WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1896.

Mr. Puffer says in an interview in the Philadelphia Record that the new silver party which he advocates, will draw men from both the old parties.

WITHIN a week the price of Bessemer iron in Pittsburgh has advanced nearly $1 per ton, and is now at the highest point reached since the latter part of 1891, when production was at the greatest rate ever known.

A LETTER to the editor of the Press-Visitor from one of North Carolina's best and most patriotic men, and one who has held one of the highest offices within the gift of the State, says: "I am rejoiced to see that you have come back to Raleigh, and that you will edit a paper of your own."

Mr. CHARLES S. HEARD, the Seaboard Air-Line representative at Augusta, has a card in the The New York Evening Post in which he protests against that paper's sweeping statements in regard to the South's alleged murder record.

LYNCHING NOT CONFINED TO THE SOUTH.

At New Richmond, Ohio, the other day, a crowd of respectable citizens took Noah Anderson, a negro murderer, from the custody of the marshal and swung him up to a tree, leaving him there until he was dead.

old man who had not an essay in the county, and nothing would satisfy them but swift vengeance. This is only one of many instances which go to prove that lynch-law is no Southern barbarism.

Itching, burning, scaly and crusty skin scalps of infants cleansed and healed and quiet sleep restored by Johnson's Oriental Soap, medicinal and toilet, two large cakes 25 cts.

Levi Thornton and Mrs. Linda Fiddler of Coal Run, Ky., were wedded the other day. The groom was 81 years old, the bride 20, and each had been married five times previously.

A clear, soft, rosy complexion is the desire of every lady. Why not give Johnson's Oriental Soap a trial. There is nothing to compare with it as a skin beautifier.

Daniel Scheene, who, it is said, once saved the life of the old Emperor of Germany, has applied to the poor authorities of Denver for assistance.

The way to reach catarrh is through the blood. Johnson's Sarsaparilla and Celery treats this disease successfully. Try it and you will not be disappointed.

Two Americans, Jules Stewart, the artist, and Paul Wayland, the sculptor, were recently made chevaliers of the Legion of Honor.

For insomnia, sleeplessness, nervousness, hysteria and all forms of nervous exhaustion and debility, there is but one remedy, Johnson's Sarsaparilla and Celery works directly upon the nerve centers and never fails to cure.

Abram S. Hewitt, the well-known New York reformer, was professor of mathematics at Columbia college fifty years ago.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve - The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required.

Japanese Pellets are small and mild, easy to take, no griping, the most pleasant effects attend their use. Fifty doses, 25 cents.

Love Divine is the name of a negro recently arrested at Lexington, Ky., for stealing a wagon-load of tools.

The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them."

John Thomas, a Philadelphian, is now 113 years old, and is hale and hearty.

Try Electric Bitters as a remedy for your troubles? If not, get a bottle now and get relief. This medicine has been found to be especially adapted to the relief and cure of all female complaints.
