Save Paying Doctors' Bills BOTANIC

HE GREAT REMEDY ULCERS, ECZEMA. PIMPLES, ERUPTION

REE WONDERFOR 00000000000000 RETREAT.

of Delicacies. saloon of Mr. Chas. Bretsch. Fayetteville ore of the most popular resorts in nd as the season progresses be a great rush for the splendid BAKERY

est cakes, pies, &c., can be -RECEIVED-

Boxes FLORIDA Oranges.

We have last placed in store 75 boxes fine

10-176-00 to the box. -LOW PRICES .-

-GROCERS-222 FAVETTEVILLE ST.

10c. WORTH 25c. 16c-worth 15c Stras & leaned Currants. 10c-worth 20c Mornia 4-Crown Raisins. co-worth 1fe California Dried Grapes,

2-1bs for 15c. 15c-worth 20c Carolina Sun Dried Peaches 12 worth 15c Fator Evaporated Apples.

20c-worth 25c The Evsporated Peaches, Pears and Nectarines. -POTTED MEATS-20c-worth 25c d Ham and Tongue- 1-1b Tins.

25c-worth 35c Turkey and Chicken - | Ib Tins 15c. WORTH 20c. California Honey Dew Prunes, Lating or Cooking. 35c WORTH 50c. egant Line Hand Made. Cream Bon Bons.

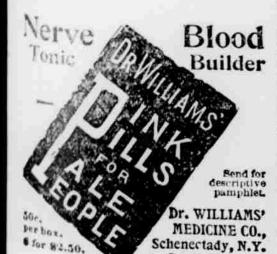

MANUFACTURER OF

CARRIAGES, EUGGIES. DELIVERY WAGONS

ing and Painting.

for any style of work solicited. Guaranteed

To be as represented. ig, in fact anything belonging to can be found in my factory.

BEFORE THE MULTITUDE.

THE GREAT COLUMBIAN EXPOSI-TION IS FORMALLY OPENED.

he Chief Magistrate of the Republic Presses the Button Which Starts Off the Miles of Shafting and Belting -A Diapason of Cheering Goes Up From the Assembled Multitude.

By Southern Associated Press. CHICAGO, May 1 - Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, surrounded by the members of his Cabinet, by high officials of variwhich make up the machinery of dent of the Commission, and Robt. ands of the sex that occupied the lying off the exposition grounds in daughter of the Duke, and Spanish utes the men vied with the women Lake Michigan; seven hundred flags Commissioner Thomas G. Guttires. in maintaining the demonstrations. were released from their "stops" at In the eighteenth the Hon. Pedro All the while Mr. Cleveland stood streamed out under the sky in scar- Aguilera, with Marquis Villa La right nervously fingering a button the wheels began to turn, and the by the Ambassador to England, more come over the throng, he greater volume of sound arose from Thomas F. Bayard, and ex-minister commenced his address. He said : the throats of the concourse of peo- to Belgium, Lambert Tree, Major ple who thus acclaimed the opening General Miles and aides; Admiral speech: American pluck, enterprise and gen- geld. The carriage of Mayor Harerosity.

only for a moment, however, and, with a big bouquet in her lap but point to the great achievements we although the rain ceased, the clouds | before she reached the grounds she still hung sodden and lowering over | was half hidden in choice flowers | the city, the wind blew faintly from | tossed in her carriage by enthusithe east, flapping the banners and astic ladies. other decorations in a dismal fash-

light in the eastern sky heralded bers of the diplomatic corps, while the approach of dawn the down- to their right and left were the buildings, freed from their desks, an inspiring scene that met the visjoined in the current which set to- | ion of the chief executive of the nad Ammonia full 16 oz. bottle. wards Jackson Park, accompanied | tion as he was escorted to his seat.

in most cases beyond it. way, and mounted on handsome chargers was a platoon of grayder command of Capt. E A. Var. be heard distinctly by the two thou wheels and springs kept in stock U. S. Cavalry, under command of which penetrated far into the throng, Thomas S. Quincy. They appeared a production of W. A. Croffut, a scription. for the first time in their American- member of the journalistic profesized Russian uniform. There were | sion at the National Capital. six score of them, mounted on magnificent black chargers, and every man a giant. Twenty trumpeters heralded the approach of the Husthe military division was mounted

