readiness, however, to yield for executive business.

Mr. Hoar did not approve that course and expressed the hope that Mr. Call would proceed with his remarks in accordance with the unanimous understanding of the Senate.

Mr. Cockrell—The Senator from Florida has the right to yield the floor.

"Certainly he has the right," assented Mr. Hoar.

"And he has done it," Mr. Cockrell added.

"But that destroys the unanimous consent heretofore given, objected Mr. Hoar.

Mr. Gorman renewed his motion and Mr. Chandler demanded the yeas and nays.

"We join in the request," said Mr. Cockrell, with the air of a person assured of victory. The vote was taken and although there were three or four pairs at nought, the result showed that there were fifty-five Senators voting, twelve more than a quorum. The vote, which was a strict party one, (Mr. Peffer voting with the Democrats) stood: Yeas 39, nays 16. So the Senate at 12:20 proceeded to executive business.

The Senate remained in executive session until 3:15 and then adjourned until tomorrow.

A Mining Strike Apprehended.
 By Southern Associated Press.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 11.—It is quite generally conceded that there is a possibility for further troubles in the mining districts in May. It is an open secret that a general strike is in preparation to take effect May 1st, and the State civil and military authorities are preparing for another attack upon the convicts working in the mines. The positions are being strengthened with fortifications and everything is being put in readiness for an attack. The legislature has passed a bill authorizing the Governor to use the full force of the State to suppress disorder. It is not believed that the Tennessee miners are back of the movement to any great extent, but that agitators from Kentucky are trying to manipulate the threatened strike so as to cause trouble.

The Case of Senator Roach.
 By Southern Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The fight in the Senate relative to the Roach resolution has been transferred to executive session, and is now in progress. An effort is being made to put the matter in shape agreeable to both sides, but so far the effort is unsuccessful.

Woolen Mills Burned.
 By Southern Associated Press.

WORCESTER, Mass., April 11.—The Eagle Woolen Mills, in Hubbardston, was totally destroyed by fire early this morning. The cause is unknown. Loss, $75,000 to $100,000.

SNAP-SHOT CAMERAS AT THE POLLS.
 Hundreds of Repeaters Photographed in St. Louis on Election Day.

St. Louis, April 11.—In the city election last Tuesday the Republicans used snap shot cameras whenever repeaters or supposed repeaters appeared at the polls. When a suspect voted the button was pressed and a record taken of the name on which he voted and the time or day he did it. Some remark or objection was made, so that the man's identity and vote would be more or less impressed upon the election officers.

A man detailed for the purpose followed each suspect. If he attempted to vote at another polling place a signal was made, and the camera man pressed the button and made a record of the repeater's name, &c. Several hundred pictures were taken, and they are now being developed. When they are finished the originals of the photographs will be prosecuted.

The Choctaw Troubles.
 By Southern Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—Secretary Hoke Smith today received the following telegram from Agent Bennett, at Muskogee, Indian Territory:

"I am reliably advised by both factions that the Choctaws are being reinforced strongly. The presence of military alone will prevent a conflict. The troops should be sent to Antler's as quick as possible. I will go there when advised that the troops have started."

A telegram just received from Atoka, says: "One hundred men here are going to the location of the troubles if the government does not interfere. Have wired their leaders that you have asked the War Department to send troops to prevent domestic strife and preserve the peace."

As requests have already been made upon the War Department to have troops sent to the locality to preserve the peace, no further action will be taken by the Secretary than to furnish the War Department with a copy of the agent's telegram.

Earthquake Shocks in California.
 By Southern Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 11.—Since last Tuesday there have been between forty and fifty earthquake shocks in Pico Canon, near Newhall. Pico Canon is in the Sanfernan Mountains and is the center of the oil regions. Last Tuesday a severe earthquake was felt all over Southern California which shook the houses in Pico Canon very badly and frightened the inhabitants. Since then there have been several shocks every day but these have been confined to a small area in the mountains.

