THE GIRL WE LIKE.

The successful girl is usually a popular one, and her popularity is derived from the little things she does and says in life. They may not at the time impress a person, but in the end they must surely do so.

The girl who is popular with men and women is she who appreciates the fact that she cannot have the first choice of everything in the world.

She is the girl who is not aggressive and does not find joy in inciting aggressive people.

She is the girl who never causes pain with a thoughtless tongue.

She is the girl who, when you invite her to any place, compliments you by looking her best.

She is the girl who makes the world a pleasant place because she is pleasant herself.

PROMINENT PEOPLE.

The Sultan of Turkey likes sports and the theatre. He is well versed in the European drama.

Mme. Zola is about to sell the villa just out of Paris, which was her husband's summer home for a quarter of a century. Zola developed the place as his own fortunes expanded.

DEATH OF MRS. WILLIAM N. ANDREWS.

A telegram was received in this city Sunday morning, announcing the death of this esteemed woman occurred at the residence of her son-in-law, Capt. Joseph H. Green, at New Bern, last Sunday at 2:25 a. m., in the 86 year of her age.

Mrs. Andrews was born in this city, where she spent the greater part of her life, and was the loving wife of the late Mr. Wm. N. Andrews, one of Raleigh's well-known citizens. Mrs. Andrews was a most amiable woman and was beloved by all who knew her.

The remains reached this city Monday evening, accompanied by Capt. and Mrs. Joseph H. Green and daughter, Mrs. Plummer.

The funeral services were held at the grave, Rev. Dr. Pittenger officiating.

The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Messrs. Alex. Stronach, Chas. B. Park, Ben. Moore, B. R. Lacy, John T. Pullen and N. B. Broughton.

Mrs. Andrews was an aunt of the Business Manager of THE HARBINGER.

GOVERNMENT BY INJUNCTION.

In these days of "Government by Injunction," it seems that when a law is needed to prevent workmen from obtaining their just portion of what they produce an injunction is resorted to, and some judge who was formerly a corporation attorney is appealed to to grant it.

One of the latest and most drastic injunctions ever granted was that by Judge Adams of the Federal Court at St. Louis, Mo., against the officers of the various unions of trainmen employed by the Wabash system. The injunction absolutely forbids the men from going on strike. While it does not say that no individual must leave his employment, it would have the same effect were the officers of the union to ask for more pay.

Officials of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen declare that President Ramsey acted in bad faith, as he took advantage of an extension of time from noon to 5 p. m. asked for and given him to come to a decision to go into court and obtain the injunction. The men will obey the order, but will also make a legal fight to have it dissolved.

NEW HAVEN R. R. STRIKE.

The strike of the car men on the New Haven road, which has been stubbornly resisted by the railroad authorities, is about to be settled favorably to the strikers by the interposition of J. Pierpont Morgan, who, in order to stave off a continuance of the strike, which would have crippled the system, advised the railroad authorities to accede to the demands of the men. There is no doubt but that his advice will be taken.

President Roosevelt has received from President Zelaya of Nicaragua a stuffed eagle which was shot recently by the sender. President Zelaya is almost as much of a sportsman as President Roosevelt.

Editorial Notes.

Read the new ad. of W. D. King, about fish.

The fishing season has opened. The hunting season closed Saturday.

Last Tuesday was St. Patrick's Day. He was Ireland's patron saint.

Don't fail to read the new double column ad. of Horton & Turner, groceries.

Mr. Dan. Harris has moved his place of business to E. Martin street.

Read the new double-column ad. of B. W. Upchurch in another column.

Be sure to read "Home Rule" article in this issue. It will give parents some points.

Mr. Jas. G. Upchurch will run as candidate for Alderman in the 2d district of the Third Ward.

Mr. Ed. Nelson is almost "keeping up with the elevator" on the Mutual office machine. Ed's coming.

Mr. Will Woods, the lightning linotype manipulator, is holding down the Raleigh Times' machine.

Mr. Thomas Badger's card, announcing his candidature for the office of Mayor is in this issue. Read it.

The excavation of the Tucker lot on S. Wilmington street is being carried on at a rapid rate. Two fine brick stores will be erected thereon.

The original poem on "Our Fashionable Bustles" is an answer to the prose article in last week's HARBINGER, copied from the Atlanta News. It is a good one. Read it.

The deadly pistol is in evidence again. Dr. Baker shot Dr. Bass in front of the postoffice in Tarboro Monday morning, quite seriously. Dr. Baker is out on a heavy bail, although Dr. Bass is dead.

Mr. W. C. Hufham has accepted the ad. frame on the News and Observer, and the "get up" of the ads. show a master's hand. He and Mr. Stallings, foreman and ad. setter on the Raleigh Times, are bosses of the "art preservative."

Some office-holders talk real pretty about what a good friend they are to the working classes before election, when they are fishing for their votes. But after they get the office, they don't care a tinker d—n for the mechanic or working man. Let them lookout for an explosion when they want to be re-elected. Verb. Sap.

Brick and sand is on hand to pave the sidewalk of the property of Mrs. Florence Tucker on S. McDowell street, between Davie and Martin streets. The walling and terracing have been finished. The plot is beginning to present a beautiful appearance to the eye.

To the Citizens of Raleigh.
I hereby announce myself a candidate for Mayor of the city of Raleigh, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.
THOMAS BADGER.

To the Citizens of Raleigh.
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of City Tax Collector, subject to nomination by city Democratic primaries.
