CITY IN BRIEF.

Don't forget the organ recital tonight. The firm of Tuckers is making rapid improvements in their store. The August crop report is in the hands of printers it will appear the last of the week. Miss Hattie Marsh for so long connected with the Norris Dry Goods firm has accepted a position with Tucker and company. During the organ recital tonight a collection will be taken up for the benefit of the parsonage of the Edenton Street Methodist church. "Only a farmers Daughter" opens the Academy of Music Friday night week, September 6. After that at theatres come thick and fast. Orders are being issued from police headquarters to persons who have failed to make sidewalk improvements to do so. There is a penalty for failure. Private Chas. Bunch won the medal last night at the prize drill of the Governor's Guard which took place at the Armory. Sergeant Bashford was a close contestant. Much interest was manifested last night at the meeting at Caraleigh. After the services, the congregation was treated to a watermelon feast. Fifty fine ones were served. Julius Lewis & Co. received today a car load of the famous "All Right" stores. They are the quickest and best heaters and everybody should see them. The tax books outside of Raleigh township have been completed and will be turned over to the Commission on Monday. Register of Deeds Rogers has a big job off his hands. "Sam and Dave," the only originals in their line in the state, tell us that they continue to do good business, not withstanding the dull season. It may be depended upon that the latest can always be had at Berwanger's. Mr. Jos. G. Brown, the genial president of the Citizen's National Bank has moved into his new home, on the corner of Morgan and Dawson streets. A meeting has been conducted several miles from the city on the Rock Quarry road by laymen of the "Tabernacle" church. The place is known as "Bush Arbor." The services have been quite successful. We were shown some very fine potatoes this morning of the Bunch-Gam variety. They were raised by Mr. George Schellen. The vines of the Bunch Gam do not scatter, but grow in a bunch. The crowds which visit Pullen Park are surprisingly large. The people will take advantage of the cheap riding on the cars. 'Tis the surest way to cool off on a hot sultry day. Parties riding are growing in popularity. Mr. J. C. Green, of Danville, connected with the American Tobacco Company was in the city yesterday. Mr. Green was a former citizen of Raleigh, but has not been here before 8 years. He says Raleigh has moved forward with a view. Mrs. Charley Patterson, of Youngsville, formerly of Raleigh, and niece of Mr. J. S. Ellis, of the Yarrow, is very ill and her friends are apprehensive as to her condition. She has many friends in Raleigh who hope for her recovery. Mr. Ellis left today for Youngsville. Mr. Isaac Langston, the well known character from our country suburb, "Rhamkatta," was in the city yesterday amusing a crowd on the question of the day with his versatile talk. Mr. Langston said that Sibley's silver speech had not changed a vote in "Rhamkatta." Mr. Langston is an original gold bug. The Raleigh Electric Company have been putting in lights at the Park Hotel for some time. Saturday night the building was illuminated for the first time. It attracted the attention of passers-by, presenting a beautiful appearance. There are over two hundred incandescent lights in the building.
