

Save Paying Doctors' Bills B.B.B. BOTANICAL BLOOD BALM THE GREAT REMEDY FOR ALL BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES

CATARRH CURE FOR COLIC, RHEUMATISM, BRUISES, SWELLINGS, PAINFUL NEURALGIA, MIGRAINE, BRUISES, SWELLINGS, PAINFUL NEURALGIA, MIGRAINE

SPLENDID RETREAT

Emporium of Delicacies

BAKERY

House and Lot for Sale

John W. Evans, MANUFACTURER OF CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, DELIVERY WAGONS

Residing and Painting

All Work Guaranteed

FREE TO ALL

Don't Use

Fine Livery

DRUG STORE

Blood Builder

DR. WILLIAMS' MEDICINE CO.

The State Chronicle

VOL. XII.

RALEIGH, N. C., SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 11, 1913.

NO. 70.

WHAT CAN A NICKLE DO?

JUST CARRY ONE TO W. H. KING & CO'S

The Most Refreshing Drink of Your Life. Try It!

THE LATEST DETAILS.

FROM THE SCENE OF THE GREAT WASHINGTON DISASTER.

The Actual Death Toll Ascertained to Be Only Twenty-Two—A Thorough Investigation to Be Had.

By Southern Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Until late last night workmen were employed removing tons of loose bricks and broken timbers from Ford's theatre building, and this morning the old hulk looked less hideous than when scores of dead and broken bodies were yesterday being carried from it.

The World's Fair will Be Open Today.

Chicago, June 10.—Chief Justice Fuller has issued a stay of proceedings, and the World's Fair will be opened tomorrow.

United States Circuit Court.

Before his Honor, Aug. S. Seymour, Judge presiding, the following business was transacted yesterday: United States vs. E. F. Moore, President National Bank, embezzling funds. Verdict, not guilty.

United States vs. W. R. and Winnifred Bryant, Johnston county. Indictment, illicit distilling. Verdict, not guilty.

United States vs. W. R. Ray, Wake county. Indictment, illicit distilling. Verdict, not guilty.

United States vs. J. E. Cottle, Wake county. Verdict, guilty of working at illicit distillery. Judgment, 30 days imprisonment and fined $300.

United States vs. Major Barefoot, Johnston county. Defendant pleads guilty of working at illicit distillery. Judgment to be pronounced.

United States vs. Joseph Barbour, Johnston county. Indictment, illicit distilling. Verdict, guilty; judgment reserved.

EQUITY CALENDAR.

State Trust Company, et al., vs. Eastern L. L. and Manufacturing Company. Order for distribution of funds.

J. A. Kelly vs. J. M. Conrad's Sons. Sixty days allowed both plaintiff and defendant to file exceptions to referee's report.

Court meets Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The "Marguerite Festival."

The display of Marguerites, together with the delicious ices, creams and cakes to be served on Tuesday, June 13, at McKimmon & Moseley's old stand, promising to be a delightful occasion for the beginning of the summer season.

From 4 p. m. till 11 o'clock the ladies in charge cordially invite the public to enjoy a repast furnished by the skilled hands of the many good housekeepers of the city, generously added to by Mr. Dughi, who is ever ready to help in every good cause.

NO DOCTOR OR MEDICINE.

For Two Years a Family of Ten People Have Saved This Expense by Using The Electropoise.

Dear Sir:—I have had an Electropoise in use in my family of 10 persons, for two years. I have not had a doctor in that time or used any medicine, and would not be without the Poise, for I use it for everything, from being tired as a housekeeper to any sickness we have had. My husband was restored to health in three months treatment although he could not be induced to use it until he was last reduced in strength it was his last hope. He had had several attacks of LaGrippe, and besides being too weak, the least exercise would cause the limbs to swell to twice their natural size. Three months use of the instrument cured him, and he has not had any swelling or pain in his limbs since.

I treated my little boy, twelve years old, with best result, when I felt sure he would have pneumonia. I think his general health is even better than before for he was not a strong child. I cured "poison oak" eruption just with the poise by plain directions. My cook had had rheumatism in her arms from a...