An Editor Charged With Libel.
 MARION, N. C., April 11.—(Special).—James Q. Griffin, editor of the Western Free Lance, was arrested on a bench warrant for libel on complaint of J. L. C. Bird, Esq., of Marion, Saturday, and at Lenox Monday gave bond for $2,000 before Judge James D. Melver for his appearance at the next term of McDowell Superior Court. He was arrested on civil process for damages Monday, and required to give bail in the sum of $5,000, and has so far failed to give it, and is held in the custody of the sheriff.

 By Southern Associated Press.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 11.—Mob violence was feared at Morganfield yesterday and the jail was strongly guarded to prevent the assassins of Mrs. Henry Delaney, nee Oliver, from being taken out and lynched by the infuriated citizens. Nominations Favorably Reported.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The Senate committee on finance ordered a favorable report on all nominations before it, including that of E. Kels for Comptroller of the Currency.

THE AFTERNOON EDITORS.
RECEIVED YESTERDAY BY SECRETARY HOKE SMITH.

A Delegation of Southern Newspaper Men in Washington—They Call Upon Mr. Smith and are Given a Cordial Reception.

By Southern Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—The Southern Afternoon Press Association, forty strong, headed by J. W. Burson, of the Galveston Tribune, and H. H. Cabaness, of the Atlanta Journal, called this morning by appointment on Secretary of the Interior Hoke Smith. The Secretary received his former fellow raftsmen with the great cordiality and grace which has characterized his demeanor since his induction into office. Mr. Cabaness, vice-president of the Atlanta Journal, introduced the afternoon editors to his former associate: J. W. Burson, of the Galveston Tribune; Wm. F. Burbank, of the Winston, N. C. Sentinel; Thos. D. Evans, of the Lynchburg Advance; Zeno T. Harris, of the Memphis Public Ledger; Chas. J. Stewart, of the Roanoke, Va., World; J. B. Pound, publisher of the Chattanooga News and the Knoxville Sentinel; H. M. McIntosh, of the Albany, Ga., Herald; Fred S. Cox, of the Mobile News; Rufus N. Rhodes, Birmingham News; J. O. Foy, Danville Star; J. P. Kerr, Asheville Citizen; Wm. W. Archer, Richmond Star; Henry P. Clarke, Columbia S. C. Journal; Joseph G. G. Fivensh, Norfolk Public Ledger; Pleasant A. Stovall, Savannah Press; Thos. R. Gibson, Augusta Evening News.

Secretary Hoke Smith welcomed the editors in a graceful speech referring laughingly to the fact that all the afternoon papers represented were "original Cleveland men", contributing very largely to the nomination and the election of Grover Cleveland.

Mr. Rhodes, of Birmingham, on behalf of the afternoon editors, said it was a matter for congratulation that the editor of the afternoon newspaper held the highest position of any newspaper man in official life, and Melville W. Stone as the head of the Western Press Association, also an afternoon newspaper man, held a position of great prominence in unofficial life.

Secretary Smith then, upon request of the editors, delivered a ten minute address calling upon them to support the administration in its honest endeavors of reform in public expenditures. There was a round of applause when he concluded.

Secretary Smith then left for the cabinet meeting where he will make an appointment with Mr. Cleveland to receive the afternoon editors this afternoon or in the morning.

It is extremely probable that the editors will make satisfactory arrangements with the Southern Associated Press for service.

She was followed by the Chicago, Baltimore, San Francisco, Atlanta, Charleston, Concord, Yorktown and Vesuvius; the Philadelphia and dispatch boat Cushing remaining in the roads. The new practice ship, Bancroft, was observed coming in from New York at 9 o'clock, and passed the fleet down the bay. She reached the roads at 9:30, and anchored a short distance west of the flagship.

FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR.
 Some of the Attractions Which the Old North State Present.

The time for the opening of the Chicago World's Fair is now rapidly approaching and North Carolina will make a most creditable showing at the great exposition if we may judge by present indications.

Mr. E. E. Brown, an accomplished scenic artist, has just started for a tour of Eastern North Carolina, where he will make a series of photographic views of the peculiar industries of that section of the State, including truck farming, steam seine fishing, hand fishing for shad, mullet, mackerel, etc. He will also go to Lockville, and along Roanoke river to make views of the great water powers there. He will make cycloramic photographs of Edenton Bay, Beaufort Harbor, Lookout Light House and the confluence of Trent and Neuse rivers at New Berne.

