GLEN ANNA FOR SALE. JRHE Authorities of Glen Anna Founda-A Sommary in view of the growing natural age of the school, expect to remove it at the close of next session, to Thomasville, where a spacious building is in course of erection. They, therefore, offer for sale, the farm known as Glen Anna, with all the improvements. There are about 212 acres, a purtion being the finest orchard probably in North Carolina, which, if well tended, is thought by horticulturists to be worth $1000 a year. The improvements consist of a two story brick house, with large basement and attic, (nine rooms without the basement) two cuttages, each sufficiently comfortable for small families, a large barn which cost $700. and other necessary outbuildings. The place is just a mile from the new Seminary and the Depot. Pupils could be boarded becaand attend the Seminary. This is probably the most desirable property likely to be of-posed of privately on good terms as to price and time. Apply to Mr. Joseph Shelton, Thomasville, N. C. June, 1856.
