

ANOTHER BOND ISSUE

Will Almost Certainly Be Made.

WILL BE NEXT MONTH.

Negotiations are said to be on foot between the syndicate and the Treasury.

TO-DAY'S MARKETS.

Cotton Again Shows Decline Caused by the Gold Exports.

GRAIN MARKETS.

FOR ELECTROCUTION

A Man Aged 90 Years, and a Woman Sentenced in New York.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Judge Ramsey today sentenced Charles N. Davis, a murderer 60 years old, Anna Shannon Cohoes and George Smith to electrocution in Dannemora prison during the week beginning October 27th.

By Telegram to the Press-Visitor.

By Telegram to the Press-Visitor.

By Telegram to the Press-Visitor.

By Telegram to the Press-Visitor.

By Telegram to the Press-Visitor.

By Cable to the Press-Visitor.

By Cable to the Press-Visitor.

By Telegram to the Press-Visitor.

By Telegram to the Press-Visitor.

A MOURNFUL COLUMN

Four Deaths in Raleigh in Two Days.

TWO WERE INFANTS

And One Consumptive Veteran Jones—Mr. Hicks' Sad Death—The Funerals.

The notices of four deaths in Raleigh with the funerals since the last issue of this paper on Saturday afternoon, looks gruesome in the extreme.

Mr. Jones was about fifty years of age, but had been an inmate for as long a term as any one of the veterans.

On Saturday afternoon the life of the little eight-month-old child of engineer W. T. Horton, of the Sea board Air Line, passed away at the home of his father.

A TWO CENT RATE

Secured for the Silver Convention, Wednesday Week.

Encouraging reports have been received relative to the attendance on the silver convention which assembles in this city Wednesday week.

Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith this morning received a letter from Mr. Egerson, of the Atlanta Coast Line relative to the railroad rates.

A Crazy Negro Took the Pulpit.

Mr. T. L. Eberhardt has received a new buggy from Philadelphia with rubber cushion tires.

A BABY FELL HEADLONG.

Pitched From a Car into Fayetteville Streets Paving Stone—Another Baby Tumbled.

About five o'clock yesterday afternoon a street car was rounding the corner at Morgan street and heading down Fayetteville. At this curve there is a considerable jar as the curve is turned.

When the lurch came, baby caught the centrifugal motion, lost his hold and pitched head, long to the street, striking his curly head and shoulders on the paving stones.

Yesterday seemed to be an unfortunate one for babies on street cars. A little before this a car stopped to let off a woman and her child at the Baptist Church corner.

MORRIS MEARES' ATTRACTIONS.

Some Good Drawing Cards Within the Next Two Months.

Manager Meares has booked some excellent attractions for Raleigh theatre goes which will appear here within the next two months.

Pat your weather eye over this list: "Peck's Bad Boy," one of yesteryear's standbys will appear on next Friday evening, the twentieth.

James B. Mackie, in Grimé's "Colossal Door" will hold the boards early in October.

Great Billy Yann, and his minstrels will hit the town on Oct. 15.

Virginia and North Carolina Companies Make an Agreement.

The much-talked-of fertilizer consolidation has now assumed practical form.

It is understood that this organization has bought out the following concerns: Allison & Addison, James G. Tinsley & Co., Atlantic and Virginia Fertilizing Company, of Richmond, Va.; Davis & White, of Petersburg; Old Dominion Guano Company, and Norfolk and Carolina Chemical Company, of Norfolk, Va.; and Durham Fertilizer Company, of Durham, N. C.

Dr. Hughes and Mrs. Hughes, of Newbern, who have been here for several days left this afternoon for their home.

A REMARKABLE MEETING

Over $9,000 Raised at Presbyterian Church.

LIBERAL DONATIONS.

A Handsome New Edifice Will be Reared—Mrs. Read Gave $2,000—Julius Lewis $1,000.

That was a remarkable meeting at the Presbyterian Church yesterday morning. The sum of $9,900 was raised there in a little over an hour's time for the erection of a new church.

The meeting had been duly announced and a goodly number of people were in attendance. They came with a unit of purpose and the result of that meeting, which is noted elsewhere shows how well they accomplished their purpose.

