A Mother's Love.

It is the sweet perfume of lifethe undying odor of childhood's withered flowers-the blessed incense from the alter of the soulthe pure vestal light in the penetralia of the heart-the load stone that draws us from this sin strained earth and the guiding star that points the way to heaven, in every able blessing that softens the felon's hearts and makes the burning tears flow at the sad remembrance of days when he, in spotless purity, trict.

Through the wearisome days of hancy and the dreary years of childhood, and the perilous dawing of manhood, a mother's love is ever or good and truth. It purifies the hearts and revives the soul like the fragrant dews of Heaven descendng "upon the just and the unjust." and like seed sown in good ground t brings fourth its fruits. The influence of her love is still felt, even when the daises have bloomed and thingled their withered petals mantled her sileat grave.

THE REPUBLIC.

Believing that the inestimable privileges of self-government guaranteed by the Federal Constitution involve corresponding duties, and that among these are sleepless vigilance and the devotion of the best thoughts and efforts of the citizen in aid of the preservation and development of our country and its institutions, we have determined, in futherance of these objects, to establish a monthly magazine devoted to the discussion of the science of green mentals. cussion of the science of government and to a review of political events.

Assuming that the legitimate object of good government is provision for the welfare and happiness of the citizen, his physical comfort, educational growth, and moral development, The Republic will bring to this test all economic questions, political action and governmental, messages. measures.

Holding firmly that in a republic, constituted as ours is, political parties are essential, and that they furnish the best, not to say the only means of that constant and severe scrutiny to which power should be always subjected, The Republic will insist that the country is not only safe, but safest with its destiny in the keeping of the Republican party; that measures of reform and progress must be carried forward through its in-