The pictures will cost primarily about $350 each and will be enlarged and finished by the best artists in the country. A series of no less than 500 views of North Carolina interests, resources and industries will be made, representing all sections of North Carolina. They will be handsomely mounted and will be exhibited at Chicago in classified groups, so that a man interested in trucking can see views on the subject altogether and likewise a man interested in fishing.

Telegrams from Mr. Peter M. Wilson, who is now in Chicago, to Mr. T. K. Bruner, state that there is a freight block which may delay the installation of the exhibits to some extent.

A letter from Col. H. C. Demming, of Harrisburg, Pa., who spent eight years mining in McDowell county for gems and gold, informs Mr. Bruner that he will express him for exhibition at Chicago $10,000 worth of cut gems, including a five karat diamond from McDowell. All these will be with our State exhibit. There will also be $1,000 worth of beautiful nuggets from all over the State.

Mr. A. M. Field, of Asheville, will send a fine collection of aqua marines, rubies, emeralds and sapphires.

Mr. William J. Coite, of Statesville, will lend the State for the occasion, a $500 Hiddenite ring, a very handsome stone, set and surrounded by a circle of diamonds.

Prof. J. A. D. Stephenson, of Statesville, has forwarded for exhibition at Chicago a very valuable collection of crystals, embracing a series of modified quartz crystal, with rare basal and terminal planes. These crystals are remarkable in that the modifications noted by eminent German scientists who have figured them are of angles not found at any other locality in the world. So remarkable were these angles and planes that the German scientists who examined them have issued a pamphlet describing their peculiarities. One of the most eminent of these scientists is the celebrated Prof. G. Vom Rath, who says that nearly all of the known forms of quartz seem to have been discovered in a small area of Alexander county, and much to his surprise he observed several planes (12 in all) new to science.

Prof. Holmes will extend his trip from Richmond, where he is now, to Washington, Philadelphia and New York in the interest of and to complete the mineral collection and building stones intended for use in Chicago. All the building stones are being dressed in Washington to uniform light inch cubes with one polished face.

Another car load of exhibits will leave Raleigh in a few days.

THE NAVAL RENDEZVOUS.
 The Programme for the Week of April 17th-24th Arranged.

The programme arranged by the Hampton Roads Naval Rendezvous Executive Committee provides for opening the local celebration at Norfolk on the evening of Monday, April 17th, by a free excursion for all the school children to see all the navies of the world peacefully gathered in Hampton Roads.

The owners of the mammoth excursion steamer Columbian have tendered her without charge for this purpose. The bicycle contests have been postponed from Monday until Tuesday, the 18th, and on the same day and amateur sailing regatta will be held.

On Wednesday the great international sailing races, between boats of all classes from all the fleets, takes place in Norfolk harbor, under the management of officers selected by Admiral Gherardi and the admiral of visiting squadrons.

On Thursday the grand military parade and competitive drill will come off. On Friday the contests between military naval bands, civic societies and schools for prizes, and at night fireworks, and an international ball will fill up the day. On Saturday international races between the Admiral's barges, sailing races between boats and fleets of all nations, and the grand pyrotechnic display at night will wind up the week of festivities, such as has never been witnessed in this country.

Dignity is often a clear case of unenlightened stupidity.

By Southern Associated Press.

The President's Proposed Trip to Chicago.
 By Southern Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The arrangements for the trip of President Cleveland to Chicago to take part in the exercises attending the opening of the Columbian exposition on May first will be completed in a day or two. So far as the arrangements now extend, they provide for a quick trip on a special train on the Pennsylvania Railroad. The day and hour of departure from Washington, and from Chicago has not been definitely determined but in order to suit Mr. Cleveland's wishes it is probable that the train will leave Washington on the morning of April 30th and start on its homeward trip from Chicago on the evening of May 1. The train was tendered by the World's fair committee on reception and it will be elegantly fitted up for the distinguished party. All members of the cabinet have expressed a desire to accompany the President and they will probably carry out the intention.

