A BAD WRECK

Caused By a Washout in South Carolina.
By Southern Associated Press.
COLUMBIA, June 2.—A furious rain-storm generally prevailed throughout the State last night and washouts are reported on the different lines of the railroads. Mixed train No. 9 coming south on the Richmond and Danville Railroad when within three miles south of Ridgewood ran into a washout about a hundred feet wide and engineer Jack Germany and fireman T. D. Henry were instantly killed. The washout occurred on what was considered a particularly fine stretch of road, there being a stone culvert at the place filled in with rock, and it had stood the severest rains heretofore. The train was badly wrecked going down the embankment twenty feet. Express Messenger W. W. Hoimes, who is badly bruised, is the only other person hurt. The tender turned bottom side up towards the engine, turning the engineer around with his back to the front of the engine, pinning him between the boiler head and the tender. His hands were thrown up in front of his face, his face crushed in and scalded. Fireman Henry was found with his head almost in the furnace door pierced through the head by an iron rod. Both men were badly blackened and evidently instantly killed.

The Waldenses Have Come.

Newton Enterprise.
From Mr. Ellis Coulter we learn that the advance guard of the Waldenses arrived at Connelly Springs Monday. They came in a special car which was sidetracked for them at the coal chute, about four miles above Connelly's, and on the 10,000 acre tract the colony has purchased. They were all dressed in homespun clothes and coarse shoes of their own make. They had with them a limited quantity of household goods and a quantity of corn and other farm seeds which they had brought with them from their homes. They looked as if they were not afraid of work and were just itching to get into the fields to make an examination of the soil with their hoes.

There were 26 persons in the squad who will occupy the six houses that are now completed on their lands. Contracts have been let for other houses, which will be ready by the time the next installment arrives. They will build a town of their own in which all the colony will live, instead of scattering over the lands. The lands will be owned in common and will be allotted to the different families, according to the custom of their people. They brought a preacher with them, and a house of worship will be one of the first buildings they will erect.

May Have to Go into the Hands of a Receiver.

By Southern Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 2.—President Ransom and Attorney Porter, representing the failed National Bank of Deposit of New York, had a conference with Comptroller Eckels this morning as to permitting the bank to resume business. Comptroller Eckels told them that his present information was that the bank would have to be placed in the hands of a receiver but he would give them reasonable time to make good their impaired capital.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Bennett and Straight, representing the failed Chemical National Bank of Chicago, also had a conference with Comptroller Eckels with a view to the bank resuming business. They were assured that if they could present the evidence insuring the stability of the bank in the future they would be permitted to resume.

The Sunday Opening Muddle.

By Southern Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 2.—The powers that be at Jackson Park are not greatly exercised over the court proceedings in which it is sought to close the Fair on Sunday. Director of Works Barnham yesterday issued an order to the department chiefs instructing them to have their buildings ready for visitors next Sunday. While the director of works had no official information to give regarding his reasons, he is understood to take it for granted that the decision of the court will be in favor of the Exposition side of the case.

A SENSATION AT WINSTON.

THE SHERIFF AND EDITOR GOSLIN HAVE A FRACAS.

Mr. Goslin Comes Out of the Melee With a Bloody Face—The Trouble Caused by Goslin's Refusal to Give a Correspondent's Name.

WINSTON, N. C., June 2.—Special.—R. M. McArthur, sheriff of Forsyth county, and Capt. J. W. Goslin, editor of the Republican, created a sensation on Third street this morning by engaging in a personal combat. The sheriff was the aggressor. He told Mr. Goslin he proposed to whip him if he did not give him the author's name of the communications appearing in the Republican reflecting on McArthur as an officer. Goslin asked when. "Right now," replied the sheriff. The editor refused, whereupon a fight ensued. When separated Goslin arose with his face almost covered with blood. After the sheriff's temper had subsided somewhat he informed the men holding him he would fight no more. With this understanding the men turned loose. He thereupon went up to the editor and said: "I tell you now, if you will publish the truth about me it will be all right, but if you print any more lies I propose to hold you responsible. And furthermore, I will whip you every time you do so." Editor Goslin replied that he claimed to know his own rights.

