Mr. C. O. Ball Files a Deed of Trust.

Mr. C. O. Ball, who has been engaged in the grocery business on East Hargett street, filed a deed of trust this morning to Mr. E. B. Barbee. The step was taken by Mr. Ball in consequence of had collections and came as a surprise to many of his many friends and patrons who regretted to hear that circumstances had necessitated this action. Mr. Ball has a good patronage and a large circle of friends, won by his courteous and fair dealings with the public and all these hope that he will soon again find his affairs in shape to reopen his business which has gained great favor and popularity with the public here.

The Chamberlain-Powell Suit.

The case of farmer Powell against Mr. Chamberlain, president of the Caraleigh Phosphate Works, was decided in favor of Mr. Chamberlain. Powell claimed that Chamberlain promised him $100 and expenses incurred in a suit to withdraw an action brought against the Phosphate Works for failure to tag guano sacks. Otho Wilson testified that the proposition was made. Mr. Chamberlain said he did not promise to pay any expenses. Mr. Chamberlain was sustained. Mr. Chamberlain has already paid $31. It was adjudged that he should pay Powell $50.

No More Quail for Him.

Major Martin, it will be remembered, last season ate thirty birds in as many days on a wager by Mr. A. Dughi. Last night a reporter asked Maj. Martin if he would have a bird. "No, sir," he replied, "I don't want to even smell one." Maj. Martin has always been extremely fond of birds.

PROFESSIONAL MEN'S MEETING.

The Special Meetings Held at the Tabernacle Church.

At the Tabernacle Baptist Church last evening was held the first of a series of meetings, inaugurated by Dr. A. M. Simms for all classes of people, meetings in which they may rise and express their views. The plan is a unique one; last night the meeting was for professional men—lawyers, doctors, editors and teachers. There was a very large attendance, the spacious church being filled.

Dr. Simms presided and conducted the meeting. There was singing and prayer.

Editor J. W. Bailey, of the Biblical Recorder, was the first to speak. He was followed by Editor Hal Ayer, of the Caucasian.

For the lawyers, spoke Lawyer Ward, of Duplin, and lawyer Lindsay, of Goldsboro.

There were few doctors present; Dr. Buffalo spoke briefly.

The meeting was full of interest and tonight, when the working men's meeting is held, the church will doubtless be crowded to the doors.

Mr. Alf A. Thompson and Mr. George W. Thompson, Jr., have gone to Pittsboro to visit their father and at the same time enjoy a hunting excursion.

Important Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry was held in the office of the secretary. A number of propositions were presented for the establishment of valuable industries, and after full discussion they were referred to the committee on manufactures with instruction to examine and be ready to make a report at the next meeting of the Chamber on Tuesday evening.

Have you had Johnson & Smith to make you a half dozen of their card photos? It only costs you $1.25. They guarantee to satisfy you.

Dissolution of Copartnership.

The firm of Barbee & Thompson is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Alf A. Thompson retiring. The business will be continued by Mr. E. B. Barbee.

Under the advice of my physician I have concluded to retire temporarily from business and beg to cordially commend Mr. E. B. Barbee, who continues the business of Barbee & Thompson, to the patrons of the old firm. My connection with Mr. Barbee is severed with sincere regret. Not only as partners, but friends, our relations have been, without exception, thoroughly cordial. With every facility for conducting the business, an entire knowledge of the wants of the trade, and a fixed intention to give value received, there is every reason to assure those interested that dealings with Mr. Barbee will be entirely satisfactory.

I desire to thank our patrons for past favors and solicit a continuance of the same with the assurance that I will do my best to please them. E. B. BARBEE.

A thing never before heard of! Elegant suits with French plate mirrors, $30 and $25, at Thomas & Maxwell's for $35.00.

JULIUS LEWIS HARDWARE COMPANY. Nov 4-1v.

THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL Life Insurance Comp'y

Sells plain life insurance, as protection to the family, creditors or one's old age, and asks a careful examination of its clear and equitable contracts, with their unequalled guarantees in figures on the policy, giving true life insurance at its

Lowest possible Cost

With Perfect Security. This company has been doing business in this State over twenty-eight years, and its policy holders are its BEST FRIENDS.

The Connecticut Mutual has no speculative feature, extension forfeitures or intricate plans, contrived for the company's advantage, nor the incontestable clause, admitting rescals at the expense of its honest members, but if any happen to get in, it gives them their money back, all stated in the contract. The

has become an important factor in life insurance. All will be gladly explained by

S. D. WAIT, General Agent, Raleigh.

Having qualified as the Executrix of the last Will and Testament of D. T. Swindell, deceased late of Wake County, North Carolina, I hereby notify all persons having claims against the Estate of said Swindell to present the same to me on or before October 23d, 1896, at this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. This is also to notify all persons indebted to said Estate to make prompt payment to me. This October 18th, 1896.

EMMA S. SWINDELL, Executrix of the last Will and Testament of D. E. Swindell, Deceased. HARRY HAYWOOD, Attorney, oct 18 2w
