INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
 Notice of Dissolution—Barbee & Thompson.
 Choice—Thomas Donaldson.
 PERSONAL.
 Mr. E. L. Freeman is in the city.
 Rev. Hagle, of Henderson arrived here this afternoon.
 We are glad to see Mr. W. B. Morrison in the city today looking well and handsome.
 Miss Green, of Franklin, who has been visiting here during the fair, returned home today.
 Miss Nellie Murray left yesterday for Oklahoma. After visiting in the territory for three months, she will visit relatives in Texas.
 Miss Kate Prescott, of Weldon, who was crowned "Queen of Love and Beauty" at the tournament ball during fair week, returned to her home yesterday morning.
 Mrs. H. M. Ivey and children who have been visiting friends in the city, left for their home in Portsmouth, Va., today. Miss Bettie Ruth accompanied them for a month's visit to Portsmouth.
 The Greensboro Record says: Mr. R. B. McKennie, of the popular clothing firm of Moore & McKennie, is soon to join the grand army of Bonedlets and is the happiest looking man we have seen in some time. We must say he was very fortunate to win the affections of one of Greensboro's fairest daughters, Miss Katherine Seales, a niece of the late Governor A. M. Seales. The nuptials will take place early in November. Mr. McKennie is originally from Salisbury where he is very well known and has many friends. He has been here since January and is making progress as a business man.

In Court Today.
 The proceedings of the Civil Court dragged along today with the usual amount of argumentative discussion of law points. The jury nodded in its box, and the room was nearly clear of spectators.
 The whole day was taken up with one of the Shaffer Bedcoe cases, of which there are several. Some have already been decided; others have yet to come to trial. J. Logo Harris represented Mr. Bedcoe; Thos. R. Parrnell, Mr. Shaffer. The suit involves several pieces of land to the immediate south of Raleigh, recently sold under a sheriff's deed.
 Football Notes—Janeway Coaching.
 If North Carolina don't beat Virginia at football Thanksgiving, it will not be for any lack of opportunity the University team has had for developing into a star aggregation. Trenchard, Princeton's famous end and captain, has been coaching for weeks. Now comes Janeway, the big guard who played with Princeton. He arrived at Chapel Hill several days ago and is devoting his time to the development of the centre, guards and tackles.

Dissolution of Partnership.
 The firm of Barbee & Thompson is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Alf A. Thompson retiring. The business will be continued by Mr. E. B. Barbee.
 (Signed) E. B. BARBEE,
 ALF A. THOMPSON.
 Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 30, 1908.

Under the advice of my physician I have concluded to retire temporarily from business and beg to cordially commend Mr. E. B. Barbee, who continues the business of Barbee & Thompson, to the patron of the old firm. My connection with Mr. Barbee is severed with sincere regret, not only as partners, but friends. Our relations have been, without exception, thoroughly cordial. With every facility for conducting the business, an entire knowledge of the wants of the trade, and a fixed intention to give value received, there is every reason to assure those interested that dealings with Mr. Barbee will be entirely satisfactory.
 Alf A. Thompson.

I desire to thank our patrons for their patronage and solicit a continuation of the same with the assurance that I will do my best to please them.
 E. B. BARBEE.

For photos made go to Thomas Donaldson's, 100 N. W. Corner of W. and S. Sts., Raleigh, N. C.

Several fine views, a pair of landscapes also have many views. Inquire of Mr. Donaldson, 100 N. W. Corner of W. and S. Sts., Raleigh, N. C.

For Sale.
 Half interest in a paying manufacturing business in the city of Raleigh. Address Box 212.

For Sale.
 Home with nice rooms, good for city, water and bath room, all in good shape. Apply to W. L. Davis, 222 North Salisbury street.

Lost.
 A valuable bunch of about eleven keys belonging to Fire Department, forward for return to J. W. Mangum.

To Tax-Payers of Raleigh Township.
 I respectfully call your attention to the fact that the months given by law for the collection of taxes have nearly expired and that I shall be forced to collect by distress unless the taxes are paid promptly. I am forced to settle on the days prescribed by law and hence make this appeal. I beg that you and all come forward and settle promptly their taxes, thereby saving myself trouble and you annoyance.
 M. W. PAGE, Sheriff.

Golf Cape Lost.
 A tan, golf cape, with a golf hood, lined with Scotland plaid silk, on a street car yesterday afternoon. Suitable reward for return to this office.

Johnson & Smith's photographs are all the talk. Diamond size $1.50, cabinet size $2.50 one half dozen. Examine their work.

We are now making in their perfection the original Peanut Brittle and Butter Cups. We invite comparison with other makes. ROYSTER.

Lost—Bank Book.
 RALEIGH, N. C., July 23, 1908.
 The undersigned hereby gives notice that she has lost, or her late husband, W. N. H. Smith, has lost, two certificates of shares of the capital stock of The Citizens Bank of Norfolk, Va., numbered 40 and 23 respectively, the former for three shares and the latter for twenty-two shares of said stock and wishes them returned to her if found.
 Mrs. MARY O. SMITH,
 Executrix of W. N. H. Smith,