After the first article appeared in the Republican reflecting upon Sheriff McArthur he went to the editor's office and demanded the author's name. Goslin refused to give it. The sheriff informed the editor he would hold him personally responsible. At the trial this afternoon McArthur was fined five dollars and costs.

A Possible Deal in Glass.

By Southern Associated Press.
PITTSBURGH, Penn., June 2.—It is stated on good authority that a general shut down of the plate glass factories of the country will take place within the month to last an indefinite period. It is given out as a reason for this action that the factories in the combine have become so overstocked that a suspension of production is absolutely necessary, not because of the dull trade but because the factories have no longer any room to store their unsalable product. The opponents of the organization hint that the above is not the real object of the suspension of the production, but that the trust means to diminish the stock of glass in the market and then raise the prices. The general stoppage contemplated will bring serious inconvenience to thousands of men employed at the factories. D. E. Wheeler, agent of the trust, says that three of the plate glass works have already closed because of dullness of business and admits that it is possible that others will cease operations, as they are greatly overstocked.

Will Take up the Revenue Collectors Next.

By Southern Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 2.—When the President returns from his fishing trip to Hog Island, Va., he will take up the papers in the cases of between fifteen and twenty collectors of internal revenue which now awaits his action. Commissioner Miller spent the week in considering them, and made his recommendations. Secretary Carlisle spent several days last week in looking them over, and has fully made up his mind as to whom he wants in each case. He will go over the matter again with the President. Had the latter not been absent from the city this week the appointments would have been made before now. In the meantime Clerk Kretz is getting together the names of the old collectors who have tendered their resignations, and those whose places are wanted, but who have not done so will be requested to do so at once.

Said he Would Drown Himself.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 2.—Mayor Eby yesterday received a letter signed Henry Rothelmer and stating that the writer would throw himself from the peoples bridge into the river and drown himself. It was dated Tuesday night last. The letter stated that his effects could be secured at a boarding house on Walnut street and were to be sent to his wife, Mrs. A. R. Rothelmer, No. 623 Poplar Street, Chattanooga, Tenn. A letter has been forwarded to this address with the particulars. In this estate was found a letter to his wife instructing her to go to her father at Mansfield with their children.

An Ohio Bank Closes Doors.

CLOSING EXERCISES.

The Commencement of the Raleigh Male Academy, Messrs. Morson and Denson, Principals.

This institution, now so well known throughout the State and the South, presented an interesting scene yesterday on the occasion of the close of the scholastic year. The rooms were filled by many of our leading citizens of the capital and the adjacent country and a lovely representation of the beauty and culture of our fair women.

The exercises were opened by the Rev. Dr. Daniel in a touching and appropriate prayer which invoked the blessing of God upon the institution and upon all who are faithfully leading the young in the paths of knowledge and of righteousness.

The class-standings, as a result of the final examinations of the last two weeks, were then announced, in the various departments of the school; the classical course, in Latin, Greek and French, whose graduates are now ready to enter the various colleges, the mathematical (including a class that had solved the four hundred original problems of Wentworth's geometry)—the English course, embracing a complete course in spelling, reading, English grammar, rhetoric and history; the business course, which adds commercial arithmetic and Book Keeping, and the primary course, which has been largely developed in the past two years, as preparatory to the other departments. Honors were awarded to the first and second in each class, and the nature and extent of the work performed, duly explained. In addition to the branches named, were those of physical and descriptive geography, declamation, oration, etc.

Capt. C. B. Denson, in a few appropriate sentences, introduced the distinguished orator of the day, Hon. Thomas W. Mason, of Northampton.

In his opening sentence Mr. Mason declared that in some respects he had never seen such an interesting occasion. And it may be justly declared that rarely has such an occasion been graced with a speaker of such superb command of thought and ease and beauty of expression.

It was freely commented upon as the most appropriate and most eloquent effort ever enjoyed by the hearers upon a commencement day. Winning the rapt attention of the young by his sympathetic words, he pictured the rapid changes in human thought and action in the modern world—the advance of socialism, the spread of communal spirit, the inroads upon pure Christianity, the unrest of the mob, the power of the plutocrat, and turned to the pure and faithful training of the young as the only bulwark against the encroaching tide. He graphically portrayed the character of our ancestors in Colonial days, and in burning words moved his audience to enthusiasm as he told of the North Carolina of the past. His tribute to the Chieftain that lay in our Capital three days ago was most exquisite. He closed, amid enthusiastic applause, by a patriotic appeal for the preservation of the glorious fame of the past.