National Commissioners, P. A. B

Widender, of Pennsylvania, and

Bradley F. Smalley, of Vermont,

Jasmes W. Ellsworth, for the Com- was for the moment embarrassed by and George H. Barbour. Directors, way, the foreign division was inau- shown. gurated with the fourteenth carous States, by numerous and distin- by Mrs. Potter Palmer, who did the like the rattling of musketry. The guished representatives from lands honors as President of the Lady foreigners and natives alike joined across the seas, and by a mighty Managers and by Mrs. Commander in the acclaim to the highest reprethrong of American citizens, today Dickens. In the sixteenth carri- sentative of the sovereign people of pressed the electric button which age were the Marquis de Barboles, the Republic. There was a flutter set in motion miles of shafting, in- son of the Duke and Duchess; M. of white handkerchiefs from the numerable engines and mechanism H. DeYoung, Commissioner from ladies side of the platform, and inand miles of belting and gearing California and second Vice-Presi- stantly it was taken up by thousthe World's Columbian Exposition. A. Waller of the Board of Directors. gondolas and launches on the wa-At the same moment the national In the seventeenth were Hon Christer far in the distance More handsalute pealed forth from the guns of | tobel Aguillara and Marie del Pilar | kerchiefs were waved, loud cheers, the revenue cutter Andrew Johnson, and Colon y Aguilera, son and and so for the space of several mina concerted signal, swung loose and Colon y Bertenado and Carlos erect, his left hand behind him, his let, yellow and blue; over in ma. Obor and Director Chas. L. Hutch. of his frock coat. At last, when chinery hall a great roar arose and inson. The ducal party was suc- throats and arms alike were tired, the turrets of buildings nodded as ceeded by the carriages occupied and the semblance of quiet had once of the grandest achievement of Gherardi and aides, and Gov. Alt-Nearly all night there had been three members of the Board of Al- the stupendous results of American in the main features of the city a continuous soaking drizzle that dermen, brought up the extreme enterprise and activity, and in view government. The first ward eleccaused the spirits of World's Fair rear. As the procession moved of the magnificent evidences of ted as members of the City Council, this is satisfactory. officials to sink to the zero point. along its route it was attended by American skill and intelligence, we Wm. Ellis, the second; E. Gerock, The rain continued until 7 o'clock, an almost unbroken diapason of need not fear that these congratuwhen the clouds parted and through | cheering. The Spaniards came in lations will be exaggerated. We fourth; V. A. Crawford, the fifth; plans. a rift far over the lake there was a for a liberal share of enthusiasm. stand today in the presence of the T. W. Eubank. The last named gleam of cold sunshine. It lasted The Duchess of Veragua started oldest nations of the world and two are colored.

effect upon the enthusiasm of the dent Stevenson, the Duke of Veraenergetic citizens who had deter- gua, and his party, and the higher mined to witness the opening of the national and local officers of the fair. Immediately in the rear were Before the first faint streaks of the sections assigned to the memand his attendants. While hand- the aid of opera glasses, but those fluence the welfare, dignity and shaking was in progress Vice Presi- at a distance maintained as quiet fresdom of mankind." dent Stevenson and his party put in and dignified a demeanor as the oc-

Hearty applause rewarded the reader as she retired, and it was renewed when after the orchestra had rendered the "Rienzi" overture, sars, and bringing up the rear of by Wagner, Director General Davis arose from his seat, and after bowtroop A of the Illinois National ing to the Chief Magistrate and the sky, a flood of water gushed Guards. The procession of carriages | those surrounding him, faced the | forth from the McMonnies fountain was led by a vehicle containing the assemblage. Time and again and rolled back again into the basin, was the applause renewed, and the the thunder of artillery came from man who had done so much towards the vessels in the lake, the chimes deny. In the second carriage were the heartiness of his greeting. Commissioners Gorton W. Allen Finally when the cheering commenced to die away he turned again Charles Henrotin and Wm. B. Ker- to the President, and commenced his address, which was chiefly a The American contingent having statistical account of what had been in thirteen carriages thus led the done to produce the results here

It was now the turn of the Presiriage. This was occupied by the dent of the United States to pres-Duke of Veragua, the first Vices enthimself, and as he slowly arose President of the Commission, ex- from his seat he swept his eyes, Gov. Waller, of Connectisut; first first over occupants of the platform Vice-President of the Exposition, and then over one of the greatest Ferd W. Peck, and Commander audiences that ever man faced Dickens, of the United States army. there went up a cheer that seemed The fair sex appeared for the first to shake the massive dome of the time in the vehicle that followed the building behind him, and which Duchess of Veragua, being escorted reverberated through the grounds

> The following is Cleveland's I am here to join my fellow citizens in the congratulations which here exhibit, asking no allowance on the score of youth.