The finance committee is composed of about 30 members and Mr. Alf A. Thompson is Chairman. The Building Committee is composed of about ten members and Mr. Julius Lewis is Chairman.

Mrs. E. G. Read gave $2,000, Julius Lewis gave $1,000, Mrs. E. E. Moffitt and H. W. Jackson gave $400 each.

Mrs. E. G. Read gave $2,000, Julius Lewis gave $1,000, Mrs. E. E. Moffitt and H. W. Jackson gave $400 each.

The prettiest and the most costly engine that was ever in Raleigh came in at Johnson street Saturday.

It is patented after the now famous "954" with many improvements.

The engine is known as 546, and is just from the shops of the Richmond Locomotive Works.

It is patented after the now famous "954" with many improvements.

It is patented after the now famous "954" with many improvements.

It is patented after the now famous "954" with many improvements.

It is patented after the now famous "954" with many improvements.

MUSIC IN THE GUITAR!

If You Want to Find Out How Much, Hear Prof. Bain.

Some nights ago a quiet, unobtrusive-looking gentleman walked into Royber's candy store and asked to see some guitars.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

Prof. Bain, for that is the player's name, is here for the purpose of starting classes in the mandolin, banjo and guitar and teaching them a new method of his own.

NEWS GATHERED IN A DAY

Condensed and Put in a Readable Form.

FACTS AND GOSSIP

Watermelons are scarce. They are not so large now.

The Jewish New Year begins Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock.

Governor Carr has offered rewards for five of the Madison county prisoners who escaped Thursday night.

Applicants for license to practice law will be examined on Monday, the 30th inst, in the Supreme Court room.

There are 111 veterans at the Soldiers' Home at present. There are 20 counties in the State which are not represented.

The battalion of cadets at the Agricultural College will be of three companies. The brick work on the new building is nearly completed.

There is a difference of opinion about the corn crop among farmers. Some insist that it is the best in years while others assert that reports have been exaggerated.

At Burlington Saturday a very prominent mill man and well known citizen of the State, made a wager that the price of cotton would reach ten cents by March 1, 1896.

The trolley on the Blount street car line broke Saturday night and people had to walk home with their market supplies. Sunday morning the silent, night workers had put the line in good condition.

Editor Hal Ayer, of the Concavision, is a proud man these days. Subscriptions to his paper have been rolling in from the wilds of the country in large numbers.

Dr. Duffy, chairman of the Board of Public Charities, and Mr. S. W. Reid, of Mecklenburg, will in a few days make the annual inspection of the State Hospital and Deaf and Dumb Institution at Morganton.

Mr. Walton E. Stone has been released from jail. His brother-in-law Dr. W. H. Edwards of Wake Forest and Mr. A. E. Stone of this city went the $500 bond. The case comes up Monday week. Mr. Stone's friends say he will be able to establish his innocence.

Sam Jones has got Winston in a ferment. He is holding four services a day in a large tobacco warehouse which is crowded at every service. He tells the Winston people, as he always does, that they have a wicked town. He has even pitched into the staid old Moravians.

Master Jesse Ball, son of townsman Mr. Joe Ball, is the youngest boy at Mebane school, and probably youngest boy who this year left Raleigh to go off to school. He is only thirteen years of age, but is taking a stand in his class which is calculated to set a mark for some of his older school-mates.

The little ladies who gave the "Living Monument" entertainment on Friday night took in the round sum of $22. The entertainment was such a success that it has been decided to repeat it on tomorrow night. It is one of the prettiest entertainments ever given in Raleigh and all will be pleased who go to see it at Edenton Street Sunday School room. There will be no charge for admission.

The Priests assisting were Rev. Dr. Sutton, Rev. Dr. Smedes, Rev. Walker, Rev. A. B. Hunter, Rev. I. McK. Pittenger. The new deacon is Rev. J. H. Griffith, of Virginia.

The September crop report gives the following as the percentages of condition as compared with average years: Cotton, 78; rice, 80; peanuts, 87; peas, 90; corn, 85; tobacco, 81; sorghum, 91; sweet potatoes, 87; meadows and pastures, 86. The preparation of land for wheat, as compared with former years, is 93, and oats 80. All these are round numbers, omitting fractions.