Capt. Denson then thanked Prof. Lentz for his faithful services as assistant during the past year, and reminded the students about to depart for the colleges to keep the fame of the Academy as bright as it has ever been hitherto. He mentioned in this connection that one-sixth of the large graduating class at the University next week were pupils at the Academy.

Prof. Hugh Morson announced that the past year had been the most successful in its entire history, and that the next scholastic year would begin on the first Monday of September.

The Rev. Mr. Cole, of the Edenton Street M. E. Church, then pronounced the benediction.

We were gratified to notice the general satisfaction expressed by the patrons and friends of the school. It has been more largely sustained by other sections than usual, Wake, Nash, Washington, Pitt, Moore, Franklin Buncombe and other counties having been represented during the year past. The enrollment was 145 and the number attending the fourth quarter 128, the average being about 120.

It is of interest to our citizens to know that the principals have purchased the school property, including the entire square, from the Smith estate, and contemplate some improvements. They desire to leave nothing undone to present every advantage here, and we believe our people appreciate it.

A very beautiful floral offering was sent "to the teachers" by Miss Jessie Wyatt, which was gratefully received.

CHILDREN LAID TO REST.

INTERMENT OF THE SONS OF PRESIDENT DAVIS AT HOLLYWOOD.

The Bodies Were Quietly Consigned to the Graves and There Was No Funeral Ceremony.

By Southern Associated Press.
RICHMOND, Va., June 2.—The remains of Joseph, William Henry, and Samuel Emory Davis, sons of the late President of the Confederacy and his grandson Jefferson Davis Hayes were re-interred in the Davis section at Hollywood this evening.

Mrs. Davis and her immediate family, together with Mayor Ellyson, President of the Jefferson Davis Monument Association alone witnessed the consignment of the bodies to the graves. There was no funeral ceremony whatever. It is understood that if the wishes of Mrs. Davis are respected in regard to the location of the monument which will perpetuate the memory of the Confederate President, it will not be placed in Monroe Park as proposed. Mrs. Davis, it is said, favors the grounds of the Soldiers' Home as the most appropriate site. The vast number of ex-Confederates think that the Soldiers' Home grounds is the most suitable place that could be selected outside of Hollywood cemetery.

Barton and John Devereux, Jr., of Raleigh, Capt. R. B. Peebles, of Northampton; Hon. C. M. Cooke, of Louisville; Mr. Jacob Battle, of Rocky Mount.

Dr. Arch Cheatham, of Durham, formerly health officer here, came down yesterday to appear as a witness in the case of J. A. Hayes vs. the town of Henderson. Hayes is suing the town for putting him in the lock-up.

Sheriff H. C. Kearney, of Franklin, is spending the day here. Mr. W. S. Ciang, formerly of this place, now a successful tobacco manufacturer of Winston, is here for a few days.

Dr. J. S. Meadows, of Louisville, was here today, a close attendant on tobacco sales. Thad R. Manning, of the Gold Leaf, and Mrs. Manning, returned last night via the Richmond and Danville road, from the National Press Association at Chicago.

The case of E. G. Leigh et al., vs. T. B. Rowland et al., has excited more interest and consumed more time than any other at this term of the court. A MOONSHINER CAPTURED.

He Fires Upon the Officers and is Himself Shot Down.

RUTHERFORDTON, June 1.—George Hunt, a noted moonshiner, was arrested yesterday in Golden Valley township by Deputy Sheriffs Gettys and Robinson and Joe Hodges and Jeff Gettys. The officers were armed with several capsaes for Hunt.

He is also wanted in South Carolina to serve out a sentence of one year in the penitentiary for aggravated assault.

The officers found Hunt in the mountains armed with a rifle and pistol. He raised his gun when they came up but put it down when ordered. As the party came nearer, he raised his gun and fired, narrowly missing Joe Hodges. The officers then began firing, several shot taking effect upon Hunt, the most severe being one which completely shattered his left thigh. He was brought to jail and is having the best medical attention but is suffering intensely.