The enthusiasm with which we contemplate our work, intensifies From the center of the platform | the warmth of the greatings we exion, and, except on the asphalt proper there radiated a special tend to those who have come from boulevards, the mud lay thick and stand, and upon this were chairs foreign lands to illustrate with us deep. All this, however, had no for President Cleveland, Vice Presi- the growth and progress of human endeavor in the direction of higher civil zation. We who believe that popular education and stimulation of the best impulses of our citizens .ead the way to a realization of the proud national destiny which our past town streets were astir. As the other officials and guests of the oc- promises, gladly welcome the opmorning were on the throngs in- casion. Behind these were placed portunity here afforded us to see creased. Excursion trains from the orchestra. In front of all, oc- the results accomplished by the efnear by points and the regular cupying two wings of the right and forts which have been exerted suburban trains on the various left of the speakers stands, was a longer than ours in the field of roads brought thousands who added provision for some three hundred man's improvements, while in apto the crowds from other sources representatives of the President, preciative return we exhibit the un-It was a State and civic holiday, who represented nearly every civil- paralleled advancement and wontoo, and all employees in the public ized nation on the globe. It was derful accomplishments of a young nation, and present the triumphs of a vigorous, self-reliant and independent people. We have built by throngs released from mercantile Before him was such a throng as he these splendid edifices, but we have establishments, many of which gave had never faced before, pre-empt- also built a magnificent fabric of a their employees a day off to join in | ing every foot of space between the | popular government, whose grand the exercises. Nine o'clock saw platform and the edge of the basin proportions are seen throughout the every available means of transpor- beyond, covering the walks, and world. We have made and here tation tested to its full capacity and lawns, to the east and west as far as gather together objects of use and eye could sweep All was now in beauty, products of American skill As 10 o'clock, the hour for the readiness for the inauguration of the and invention, but we have also opening exercises drew near, the exercises proper. It had been in- made men who rule themselves. It rush reached its heigh, subsiding tended to preface the speech, mak- is an exalted mission in which we as 11 o'clock was reached. The jam | ing with a grand chorus of 1000 | and our guests from other lands at the railroad depots became less voices, but owing to an oversight are engaged, as we co-operate in thick; cable cars moved along only in drawing the plans of the plat- the inauguration of an enterprise comfortably filled; boats carried off form this feature was eliminated devoted to human enlightenment, smaller loads of passengers; pedes- and in its place was rendered the and in the undertaking we here entrians became fewer and fewer, and columbian march, composed for ter upon, we exemplify in the noby noon the down town streets were | the occasion by Professor John K. | blest sense the brotherhood of naif anything clearer than on ordi- Paine Theodore Thomas weilded the tions. Let us hold fast to the meannary days when no World's Fair is baton and six hundred instruments ing that underlies this ceremony, being opened. By half-past 8, the responded to the wand of authority. and let us not lose the impressivedistinguished people who were to The dull roar of the voices of the ness of this moment. As by touch accompany the President in the multitude was stilled as the music | the machinery that gives life to this procession to Jackson Park had burst upon the air. Not a tenth of vast exposition is now set in mogathered at the President's quar- those in view of the platform could tion, so at the same instant let our ters at the Lexington. The first to have determined what portion of the hopes and aspirations awaken forces arrive was the Duke of Veragua exercises was in progress without which in all time to come shall inan appearance. On their heels, lit- cupants of the grand stand. As the the final sentence his eyes wandered elected Mayor over Christian by driven directly back to the terminal erally taking the hotel by storm, music died away the blind chaplain to a table that was close at his left forty-one majority. There was a station on the World's Fair grounds. came the members of the National of the U. S. Senate, Rev. Dr. W. H. hand. Upon this was the button, full vote. Commission and the Fair Directors Milburne, was led forward to the the pressure upon which was to who were to act as hosts and front of the platform by his adopted start the machinery and make the Christian and Clerk Green from reescorts to the distinguished guests daughter, Miss Cora Gemley, who opening of the exposition an accom- marks made by the former and on this memorable day. Promptly has been his constant and faithful plished fact. It was an ordinary came near being a general row. at 9 o'clock the procession was attendant for many years. Many of form of the Victor telegraph key, Nothing serious resulted. formed. At the head to clear the those about him joined in the such as is in most telegraph offices, "Amen," with which the man of God except that it was of gold instead concluded his invocation. As he of steel, and the button was of ivory coated South Park police. Behind retired to his seat, Miss Jessie Coulinstead of rubber. It rested upon them came a squad of city police thoui, a Chicago reader and elocu- a pedestal upholstered in navy blue on horseback, fifty of them and five tionist of national reputation, was and golden yellow plush, and on abreast. Next in line was Company escorted to the speaker's stand, and the sides of the lower tier in silver elected by majorities ranging from not exceed $6000. No statement of B of the Seventh U. S. Cavalry, un- in clear, impressive tones that could letters were the significant dates-1492 and 1893. As the last words num; Company K of the Seventh sand guests upon the platform and fell from the President's lips he pressed his finger upon the button. Capt. L. R. Hare. Next followed commenced to read the opening This was the signal for a demonthe Chicago Hussars, headed by stanzas of the poem of the day. This stration, in fact difficult of imagina-Capt. E. L. Brand, and Adjutant was entitled "The Prophecy," and is tion, and infinitely more so of de-