...sometimes could not grasp anything with her hands, not even knit. I treated her with plain directions, and she is so much benefited she thinks it the greatest thing in the world, would not leave me though she has been offered double the wages that I pay. My oldest son came home last winter, after being at work for three years, the doctors said his liver was torpid and would swell up. I treated as you directed for three months. He is now in perfect health and says he don't expect to take any more medicine. After the good it has done in our family no one can wonder at our being so loud in the praise of the Electropoise.

Yours respectfully, Mrs. JOHN B. SMITH.

Guilford College, N. C., April 25, 1913.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

The Time Expired.

New York, June 10.—The time for depositing Richmond Terminal securities expired at noon today at the offices of Drexel, Morgan & Co. There will be a penalty on deposits made after today. No extra time will be granted.

Nails were made by hand previous to 1810.

FRIENDS STOP THEIR DUEL.

Well-Known North Carolinians Intended to Fight With Rapier. Washington Post, 10th.

A number of prominent gentlemen well known in Washington have been much interested in preventing a duel which was slated for yesterday morning. The high contracting parties were Col. Paul B. Means, a noted lawyer and politician of Concord, N. C., and Mr. Harry Martin, the stepson of Senator Vance. Senator Vance, although ailing arrived in the city on Thursday morning and did his best to stop the affair.

Senator Ransom, who is a friend of Means, was engaged on a similar mission. At a late hour on Thursday night their efforts had not been attended with success.

The duel was to take place on the banks of a creek between Alexandria and Mount Vernon, about eight miles from Washington, on the Virginia side of the Potomac.

Means left mysteriously at 7:30 on Thursday evening in company with his second, Col. Henry Bergwin, of Asheville, N. C., a brother of the Colonel of the Fifty-second North Carolina Regiment, who was killed in leading a charge at the Devil's Den in the battle of Gettysburg. They left the city for Alexandria by a private conveyance, and were reported there on Thursday night by a telegram. Of young Martin's whereabouts nothing was known.

Senator Ransom, Kope Elias, a prominent politician, and Representative John H. Henderson, of North Carolina, scoured the city for him, but could not find him. From what was known of him, no one entertained the remotest idea that he was in hiding with any idea of avoiding the encounter.

The quarrel between the would-be principals is of political origin, and arose over Senator Vance checking confirmation of the nomination of Miss Dusenberry to be postmistress of Charlotte, N. C.

Mr. Means was much offended at Senator Vance for his opposition to Miss Dusenberry, and began to use the strongest possible outside influence to induce Mr. Cleveland to reappoint her. It created a great deal of friction, but all went well until some weeks ago. Senator Vance, his wife, and his stepson were on a Richmond and Danville train between Salisbury and Greensboro, in North Carolina, on their way home. The Senator was ill and under the care of a physician. Somewhere between these points Col. Means entered the car, and seeing Vance went up to him and spoke his mind very plainly.

Martin resolved to resent it, and Thursday it was learned that he had challenged Means. The latter accepted forthwith. He is short-sighted and wears glasses. Pistols therefore, would place him at a great disadvantage. He chose rapiers. In the use of this weapon both men are said to be highly skilled.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning a pair of black horses hitched to a carriage dashed rapidly across the Long Bridge. Upon the box was a negro driver, and inside were Martin and an unknown friend. At the Virginia shore a voice called sternly: "Halt! Hold up!" and Sheriff Shively, of Alexandria county, barred the road.

"Drive on! Drive on!" called Martin, and the negro attempted to obey. The sheriff drew a revolver. "Better stay still," he said. The negro thought so, too. Shively approached the carriage window and glanced in.

"I know you," he said, "and know what you are after. I have a warrant for your arrest. You go back to Washington. If you attempt to set foot on Virginia soil I will lock you up. If I find you here in the next ten days I will lock you up. You can have your choice between an Alexandria jail and a Washington hotel."

Mr. Martin expostulated, but to no purpose.

