

CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

PUBLISHED BY A JOINT STOCK COMPANY UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE.

VOL. VI.—NO. 45.

RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 16, 1863.

THREE DOLLARS A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Christian Advocate Publishing Company

TRUSTEES: Wm. H. CRAWFORD, President, G. G. FRANKLIN, Secy., J. M. HINDS, and J. H. HARRIS.

MANAGER: A. M. GORDON, Esq.

TERMS.

The Advocate is published every Wednesday morning, at 75 cents per copy in advance. It is published weekly for the State of North Carolina. It is published for the State of North Carolina.

Communications.

If you send me a letter, please send it to the Editor. I will be glad to receive it. I will be glad to receive it. I will be glad to receive it.

Dear Sir, I have received your letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear from you. I will be glad to receive it. I will be glad to receive it.

The cause of the South is suffering of our friends and country. Let us each and every wash our hands in innocence and then "it must follow as the night, the day," that whatever is best will be given to us as individuals and as a nation.

The cause of the South is suffering of our friends and country. Let us each and every wash our hands in innocence and then "it must follow as the night, the day," that whatever is best will be given to us as individuals and as a nation.

A. W. MANUM.

For the Advocate
"A week's abounding in the work of the Lord,"

Man must work; this is God's decree. But what kind of work must he perform? The work of the Lord. All work should be done with a view to the glory of the Lord. He who works for the Lord will be blessed.

Man must work; this is God's decree. But what kind of work must he perform? The work of the Lord. All work should be done with a view to the glory of the Lord. He who works for the Lord will be blessed.

Man must work; this is God's decree. But what kind of work must he perform? The work of the Lord. All work should be done with a view to the glory of the Lord. He who works for the Lord will be blessed.

For the Advocate,
Wm. H. CRAWFORD.

Dear Sir, I have received your letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear from you. I will be glad to receive it. I will be glad to receive it.

many times his manly face knotted up with a glow of heavenly delight as he talked of the moment. On one of these occasions, conversing with a plebeian friend, he asked himself, "she that they would, at the same time giving reasons that convinced him." His keen eye sparkled with delight, and he remarked, "I shall be given a home, some home for you, and I will know you when you come."

And so it is, the pure spirit of N. A. Kelly has gone to a better home, his name is desired heaven. At a late hour of the day he was taken to the hospital, and he died at the hospital, his death being a result of the wounds he received in the South.

On their search of hearts, cold and selfishness are all that find things. I do not know where to go, I have no place to go. I have no place to go. I have no place to go.

On their search of hearts, cold and selfishness are all that find things. I do not know where to go, I have no place to go. I have no place to go. I have no place to go.

Our Texts—Was Christ in agony for them, and shall we remain unmoved about them? Shall that be light upon our souls, which weighed so heavily upon His?

Selections.

Sacred Music.

It is a noteworthy fact that the congregation singing has declined in proportion to the advance of age. It is a noteworthy fact that the congregation singing has declined in proportion to the advance of age.

It is a noteworthy fact that the congregation singing has declined in proportion to the advance of age. It is a noteworthy fact that the congregation singing has declined in proportion to the advance of age.

It is a noteworthy fact that the congregation singing has declined in proportion to the advance of age. It is a noteworthy fact that the congregation singing has declined in proportion to the advance of age.

It is a noteworthy fact that the congregation singing has declined in proportion to the advance of age. It is a noteworthy fact that the congregation singing has declined in proportion to the advance of age.

Consolation.

They who would always rejoice, must derive their joy from a source which is invariably the same; in other words, from Jesus, who is "the same yesterday, to-day, and forever." O that soul that a person what an office, what a life, what a love, what a death, does it recall to our minds!

They who would always rejoice, must derive their joy from a source which is invariably the same; in other words, from Jesus, who is "the same yesterday, to-day, and forever." O that soul that a person what an office, what a life, what a love, what a death, does it recall to our minds!

They who would always rejoice, must derive their joy from a source which is invariably the same; in other words, from Jesus, who is "the same yesterday, to-day, and forever." O that soul that a person what an office, what a life, what a love, what a death, does it recall to our minds!

They who would always rejoice, must derive their joy from a source which is invariably the same; in other words, from Jesus, who is "the same yesterday, to-day, and forever." O that soul that a person what an office, what a life, what a love, what a death, does it recall to our minds!