

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

Report Of the Treasurer of the Cumberland County Bible Society, March 17, 1856.

Shortly after the last annual meeting the Board took measures to explore and re-supply our country with Bibles, for which purpose they secured the services of Mr. A. Graham at 50 cents per day and 20 per cent on amount of sales and collections. He was engaged in this work 230 days. He sold Bibles to the amount of $519 17

The whole of our country was thoroughly explored and supplied, and several districts in Harnett beyond the division. The sales at the Depository amount to $121 23. We have purchased of the parent society Bibles and Testaments to the amount of $707 93, and paid for them, and are now free from debt. We have, I suppose, about $75 worth of books on hand, and have in the Treasury $135 93, which may be invested in Bibles, and will be a sufficient supply for our Depository, leaving the collections now being made to be applied to the general cause.

There have been distributed at the Depository 28 common Bibles, 1 common Bible, 2 large Testaments and Psalms, 6 school and 6 cloth Testaments.

MONEY MATTERS.—DANGER AHEAD!

When a man spends more year by year, than he makes, going in debt all the time, his neighbors justly conclude that he is on the road to bankruptcy. That the people of North Carolina, as a whole, have been pursuing this dangerous course for some time past, is manifest, from the almost daily visits of brokers from other States, who return upon the banks those "promises to pay" with which foreign productions have been bought to excess. If we sold as much as we bought, the means to meet the brokers would of course be abundant. The banks would either have exchange or notes of banks of other States. But it is not so. The brokers carry off exchange when they can get it, and coin when they cannot. Our distant readers may be surprised to learn, that a single broker visited this place twice last week, and drew from the banks between $85,000 and $30,000. These visits are generally weekly, and the calls from $10,000 to $20,000; but they appear to be getting worse and worse. In Wilmington, we hear that there is almost a daily call of the kind.

The operations of the banks are of course necessarily cramped. They must be cautious how they issue notes which will generally return upon them within a week for redemption in exchange or specie.

The remedy most suggest itself to every man of intelligence; it is no one means to act upon it. Our merchants go on buying, as if they had no fear of pay-day.

DEATH OF AN OLD SOLDIER.—Sergeant John L. Hays, an old soldier of this place, and a soldier of the war 1812, died on Thursday last, and was buried with military honors on Saturday. Sergeant Hays was born on the day of the battle of Lexington, and was consequently 85 years of age. He was the son of the celebrated Molly Pitcher, who distinguished herself at the battle of Monmouth, and of whom Heady, in his life of Washington, gives the following account:

"It was during this part of the battle, [when Gen. Lee was struggling nobly against the overwhelming numbers that opposed him] that an Irishman while serving his gun, was shot down. His wife, named Molly, only twenty-two years of age, employed herself, while he loaded and fired his piece, in bringing water from a spring near by. While returning with a supply she saw him fall, and heard the officer in command order the gun to be taken to the rear. She immediately ran forward, seized the rammer, declaring that she would avenge his death. She fought her piece like a hero to the last. The next morning Grene, who had been struck with her bravery, presented her to Washington, who immediately promoted her to a sergeant, and afterwards had her put on the half-pay list for life. Previous to this she fired the last gun when the Americans were driven from Fort Mifflin."

"How rapidly they build houses now," said Tom to an acquaintance, as he pointed to a two-story house; "they commenced that building only last week, and they are already putting in the lights." "Yes, rejoined his friend, and next week they will put in the liver."

Singing by Congregation. The Washington street Orthodox Church at Beverly, after a variety of experience in having singing by a choir, last week voted to dispense with the services of a regular choir and have the singing done by the congregation. The new plan was tried on Sunday last with excellent success, the people joining in the singing with admirable promptness and good effect.

Reading Room, Lectures, &c. We are pleased to see that our enterprising Military Company, the Oak City Guards, are taking steps for the establishment of a "Reading Room," upon the Lyceum principle. It is their intention to establish a Library, procure the services of gentlemen to Lecture upon scientific subjects, and form an Association of a refining and elevating character.

To enable them to do so, an appeal is made to an enlightened public for subscriptions in money, books, &c. We sincerely hope their efforts will be crowned with the most abundant success.—Spirit of the Age.

Vacancy Filled. William G. Singleton, has been appointed by the President, Collector of Customs at Newbern, N. C., to fill the vacancy created by the death of Thomas S. Singleton.

Patrol Invention. Rev. B. M. Palmer, D. D., of Columbia, S. C., has been invited to take the pastoral charge of 1st Presbyterian Church on Abbeville.

What an Abolitionist! The property of Cassius M. Clay, the great Kentucky abolitionist, is advertised to be sold at auction, and includes twenty-two slaves, men, women and children!

Marshall Ney.—A correspondent of the Salisbury Watchman gives out a statement that Marshall Ney's execution was an abomination, and that he was a man of noble character, and was not done in this sort of way by military men, and any one who has seen an execution of a criminal by military law, will at once perceive that the thing is almost impossible.

Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods. Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes, Umbrellas, and Ready-made Clothing, HAY STREET, FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

Watches and Jewellery. JOHN C. PALMER has a large assortment of Watches, Jewellery, &c. which will be sold at moderate prices. Watches and Jewellery repaired in the best manner and warranted.

Notice.—Those indebted to Palmer & Company would do well by calling and settling their notes and accounts. We dissolved in June last. Mr. Ramsey has since died, and the balance will be put in their notes and accounts out for collection. JOHN C. PALMER.

The still small Voice. A writer on the new birth says, "O ten God does his great work in sinners' hearts so still and gently that nobody can tell just when it was done. They often doubt it themselves—they wonder whether there can be the new heart."

Especially when some young Christians speak of a great sudden change, it makes others say, "If that is the way we have to be converted, I can't be a Christian." Now I want to clear up that trouble; sometimes the change in feeling is as quiet as the sun's going over our heads at 12 o'clock—it makes no noise at all, but the shadow begins to fall the other way—the fruits of godliness begin to appear; and the renewed soul is enabled to say, "whereas I was blind, now I see."

Can't. I cannot get ready in time for public worship on the Sabbath morning. I am so tired on Saturday; so hard at work all the week. Could you get ready if you had the pleasant journey to take?

I cannot get awake in the house of God. I am so drowsy. Would you be drowsy, sitting to hear a will read, if you were expecting a legacy was left you, though the reading of it should last an hour?

I cannot find time for secret prayer, or reading the Scriptures in private. Rather say, I am not willing. Were you to receive triple wages for one hour's early rising, would you say, I cannot?

I cannot have family worship. I never was accustomed to it. Do you tell the beggar what he has to say? Can you calmly read in Jeremiah 10: 25, "Pour out thy fury upon the heathen, that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name," and not feel? And friend, will this excuse do you on a death bed?

The company of a good humor'd man is a perpetual feast. He is welcomed everywhere. Eyes glisten at his approach, and difficulties vanish in his cheering presence. Franklin's indomitable good humor did as much for his country in the old Congress, as Adam's fire or Jefferson's wisdom; and he clothed wisdom with smiles, and softened contentions minds into acquiescence. Keep in good humor!

A good conscience, a sound stomach, a clear skin are the elements of good humor. Get them and keep them, and—Beware to keep in good humor!

Accident—Loss of Life. On Thursday last, as the freight train was leaving Thomsville Station on the N. C. Rail Road, the brakeman, Mr. ALLEN, who had been coupling the cars, accidentally fell on the track and had one of his legs crushed by the moving train in a most shocking manner. A surgeon was immediately called and the fractured limb amputated, but the injuries sustained were of such serious character as to leave no hope of recovery. He lingered in great suffering until Saturday morning when he died.—Salis. Ban.

In Luck. Mr. J. Brown, of Hart county, Ga., who is described as the father of twenty-nine children, has discovered a rich vein of gold which yields from a small panful of earth a penny weight of gold. The old man and his little boys, with their mortars and pans, make from five to six dollars per day.

Spring Goods for 1856. At No. 29 Cheap Place, (One door above R. Smith's Corner.) I AM now receiving my Spring and Summer Goods, such as SILKS, SATENS, BRUSSELS, BATS, BOOTS, SHOES, BONNETS, &c. &c. which I intend selling at reduced prices to please the trade, and to enable me to get it. I intend selling goods a little cheaper for CASH this season than they have been sold in this market heretofore.

Some of our Newspapers are adopting the Cash system at lower prices; why not some Merchant follow? In this case I will sell in one case why not in the other. But I leave this pointer to you to discuss. One thing however I will say, and that is, I intend selling cheaper for Cash than I have ever sold before, and to test this matter, don't take my word for it, but call and see, and I think I will be able to prove to your entire satisfaction. I respectfully ask and see.

COOKE'S NEW MAP OF NORTH CAROLINA. SIZE, SIX FEET BY FOUR. THIS Large and Beautiful Map of North Carolina is now in the hands of the Engraver, and will be ready for delivery in a few months. For a full description of this Map, and the manner of sending in their names without delay to "W. D. Cooke, Raleigh, N. C." No Maps will be sold except by subscription. The price of the Map is $10.00 per copy, payable in advance by the delivery of $5.00. The author of this Map has been engaged for about four years in its construction, and has had access to all the surveys and documents in the State, and it is believed to be one of the most accurate published of any State in the Union. We solicit two recommendations from Governors Briggs and Graham, who have examined the manuscript.

EXECUTIVE ORDER. Raleigh, Jan. 26, 1856. Mr. William D. Cooke has for some time been engaged in the preparation of a Map of North Carolina, which he is about to publish. In preparing this Map, he has had the authority of the late General Assembly, had free access to all the Maps, Surveys and Documents in the different departments of the State, and has carefully collected all the information that would aid him in his work. For this reason, both public and private, he is authorized to publish the same. It is believed to be one of the most accurate published of any State in the Union. We solicit two recommendations from Governors Briggs and Graham, who have examined the manuscript. Very Respectfully, W. D. COOKE, Engraver.