At one and the same instant the audience burst into a thundering shout, the orchestra pealed forth strains of the hallelujah chorus, the wheels of the great Allis engine in machinery hall commenced to reand Brockville, Ont, | with Directors Thos. B. Bryan and summation of the great enterprise german building rang out a merry popular fountain.

peal and overhead the flags at the tops of the poles in front of the platform fell apart and revealed two gilded models of the ships in which Columbus first sailed to American shores. At the same moment also hundreds of flags and all colors were unfurled within sight of the platform. The largest was the great "Old Glory" which fell into graceful folds from the top of the center staff in front of the stand, and amid it all the cannon continued to thunder, and the crowd to cheer. It was fully ten minutes before the demonstration subsided. Then the band played "America," and the exercises were at an end. The Columbian exposition was opened to the nations of the world. It an accomplished fact. The crowd in attendance was enormous and was variously estimated at from 150,000 to 175,000. Bemen had been removed unconscious of the helpless ones had simply nounced in due time. fainted but a number are suffering from more serious injuries received in the jumble.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

Returns From Various Towns in the MUNICIPAL ELECTION AT NEW BERNE. NEW BERNE, May 1.-Special-The municipal elections today were very quiet. The first, second and third wards went solidly Democratic, and the fourth and fifth rison, who was accompanied by befit this occasion Surrounded by Republican. This means no change the third, H. J. Loubrick, the with you in accordance with your

AT YOUNGVILLE.

Youngsville, May 1-Special. The following ticket (all Democrats) were elected almost without | ing the arrival of the President's opposition: For Mayor, J. A. Wil- party a number of women in the liams; Treasurer, B. F. Burrows; crowd who had been on their feet Constable, N. G. Timberlake; Com- for hours fainted, and the services missioners, M. A. Alford, M. Wood- of several red cross ambulance lief, Dr. I. G. Riddick.

THE ELECTION AT SALEM' led by T. B. Douthit, Demo-Iver, J. H. Stockton.

gnation takes effect June 1st.

