YPSILANTI, Mich., April 13 -A report has reached here that the town of Saline, in Washtenaw county, nine miles south of here, was wiped out by a cyclone last night. Saline is on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad, and has a population of 1,200 or 1,400.

Detroit, Mich., April 13 -12:45

A. M —The following dispatch is received from Ypsilant : This city is in ruins. A cyclone struck here tonight, coming from the southwest sweeping everything in its path. Thousands of dollars of damage was caused by it. The storm took a strip through the business portion of the town, moving houses from their foundation and raising others. The Clary Business college and the Curtis carriage factory are in ruins. The Hawkins House and the Occidental Hotel are badly damaged. The roofs of half of the stores are blown off.