Mrs. Cleveland will not, as already stated, attend the opening ceremonies, but will press the button at the White House that will turn the molten metal into the mould of the memorial bell to be used by the Society of Daughters of the American Revolution. It is expected, however, that several ladies of the families of the Cabinet members will accompany the Presidential party to Chicago.

The journal of yesterday having been read, the Vice President stated that the business before the Senate was the resolution for the admission of the three Senators appointed by the Governors of Montana and Washington. Mr. Gorman thereupon moved to proceed to the consideration of executive business.

Mr. Call claimed the floor in pursuance of notice of his intention to address the Senate on his resolution to increase the membership of certain standing committees of the Senate. He intimated his readiness, however, to yield for executive business.

Mr. Hoar did not approve that course and expressed the hope that Mr. Call would proceed with his remarks in accordance with the unanimous understanding of the Senate.

Mr. Cockrell—The Senator from Florida has the right to yield the floor.

"Certainly he has the right," assented Mr. Hoar.

"And he has done it," Mr. Cockrell added.

"But that destroys the unanimous consent heretofore given, objected Mr. Hoar.

Mr. Gorman renewed his motion and Mr. Chandler demanded the yeas and nays.

"We join in the request," said Mr. Cockrell, with the air of a person assured of victory. The vote was taken and although there were three or four pairs at nought, the result showed that there were fifty-five Senators voting, twelve more than a quorum. The vote, which was a strict party one, (Mr. Peffer voting with the Democrats) stood: Yeas 39, nays 16. So the Senate at 12:20 proceeded to executive business.

The Senate remained in executive session until 3:15 and then adjourned until tomorrow.

St. Louis, April 11.—In the city election last Tuesday the Republicans used snap shot cameras whenever repeaters or supposed repeaters appeared at the polls. When a suspect voted the button was pressed and a record taken of the name on which he voted and the time or day he did it. Some remark or objection was made, so that the man's identity and vote would be more or less impressed upon the election officers.

A man detailed for the purpose followed each suspect. If he attempted to vote at another polling place a signal was made, and the camera man pressed the button and made a record of the repeater's name, &c. Several hundred pictures were taken, and they are now being developed. When they are finished the originals of the photographs will be prosecuted.

The Choctaw Troubles.
 By Southern Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—Secretary Hoke Smith today received the following telegram from Agent Bennett, at Muskogee, Indian Territory:

"I am reliably advised by both factions that the Choctaws are being reinforced strongly. The presence of military alone will prevent a conflict. The troops should be sent to Antler's as quick as possible. I will go there when advised that the troops have started."

A telegram just received from Atoka, says: "One hundred men here are going to the location of the troubles if the government does not interfere. Have wired their leaders that you have asked the War Department to send troops to prevent domestic strife and preserve the peace."

As requests have already been made upon the War Department to have troops sent to the locality to preserve the peace, no further action will be taken by the Secretary than to furnish the War Department with a copy of the agent's telegram.

RECEIVED YESTERDAY BY SECRETARY HOKE SMITH.

A Delegation of Southern Newspaper Men in Washington—They Call Upon Mr. Smith and are Given a Cordial Reception.

By Southern Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—The Southern Afternoon Press Association, forty strong, headed by J. W. Burson, of the Galveston Tribune, and H. H. Cabaness, of the Atlanta Journal, called this morning by appointment on Secretary of the Interior Hoke Smith. The Secretary received his former fellow raftsmen with the great cordiality and grace which has characterized his demeanor since his induction into office. Mr. Cabaness, vice-president of the Atlanta Journal, introduced the afternoon editors to his former associate: J. W. Burson, of the Galveston Tribune; Wm. F. Burbank, of the Winston, N. C. Sentinel; Thos. D. Evans, of the Lynchburg Advance; Zeno T. Harris, of the Memphis Public Ledger; Chas. J. Stewart, of the Roanoke, Va., World; J. B. Pound, publisher of the Chattanooga News and the Knoxville Sentinel; H. M. McIntosh, of the Albany, Ga., Herald; Fred S. Cox, of the Mobile News; Rufus N. Rhodes, Birmingham News; J. O. Foy, Danville Star; J. P. Kerr, Asheville Citizen; Wm. W. Archer, Richmond Star; Henry P. Clarke, Columbia S. C. Journal; Joseph G. G. Fivensh, Norfolk Public Ledger; Pleasant A. Stovall, Savannah Press; Thos. R. Gibson, Augusta Evening News.