The Farmers' Alliance has about gone to pieces in Forsyth. An attempt was made to reorganize one order Saturday night. Only three third partyites were present. BARRINGER ELECTED AT GREENSBORO

GREENSBORO, N. C., May 1. - Special -Mr. Jno. A Barringer was elected mayor to-day at the municipal election by a vote of 613 to 234 for Mr. R. A. Foard. There was only che set of candidates for aldermen, the election went off very quiet and a By Southern Associated Press. very light vote was poled.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY AT CONCORD. CONCORD, N. C., May 1-Special. There was the greatest excitement ever known here in the municipal election today. Big bonfires are burning and the streets are swarming with people. The Democracy is again triumphant. J. L. Crowell, Democrat, is elected over | Cleveland was escorted to the for-Charles McDonald, Third party man, by thirty-nine majority. DURHAM MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

There was more interest than for building, and witnessed a portion years past in the municipal election of the exercise incident to its formal As the president was concluding and a hard fight. T. S. Peay was dedication. From here he was

A difficulty occurred between

Capt. T. W. Patton was today exception of a large debt secured elected Mayor of Asheville by 1,150 by mortgage due the F rst National majority. The entire ticket put out | Bank, now in the hands of the reby the "Citizens Reform Club" was coiver; the firms indebtedness will 1,000 upwards.

ELECTION AT HENDERSON. HENDERSON, N. C., May 1 .- Special.-W. W. Rowland was elected Mayor today over J. B. White by a majority of twenty-one. The elec tion was quiet with a small vote.

World's Columbian Exposition Will be of value to the world by illustrating the improvements to the mechanical arts and eminent phyisicians will tell you that the progress in medicinal agents, has been volve, the electric fountains in the of equal importance, and as a digestion, enriches the blood, dispels strengthening laxative that Syrup of Figs is in advance of all others.

When Ponce de Leon searched for the fountain of youth baby was not fed from a rubber capped botbringing about the successful con. in the manufacturers hall and on the tle of milk, which is now a very WILL STOP IN RALEIGH.

THE TRAIN BEARING THE RE MAINS OF JEFFERSON DAVIS.

Arrangements Have Been Perfected for the Train to Arrive Here on May | cially delightful in the warm season. 30th, at 12 O'Clock M., and Leave at 3 O'Clock P. M.

A telegram received here yesterday from the officials of the Richmond and Danville Railroad announced that it had been decided to run the train bearing the remains of Jefferson Davis from New Orleans to Richmond via Raleigh there are but slight hopes of his was precisely the hour of noon when on May 30th. The train will ar-Grover Cleveland touched the but- rive here at 12 o'clock m., and will ton and thus declared the opening | depart for Richmond at 3 o'clock

Arrangements will be made to that effect with Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson, of Richmond, President of fore the ceremonies were half over the Jefferson Davis Monument Astwenty women and half as many sociation, and the remains will lie in State here, and will be honored to the hospital, where a corps of in a manner befitting the occasion. physicians was in waiting. Most The full programme will be an-

His Excellency Gov. Elias Carr yesterday sent the following tele-

RALEIGH, N. C., May 1st., 1893. Honorable J. Taylor Ellyson President Jefferson Davis Monument Association, Richmond Va.

A telegram from Capt. Green states that the Richmond and Danville Railroad will handle the Jefferson Davis train via Raleigh reaching here at twelve o'clock on the thirtieth of May, and leaving not later than three p. m. on the same day, and that he has made arrangements with you. I hope

North Carolina will co-operate

ELIAS CARR. Governor. Many Women Faint at Chicago. By Southern Associated Press

CHICAGO, Ill., May 1. - While awaitchairs were in constant requisition for over half an hour. No sooner Salam, May 1-Special.-Salem's had the opening ceremonies communicipal election passed off quietly. menced than bad police arrange-I'wo tickets were in the field ments were shown in an unfortunate manner for many people. A hand crat, and C. S. Hauser, Republican, full of Columbian guards had been for Mayor. Douthit was elected by detailed for duty to keep the inside a handsome majority. The Com- border of the mass of humanity missioners elected are H. E. Fries, from encroaching on the press seats | Due shareholders, due install A. A. Spaugh, J. A. Vanfe, F. C. which were arranged below the Due shareholders, earnings Meining, J. C. Conrad, Irving Me- grand stand on either side Pushing and crowding at the northeast end of | Balance to be paid out on leans Rev. W. L. Reany, pastor of St. the administration building soon Paul's Episcopal Church, resigns, became so severe that many women and accepts a call to take charge of | fainted while others became so sick parish in Pennsylvania. His res- that they had to be lifted bodily over the railing into press seats until the arrival of the red cross corps with wheel chairs. While the poem was being read it looked as though a panic with fatal consequences could not be averted. The guards were powerless, their work being no more effectual than childs play. The women continued to faint and the weaker ones who were getting in fainting condition suffered much.

