> GLEN ANNA FOR SALE. MITE Authorities of Glen Anna Female Seamary in view of the growing putronage of the school, expect to remove it at the close of next session, to Thomasvilla, where a spacious building is in course of arcvion They, therefore, offer for sale, the farm known as Glen Anna, with all the improvements. There are about 212 acces, a purtion being the finest orghard probably in North Carolian, which, if well tended, is thought by horticulturists to be worth $1000 a year. The improvements consist of a two story brick house, with large basement and attic, (nine rooms without the basement) two cottages, each sufficiently comfortable for small families, a large barn which cost $700, and other necessary outbuildings. The place is just a mile from the new Seminary and the Depot. Pupils could be hourded bere and attend the Seminary. This is probably the most desirable property likely to be offered for sale in Western Carolina. Guidlemen to the eastern part of the State, and others desiring to locate near a good school, are requested to attend the ensuing examination and see for themselves. It will be disposed of privately on good terms as to price and time. Apply to Mr. Joseph Saction,
