North Carolina Conference.

In the last issue of this paper, we gave a synopsis of the proceedings of the session of the Conference, up to Saturday evening, Dec. 5th.

We also sent to our pro tem. a communication continuing the narrative up to Monday night, the 7th inst. But this failed to reach its destination. We therefore resume, by noticing the sayings and doings of Saturday night and Sunday.

The anniversary of the Conference Missionary Society was held in the Court House on Saturday night, the 5th inst.

Elequent addresses were delivered by Dr. Sehen and Bishop Pierce; and about six hundred dollars were contributed, including a collection at the Methodist

On Sunday morning Bishop Pierce preached under the Rail Road shelter, to about an acre of people, thronging from all parts of the state. His sermon was interrupted by the passage of a train of cars through the congregation ; but under every disadvantage of the occasion, he preached an admirable sermon.

After preaching, the Bishop ordained the following brethren, to the order of dea-

Marquis L. Wood, Joseph Wheeler, Thomas L. Triplett, James W. Wheeler, Moses J. Hunt, James B. Bobbitt, Medicus H. Hight, Marcus C. Thomas, John L. Newby, Jesse A. Cuninggim, Joseph C. Thomas, Washington D. Meacham, Charles H. Alexander, Joshua Johnson, James Long, Harmon Eason, Ransom Rose, and George Pannill.

In the afternoon there was preaching in the Methodist, the Baptist, and the Presbyterian Churches. Dr. Sehon preached an eloquent sermon in the Methodist Church; after which the following persons

Oscar J. Brent, Washington B. Rich. ardson, James E. Mann, Isaac W. Avent, Isham H. Hill, Williamson Harris, Dougan C. Johnson, Minter Johnson, John

Rumley, and John Buie. At night the churches were thronged with multitudes, who listened to cloquent sermons, we trust not in vain. FIFTH DAY: Monday the fifth business day of the Conference, the session was opened with religious exercises, by R. I. Rev. W. H. Starr, of the Va. Conf. and agent of the American Colonization Society, was introduced to the Conference. The Trustees of R. M. College presented their report, which was read and referred to the Committee on Education. The committee on necessitous cases presented their report, which was adopted.

It was ordered that the Conference draw on the Conference Trustees for $108,00, in favor of the Joint Board of Finance. The vote by which Rev. Hartwell Arnold had been received on trial, was reconsidered; and it appearing that he had not been examined before the Quarterly Conference, according to the Discipline, he was permitted to withdraw his recommendation. It is due to state that this failure was in no sense the fault of Bro. Arnold.

The Conference adjourned, and met again at 3 o'clock, P. M., and was opened with religious exercises by J. Jamieson .-By request of the Bishop, J. Jamieson occupied the chair, during the afternoon ses-

The report of the Faculty of Warrenton Female College was received, and referred to the committee on Education.

The following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That the Conference draw upon the Conference Trustees for any amount not exceeding $150 00, of the Relief funds, to be appropriated to the use of Mrs. Eli-

Resolved, That the ministers of this Conference pledge themselves to raise, during the coming year, $300 00, to be applied to the use and benefit of Mrs. Eliza report was adopted, and will be published. The Bishop presented his written decision, in the case of R. O. Burton. Bro. Burton had been charged with mal-administration, in the trial of a local preacher on Hillsboro' station. The Bishop decided that Bro. Burton, as P. Elder, had not transcended his authority, but had erred in excluding two witnesses. A charge had also been made by Wm. Closs against R. O. Burton, of mal-adminstration, in the investigation of charges against a preacher, at Henderson, in March last. Much time had been devoted during the session to this matter, and able addresses had been delivered by the accuser and the accused. Bishop Pierce presented his decision in writing, which sustained the administration of Bro. Burton.

Bro. Closs then gave notice of his intention to take an appeal.

Ou motion of R. J. Carson, the case from Hillsbore', which was involved in the decision of the Bishop, was remanded for a new trial. The character of Bro. Burton passed. The following elders also passed an examination of character: J. H. Wheeler, Jas. Reid, R. T. Heflin, and

Bro. McTeyire, Editor of the N. O. Adrocate, in his Editorial correspondence, writes from the seat of the Mississippi ters we glean the following items:

The Conference numbers 110 members, and is, therefore, entitled to eight delegates to the General Conference

On the first ballot the following were elected : D. M. Wiggins, L. Pearce, J. G. Jones, C. K. Marshall, B M Drake, L. Campbell, H. H. Montgomery, and John

A member of this body, R. T. Jones, has been tried and expelled.

The Alabama Resolutions have passed-64 for, 10 against. The Holston Resolutions non-concurred in-7 for, 66 against.

The Missionary Anniversary, Saturday night, realized in each subscriptions about $1200, which considering the times, was liberal; the Anniversary of the Tract Society, on Monday night, about $70. Total for missions the past year, $10,705 65. For Bible collections, $3335.

Bishop Early preached on Sabbath and attended to the ordinations with a vigor quite unexpected in the state of health reported. Lawyers, who visit the Conference sessions, are impressed with his administrative ability and prompt decisions of law.

The Bishop's health daily improves. Travel and official labor seem to recruit him and he will soon be himself again, notwithstanding the severe attack of sickness a few months ago.

A Mishap.

After the adjournment of Conference on Friday night, we took the cars for Raleigh. The first car in which we were seated was filled with smoke from the stove .-To escape this annoyance, we assayed to pass into the front car, at about half past two o'clock, A. M. While stepping from one car to the other, the handle of a portable writing desk gave way, and the desk fell

This occurred about two miles below Depot,, and with a lightwood torch, accompanied by the agent at the Depot, we walked backed to the scene of disaster. The desk had fallen under the wheels, and was torn to atoms. Its contents were scattered over a space of nearly two hundred yards. All the papers of material value, so far as we can recollect them, were recovered. Between three and four hundred dollars in money was also found, being the whole amount in the desk, except about five dollars, which was lost. Among the papers lost were several letters, received at Conference, and a number of lists of Post offices which the preachers had given us. No serious inconvenience to this office will accrue from this accident.

Raleigh Female Seminary.

It will be seen by the advertisement, and by the list of appointments, that the Rev. D. R. Bruton will have charge of this institution. Brother Pell could no longer resist his inclination to return to the pastoral work; he retires from the Seminary with the confidence and love of all its patrons. Bro. Bruton's appointment was made, with the single view of the greatest good to the greatest number. His experience and qualifications warrant good government and sound scholarship to the patrons of the Raleigh Female Seminary. It will be noticed that the rates of board and tuition have been somewhat reduced; and we feel the utmost confidence in warmly recommending this school to an extended patronage.