Secretary Hoke Smith welcomed the editors in a graceful speech referring laughingly to the fact that all the afternoon papers represented were "original Cleveland men", contributing very largely to the nomination and the election of Grover Cleveland.

Mr. Rhodes, of Birmingham, on behalf of the afternoon editors, said it was a matter for congratulation that the editor of the afternoon newspaper held the highest position of any newspaper man in official life, and Melville W. Stone as the head of the Western Press Association, also an afternoon newspaper man, held a position of great prominence in unofficial life.

Secretary Smith then, upon request of the editors, delivered a ten minute address calling upon them to support the administration in its honest endeavors of reform in public expenditures. There was a round of applause when he concluded.

Secretary Smith then left for the cabinet meeting where he will make an appointment with Mr. Cleveland to receive the afternoon editors this afternoon or in the morning.

It is extremely probable that the editors will make satisfactory arrangements with the Southern Associated Press for service.

FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR.
 Some of the Attractions Which the Old North State Present.

The time for the opening of the Chicago World's Fair is now rapidly approaching and North Carolina will make a most creditable showing at the great exposition if we may judge by present indications.

Mr. E. E. Brown, an accomplished scenic artist, has just started for a tour of Eastern North Carolina, where he will make a series of photographic views of the peculiar industries of that section of the State, including truck farming, steam seine fishing, hand fishing for shad, mullet, mackerel, etc. He will also go to Lockville, and along Roanoke river to make views of the great water powers there. He will make cycloramic photographs of Edenton Bay, Beaufort Harbor, Lookout Light House and the confluence of Trent and Neuse rivers at New Berne.

The pictures will cost primarily about $350 each and will be enlarged and finished by the best artists in the country. A series of no less than 500 views of North Carolina interests, resources and industries will be made, representing all sections of North Carolina. They will be handsomely mounted and will be exhibited at Chicago in classified groups, so that a man interested in trucking can see views on the subject altogether and likewise a man interested in fishing.

Telegrams from Mr. Peter M. Wilson, who is now in Chicago, to Mr. T. K. Bruner, state that there is a freight block which may delay the installation of the exhibits to some extent.

A letter from Col. H. C. Demming, of Harrisburg, Pa., who spent eight years mining in McDowell county for gems and gold, informs Mr. Bruner that he will express him for exhibition at Chicago $10,000 worth of cut gems, including a five karat diamond from McDowell. All these will be with our State exhibit. There will also be $1,000 worth of beautiful nuggets from all over the State.

Mr. A. M. Field, of Asheville, will send a fine collection of aqua marines, rubies, emeralds and sapphires.

Mr. William J. Coite, of Statesville, will lend the State for the occasion, a $500 Hiddenite ring, a very handsome stone, set and surrounded by a circle of diamonds.

Prof. J. A. D. Stephenson, of Statesville, has forwarded for exhibition at Chicago a very valuable collection of crystals, embracing a series of modified quartz crystal, with rare basal and terminal planes. These crystals are remarkable in that the modifications noted by eminent German scientists who have figured them are of angles not found at any other locality in the world. So remarkable were these angles and planes that the German scientists who examined them have issued a pamphlet describing their peculiarities. One of the most eminent of these scientists is the celebrated Prof. G. Vom Rath, who says that nearly all of the known forms of quartz seem to have been discovered in a small area of Alexander county, and much to his surprise he observed several planes (12 in all) new to science.

Prof. Holmes will extend his trip from Richmond, where he is now, to Washington, Philadelphia and New York in the interest of and to complete the mineral collection and building stones intended for use in Chicago. All the building stones are being dressed in Washington to uniform light inch cubes with one polished face.

Another car load of exhibits will leave Raleigh in a few days.
