Mrs. Fred Phillips, of Tarboro, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Herbert W. Jackson, returned to her home yesterday.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The cotton exchange was dull today. New York took holiday on account of the election.

If Reidsville weather kept pace with Raleigh saphrys today, Patchen and Gentry had a fine day to go.

A colored sailor, dressed in the nautical uniform, struck town today. An unsteady jag made his presence on the streets prominent.

The County Commissioners met today in regular session. No business of importance was transacted, however, the work of the board being simply routine, with a spile of school matters.

A Revenue seizure was made at Goldston, near Sanford yesterday. A 90-gallon still, one thousand gallons of beer and a lot of still paraphernalia were also taken. The parties who manipulated the still were no where to be seen. The property was destroyed.

The receipts of cotton are still very small. It is remarkable, when one thinks of it, the ability the farmers of Wake show to hold their cotton for higher prices. Seeing this, the fact becomes more and more evident that, though hard times is a harsh master, he is nevertheless a good teacher.

Mr. Finlayson, of Goldsboro, was here today to interview Father Worth. The trouble is about the taxes imposed by his Righteousness on the Baltimore United Oil Company, which Mr. Finlayson represents. The company will doubtless have to pay for the Treasurer has the drop, in the shape of a fusion law, on Mr. Finlayson.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Christian Church will be held Wednesday night after prayer-meeting. Every member is requested to be present. The annual reports of the officers will be made and delegates elected to attend the annual conference which meets the last of this month.

Dr. Venable Says a Tar Heel Victory.

Dr. Francis Venable, of the University, well known as the "Walter Camp of the South," was here today. No man has a more deep-rooted love for college athletics in the pure sense; and none is more qualified to speak concerning the relative merits of college teams than he.

"Do you think that a Tar Heel will have any chance to cheer at Richmond on Thanksgiving day?" I asked.

"Well," replied the Doctor, "as matters stand now, I think our team superior to Virginia; but in football a great deal can happen in a month. However, I think Carolina should win."

Of course the ladies are invited and expected to be present. It is a general prayer meeting for these special classes.

Tomorrow night the subject will be the "Laboring classes" both male and female, printers, clerks, R. R. men, carpenters, painters, etc., come and enjoy the service and learn of the burdens and needs of others.

ALF A. THOMPSON.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 8, 1896.

Under the advice of my physician I have concluded to retire temporarily from business and beg to cordially commend Mr. E. B. Barbee, who continues the business of Barbee & Thompson, to the patrons of the old firm. My connection with Mr. Barbee is severed with sincere regret. Not only as partners, but friends, our relations have been, without exception, thoroughly cordial. With every facility for conducting the business, an entire knowledge of the wants of the trade, and a fixed intention to give value received, there is every reason to assure those interested that dealings with Mr. Barbee will be entirely satisfactory.

ALF A. THOMPSON.

I desire to thank our patrons for part favors and solicit a continuance of the same with the assurance that I will do my best to please them.

E. B. BARBEE.