The sheriff was the immediate cause of the failure of the duel, but behind him was Judge Chichester, and behind the judge were the friends of Martin and Means. Realizing that the affair had gone too far, and might end seriously, they had communicated with Judge Chichester and asked him to enforce a cessation of hostilities. The result was a surprise to Martin and to Means. The latter gentleman had gone to Alexandria and impatiently awaited his foe. He paid $100 and hired a special train, and after cooling his heels waiting for Martin went to Concord, N. C., and is there now. Before leaving he expressed regret that the duel had not occurred.

He said also that as he had demonstrated his readiness to give satisfaction, he was willing to apologize to Senator Vance if that gentleman felt insulted by the language used. This, doubtless, will be the result. Friends of the parties do not expect further trouble.

(Col. Bergwin, whose name is used in the above, happening to be in the city yesterday, we called on him, and in a pleasant interview he declared that he had not even heard of any difference between Mr. Martin and Col. Means until shown this publication in the Post. He was engaged in Washington in the duties of his new office until Friday, and left there Friday night, arriving in Raleigh yesterday noon. He had heard no word of the alleged trouble. On Thursday he met Col. Means on the street in Washington, as he was going to the railroad depot, and turned and had a pleasant chat with him about current matters, but was not informed by Col. Means of any trouble, and knew nothing whatever of the matter. As far as he knew Senator Vance was not at Washington, and there is no truth in the above.—Ed. N. & O.)

THE COTTON CROP.

THE PRESENT STATUS NOT MATERIALLY DIFFERENT FROM 1912.

Returns Show Only a Slight Increase of a Large Increase of Acreage Over Last Year—Cold Weather Has Retarded the Crop.

By Southern Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—Returns of correspondents of the statistical division of the Department of Agriculture of June 11, show that over a large part of the cotton belt the germination and development of the plant have been retarded by cold weather and excessive rain, the latter having also the effect of retarding the work and belating the crop. In some localities dryness prevailed, and much of the seed failed to come up in consequence, and it is reported that the second planting was to a considerable extent a failure. Along the Mississippi and in the low lands much injury has been caused by overflows. In other localities the early planting is assigned as the cause of the poor stands while no inconsiderable injury from cut worms, lice etc., is also reported. The prospect of a good crop in much of the cotton territory is however, improving in consequence of more favorable weather. The average condition of the crop in consolidation of the reports is 55.6 as compared with 55.9 last year. The State average is as follows:—Virginia, 95; North Carolina, 87; South Carolina, 88; Georgia, 87; Florida, 98; Alabama, 82; Mississippi, 86; Louisiana, 87; Texas, 82; Arkansas, 89; Tennessee, 92.

Returns show only a slight increase of large increase of acreage planted as compared with last year. Considerable reduction of area actually planted resulted from overflows. The average percentage is 100.5. The State percentages of area in comparison with the acreage of last year are as follows: Virginia, 87; North Carolina, 104; South Carolina, 104; Georgia, 102; Florida, 100; Alabama, 100; Mississippi, 98; Louisiana, 101; Texas, 102; Arkansas, 93; Tennessee, 95.

It will be seen that the status of the cotton crop as compared with 1912, has not materially changed. The acreage has been slightly increased, but the conditions have correspondingly slightly decreased.

The Massachusetts

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—The big battleship Massachusetts was successfully launched from the shipyard of Cramps 959 this morning in the presence of secretary of the Navy Herbert, Attorney General Olney, the latter representing the State of Massachusetts, a number of distinguished naval and army officers and a multitude of 15,000 Miss Leila Herbert, daughter of the head of the Naval Department the christened the vessel with the customary, and prettily decorated bottle of champagne.

From Head to Foot

You feel the good that's done by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It purifies the blood. And through the blood it cleanses, repairs and invigorates the whole system.

In recovering from "La Grippe" or in convalescence from pneumonia, fever, or other wasting disease, nothing can equal it as an appetizing, restorative tonic to build up needed flesh and strength. It rouses every organ into natural action, promotes all the bodily functions, and restores health and vigor.