Cleveland Visits the Women's Building.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 1 .- When the opening exercises had ended the President and his party and the Vice-President and ducal party were escorted to the third floor of the administration building, where covers had been laid for seventy people and lunch was served. At the conclusion of the lunch President eign section of Manufacturers' hall, where he received commissioners from foreign countries. Afterwards DURHAM, N. C., May 1.—Special— he was driven over to the Women's

> A Failure At Wiimington. By Southern Associated Press. WILMINGTON, N. C., May 1. - B. F.

Mitchell & Son, an old and well known firm, engaged in grain and milling ATTON ELECTED MAYOR OF ASHEVILLE. | business today made an assignment Asheville, May 1 .- Special .- to Dr. A. H. Baldwin. With the assests is made.

> Something to Remember, if you're a weak or ailing woman:-that there's only one medicine so sure to help you that it can be guaranteed. It's Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription In building up over-worked, feeble, delicate women, or in any "female complaint" or weakness, if it ever fails to benefit or cure you have your money back It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nervine, and a safe and certain remedy for woman's ills and ailments. It regulates and promotes all the proper functions, improves > aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep. and restores health and strength. Nothing else can be as cheap. With this, you pay only for the good you get Fits, dizziness, hysteria, wakefulness, bad dreams and softening of the brain quickly cured by Magnetic Nervine. Sold by John Y. MacRae.

ADVERTISING RATES.

The State Chronicle.

Reading notices 10 cents a line Special agreements for larger contracts.

Boarding is Pleasant At the Park Place Boarding House. It is situated among the best residences and is only a short distance from the business part of the city. It is some distance from the street and has an elegant stretch of shady lawn before it. It is therefore espe-

> MES ALF JONES, North Blount Street.

Booth Grows Worse. By Southern Associated Press.

You escape the dust "Street cars run right by the door."

New York, May 1 -At 9:15 this morning Edwin Booth was growing worse. He passed a bad night and

The Marked Success

of Scott's Emulsion in consump tion, scrofula and other forms hereditary disease is due to it powerful food properties.

apidly creates healthy flesh proper weight. Hereditary taints develop only when the system becomes weakened Nothing in the world of medicine has been so successful in diseases that are most menacing to life. Physicians everywhere

repared by Sent & Boune, N. Y. Alidens ANNUAL REPORT prescribe it.

S. E COR 5 and WARKET, LOUISVILLE, MY For the year ending January 31, 1893.

ASSETS Loans on bond and mortgage

Other assets in detail: 50,665,00 1,366.60

S 122,238,18

LIABILITIES.

19.610,80 OH RECOURTED 8 122,238.18

"prepaid" or "part

8 41,057,12 DISBURSEMENTS.

ad on with frawals, divisional salaries, advertising and print ing, rent, other disbursement

FRANK P. STRAUS, Louisville Ky. President. W. W. RIGGS, Louisville, Ky.

LOUISVILLE BANKING COMPY. Louisville Ky , Treasurer. JOHN C. COOPER, Louisville, Ky. J. C. BEAVERS, Raleigh, N. C.

General Agent and Attorney for North

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA to amend chapter 7, volume 2 of The de, entitled funding and Lord Associa in I certify that the above is a trace of the sworn statement of the Commercia

DYAL, TAMSY, OHOTHER S DRUGS CHEMICAL PRESIDENTIES PONTUL CA. P. CAGE GUARANTEED.
Mudame Perrine, Muse.

MURI

".ministrator's Notice.

is to give notice to all persons having claims against the decedent to present them to me on ot before April 18 1894; an persona indebted to said decedent will make immediate cayment to me.

Aliministrator of Mrs. A. A. Ferry.

House and Lot for Sale.

By virtue of authority conferred in a certals mortgage, executed by N. N. Vass, and duly recorded in book 113 page 602, in Reg ster of Deeds office of Wake county. N C, I will on Monday, the 29th day of May, 8:3, sell to the highest bidder, for cah, at 13 c clock m, at the Court House door, in the city of Raleigh, the house and lot of land whereon the said Vass now relot of land whereon the said Vass now resides, situated on South Blount street, and duly described in the said mortgage.

Terms of sale, cash S. S. BATCHELOR,