Mrs. Davis Was Too Indisposed t Make the Trip and Will Simply B Present at Richmond at the Fina Interment.

By Southern Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 26 - Mayor J. Taylor Ellyson, of Richmond, Va. came to New York yesterday. Last evening he left for New Orleans accompanied by Miss Winnie Davis. Mrs Jefferson Davis was to leave her husband from the Crescent City to the old Confederate Capital. At the last moment, however, she was owing to indisposition. Mrs. Davis will go to Richmond probably tomorrow or at least be in time to be present at next week's ceremonies.

Hanged for Murder.

By Southern Associated Press. AUGUSTA, Ga., May 26-Henry morning for the murder last October of Robert Y. Harris, marshal of Summerville. Ramsey confessed that he had "orphaned Capt. Harris' children." The doomed man displayed great nerve. While the officers were binding his feet he remarked that it reminded him of the manner in which young mules were tied. Just before the drop fell he shouted "Gcod-bye!" Ramsey's neck was broken by the fall.

NO. 59

GREENSBORD, N. C., May 25. Among the visitors who were in Greensboro this week attending the Commencement of the State Normal and Industrial School, his many Is about fifteen thousand, and we would friends here were glad to see Capt. W. B. Kendrick, of your city. Capt. Kendrick is well known, and has many friends all over the State who are alwas glad to see him.

Just at this time when so much is being said and written of the gallant deeds of the soldiers of the Confederate army, it will not be out of place to state that Capt. Kendrick was in more than thirty battles, and received several wounds, and was once reported dead. Several orders commending his conduct on the battlefield were read on dress parade. He entered service as a private in the Fifteenth Alabama Regiment Was elected Second Lieutenant in the Thirty-seventh Alabama Regiment, and afterwards Captain in the Forty-Second Alabama Regiment, the Lieutenants waiving their right to promotion, a compliment to a young officer rarely given. In parting with him, the Colonel of the Thirty-Seventh Alabama stated on the transfer papers, that Captain Kendrick served in all the battles and refreshing to the taste, and acts fought by "Stonewall" Jackson, was in the battle of Missionary Liver and Bowels, cleanses the sys-Ridge, Ressacca, around Atlanta tem effectually, dispels colds, headand so forth, and, in all them behaved with distinguished gallantry.