From early disease that comes from a torpid liver or impure blood, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp or Scrofulous affections, the "Discovery" is the only remedy so certain that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure in every case, you may have your money back.

For a perfect and permanent cure for Catarrh, take Dr. Sagg's Catarrh Remedy. Its proprietors offer $500 reward for any incurable case of Catarrh.

Tried to Rob Mr. Lamont

Chicago, June 8.—A thief attempted to pick Secretary Lamont's pocket at the Fair today. The Secretary did not lose anything, but he probably would have been minus his pocketbook but for the intervention of one of Capt. Bonfield's men. The pickpocket had gone through two of Mr. Lamont's pockets when the arrest was made.

The Commencement Exercises at the A. and M. College.

The work of the college will be exhibited at 4 p. m. Monday, June 12th. The Baccalaureate services will be delivered by Rev. Henry W. Battle, D. D., in the college chapel at 8:30 p. m. on Monday, June 12th.

On Wednesday, June 14th, at 11 a. m., addresses will be delivered by members of the graduating class, and diplomas will be given the graduates by President Holladay, and medals for industry will be presented by Hon. A. Leazar.

On Wednesday night, at 8:30 p. m., at Metropolitan Hall, Hon. Henry W. Battle will deliver an address before the faculty and students.

The public is cordially invited to attend all of the commencement exercises.

Remnant's straw matting at a price to suit you. Silk parasol for $1.00, worth $3.00. All clothing at cost at SWINDELL'S.

A CITIZEN.

The Commencement Exercises at the A. and M. College.

The work of the college will be exhibited at 4 p. m. Monday, June 12th. The Baccalaureate services will be delivered by Rev. Henry W. Battle, D. D., in the college chapel at 8:30 p. m. on Monday, June 12th.

On Wednesday, June 14th, at 11 a. m., addresses will be delivered by members of the graduating class, and diplomas will be given the graduates by President Holladay, and medals for industry will be presented by Hon. A. Leazar.

On Wednesday night, at 8:30 p. m., at Metropolitan Hall, Hon. Henry W. Battle will deliver an address before the faculty and students.

The public is cordially invited to attend all of the commencement exercises.

Remnant's straw matting at a price to suit you. Silk parasol for $1.00, worth $3.00. All clothing at cost at SWINDELL'S.

Book's Cotton Root Compound.

A recent discovery by an old physician. Successfully used for thousands of years. The only perfectly safe and reliable medicine discovered. Beware of imitations.

Medicines in place of this. Ask for Cotton Root Compound. Take no substitute, or imitations and cents in postage in letter, and we will send, sealed, by return mail. Full sized particulars in plain English, to ladies only, if desired.

Address: No. 27 North Second Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Sold in Raleigh and everywhere else by all druggists.

FOR SICK, NERVOUS AND NEURALGIC HEADACHE, BRAIN FATIGUE AND EXHAUSTION, USE TRIAL BOTTLE, 10 CENTS. Bromo-Seltzer.

Two Stepping Stones

to consumption ailments, which often seem trivial—a cold and a cough. Consumption thus acquired is rightly termed "Consumption from neglect."

Scott's Emulsion

not only stops a cold but it is remarkably successful where the cough has become deep-seated.

Scott's Emulsion is the richest of fat-foots yet the easiest fat-foot to take. It arrests waste and builds up healthy flesh.

Prepared by Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All druggists.

Mortgage Sale of Land.

By virtue of power conferred on me by certain mortgage deed, executed by Joseph Liphoch and wife, which said mortgage is duly recorded in the registry of Wake county, Deed No. 13, at Page 745, I will offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash at the court house in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on Monday, June 17th, 1913, at 12 o'clock, the property in said mortgage described, to-wit: a tract of land containing ninety-six acres (96 acres more or less) near the town of Morrisville, in said county, registered in the name of Joseph Mayberry, P. M. No. 1, Pendergrass, Wm. Clemens and Chase, and more particularly described in said mortgage. R. F. MONTAGUE, ATT'Y.

Raleigh, N. C., May 8, 1913.

Sale continued till Monday 12th.