The Leading Afternoon Paper in the State.

The Press-Visitor publishes all the news every day and has double the circulation of any daily ever published in Raleigh.

TELEPHONE, 108
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1895.

It is said there is a prediction for severe cold weather this winter, to be followed by warmer weather next summer, with slight changes in the temperature intervening and possible thunder-showers in the afternoon. This is a sure thing.

We are informed that statements to the effect that the recent decision of Judge Simonton regarding the Bonasack machine effected the American Tobacco Company are without foundation. The decision was with reference to certain technicalities in connection with the Bonasack machine and in no wise involved the American Tobacco Company.

The passage of the anti-prize fighting bill by the Texas Legislature is not only a victory for Governor Culbertson, who called a special session to prevent the Dallas fight, but it is also a credit to a State where lawlessness is supposed to thrive unmolested. Such prompt legislation to protect the good name of a commonwealth deserves especial praise, and the energy of Governor Culbertson in bringing it about will commend him to all well meaning people.

Representative Tarney says that three months' trip to Europe will cause an American's love of country to grow like the locks of Samson. The congressman found Paris a de lusion and a snare, even in its vices, being tame and dreary. The British horse guards struck him as being absurd dandies, and the finest looking soldiers he saw were in Italy and Austria. The European barber was the worst he ever encountered. But what impressed him more than anything else was the silence that greeted the German emperor when he drove out with the empress. Not a cheer was heard, though the street was crowded, and not a hat was raised.

The report of the New York Clearing House Association shows that not a single silver dollar nor a solitary silver certificate was used by banks in settlement of accounts with each other last year. This kind of money was as successfully boycotted as if it had been Confederate currency, and not a dollar of it is used by banks of any kind, at any time, in business transactions within their own circles. Silver is accepted and paid out by banks to their customers, but it goes no farther in banking business. With them it is the money of the people, while greenbacks, gold, and gold certificates are sacredly hoarded as the money of bankers. Greenbacks are gathered in by banks to be used in depicting the gold reserve, and gold is withheld from circulation to force more frequent bond sales. It is a clever scheme for banking Uncle Sam, and so far it has proved successful. There seems no way to stop it until either the greenbacks are withdrawn or the government goes out of the banking business, and the next Congress must decide that question. The claim that silver is the money of the people is really a fact, for through the system of boycotts employed by the banks but little else than silver or silver certificates goes into general circulation.

It should be gratifying to the folks in this section that they did not suffer from the recent frost. West of here very little of the crop had been gathered and the loss was heavy.

They All Read It.

The circulation of the Press-Visitor has grown to such proportions that it has outstripped all our expectations. It demonstrates that the people will take a paper which gives them the full telegraphic news of the day, the market reports from the great commercial and trade centers, and from six to seven columns each day of the local happenings of Raleigh.

It is practically a fact that every family in Raleigh takes the Press-Visitor and every man, woman and child in the city reads it.

When the consolidated Press-Visitor went into the field five weeks ago it started with a circulation of two thousand. Since that time our subscription books show an increase of several hundred.

As an advertising medium the Press-Visitor was never equalled in this city, and the strain upon our columns caused by new advertisements coming in is such that it will be necessary for us to enlarge the paper if many other advertisers want to be accommodated. Those who want advertising space in our columns are advised to come quickly.

ECONOMY

May be necessary in many ways when dollars are scarce and wants many, but it is not desirable to practice it in the purchase of food, which is life. Below a certain standard food imperfectly nourishes; up to that standard it costs a reasonable price. We never want more than a reasonable price for our groceries.

RAPID SALES

Give our customers the benefit of close bargains. We never keep anything that is not the best of its kind, and we only want a fair profit on what we invest in it.

CHOICE GROCERIES

Always in stock and promptly delivered when ordered.
